

MISS KWE YUIN KIANG SPEAKS TO WOMEN AT THE METHODIST CHURCH MONDAY EVENING

About 65 people met in Alliance building at 8 o'clock Monday evening to hear Miss Kwe Yui Kiang of Soochow, China. The group was made up of members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Sylva Methodist church, the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Webster Methodist church, the Gaynelle

Murray circle of the Sylva Baptist church, Rev. and Mrs. Dennis and a group of young people from the Cherokee Indian reservation and several other interested persons. Mrs. Harry Hastings, president of the Sylva society, presided and asked Rev. W. Q. Grigg to open the meeting with prayer. After a few preliminary remarks and a welcome to all the visitors, she presented Mrs. Mary R. Cowan, who introduced Miss Kiang.

In her talk she told in a most interesting way of the work of the women in China, especially in the east area where her school is located. She stressed the need of more missionary workers as the number since the war has never reached what it was before and there is need for a greater number. At the present workers are a bigger problem than money. She then suggested that people ask questions about the things they were most interested in. Several asked questions and she answered them in such a way that is showed that she was well informed not only about the religious life but also the political and economic life of China.

Farmers May Take 1948 ACA Allowance In Lime

D. C. Higdon, Chairman of Jackson county ACA, states that any farmer who has not taken his 1948 farm allowance in conservation materials, may place an order for four tons of AAA lime regardless of how small his allowance may be. Any farmer needing lime to be used this fall is asked to contact the county office at once and see what can be worked out for him. It is expected that delivery of lime orders will be taken care of in good order this fall.

A social hour was held and the hostesses, Mrs. Harry Hastings, Mrs. Raymond Stovall and Mrs. Frank Fricks served cake, ice cream and punch.

Miss Kiang also spoke at the 11 o'clock service at the Sylva Methodist church Sunday morning and spoke to several groups at Cullowhee on Monday.

She has served as president of Laura Haygood Normal school in Soochow for 20 years. For the past year she has been studying school administration at Columbia university.

After visiting Mrs. Mary R. Cowan for five days she left Tuesday for Asheville. She will sail the latter part of the month for China to be there in time for the opening of school this year.

After hearing Miss Kiang speak the members of the Gaynelle Murray circle, who had attended in a body, went to the home of Miss Beatrice Cagle where a business meeting was held, followed by a social hour during which the hostesses served refreshments.

The Carrie Rhodes circle and the Annie Cowan circle held short business sessions at 7:30 o'clock and then joined the others at 8 o'clock to hear Miss Kiang.

FFA FORESTRY PROJECTS BEING CHECKED

Inspection of FFA forestry projects in North Carolina will be made during the week of July 14 to determine the top four forestry winners, who will receive savings bonds and scholarships to North Carolina's forestry training camp at Singletary Lake, it was announced today by Roy H. Thomas, State Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture. Fred Claridge, Assistant State Forester, North Carolina Forest Service, will direct the camp.

Mr. Thomas stated that M. E. Coleman, Educational Director of The American Turpentine Farmers Association, Valdosta, Ga., and R. N. Hoskins, Industrial Forester, Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company, Norfolk, Va., will assist in checking forestry-project accomplishments by future farmers during the year.

This program, which has been in operation during the past four years, has had a direct bearing on the increased number of forestry projects throughout the state. Mr. Thomas pointed out that forestry projects have steadily increased during the past year.

Agencies cooperating in the project are: State Forest Service; Department of Vocational Agriculture; Regal Paper Corporation, Acme, N. C.; Halifax Paper Company, Roanoke Rapids, N. C.; Industrial Department, Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company, Norfolk, Va., and the Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association, whose member mills in North Carolina sponsor the camp.

Holden Family Reunion Continues For Week

Mrs. Della Holden, widow of the late Taylor Holden of the Fall Cliff community, enjoyed the pleasure of having her children and their families with her again this 4th of July season. Lindon, Gertrude and Eva still own homes on the farm on which they were reared but are now employed elsewhere. There were twenty-nine who enjoyed eating, sleeping or trying to sleep while others chatted. Three children connected with the family, now living in Gastonia, were also present.

Members of the family, including the mother, were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stephens and family, Hazel, Taylor, Helen and Tommie, of Cramerton; Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Holden and children, Linda, Shelly, and George Taylor, of Greenville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nichols and son, Billy, Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Holden, of Gastonia; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hampton, Greenville. Mrs. Hampton became ill during her visit and was taken to a Greenville hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Loman Giles and infant son, Dennis, of Cramerton. Dennis was the star of the reunion as he was the only great grandchild present. Mrs. Giles will be remembered as Geneva Jo Holden.
