Catherine Davis Moore Weds Lt. E. J. Brickette

The Post chapel at Ft. Custis, Va. was the setting on Monday, July 12, at ten o'clock in the morning for the marriage of Mrs. Catherine Davis Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Davis of Sylva and Lt. Edward John Brickette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brickette of Blackwood, New Jersey. Chaplain Julius B. Gonia officiated, the ceremony being performed before a background of white flowers, palms and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Adolph K. Berge played the wedding music and Staff Sgt. Lester J. King of Newport News, Va. sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because".

The bride, who was given in marriage by Lt. Thomas Morris of Newport News, wore cornflower blue crepe, fashioned street length, ballerina skirt, high neckline, short bell sleeves and snug fitting bodice with shirred peplum. She carried a prayer book showered with a white carnation spray and wore a small off-the-face straw hat with petal pink veiling. Her accessories were white.

Miss Jean Davis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a petal pink crepe dress, street-length, fashioned with scalloped neckline, mutton sleeves and full skirt. Her hat was navy blue taffetta, off-the-face-model with high brim. Her accessories were navy blue and her corsage was of Rubryrim lillies.

Lt. Henry J. Stein of Newport News was best man, and the ushers

Mrs. D. B. Hooper Has Dinner Bridge

On Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Dan B. Hooper entertained with a dinner bridge party and stork shower for Mrs. James Barnwell. The guests were the members of the Thursday Nite bridge club and this took the place of the regular fortnightly meeting.

When the guests arrived two tables were arranged in the living room with appointments for the dinner. Following this cards were brought out and several progressions of bridge played. Mrs. Martin Cunningham won the award for high score, Miss Nancy Allison received the prize for second high and Miss Lou Elsie Parker the one for low score.

Mrs. Barnwell was presented a shower of gifts. Others playing besides the prize winners and Mrs. Barnwell were Mrs. Rudy Hardy, Mrs. Clyde Rector, Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon and Miss Dot Tallent.

District Leader Is Guest At Guild Meeting

Miss Margaret Wilson of Bryson City, district director of the Wesleyan Service Guild, was guest of the local Guild when it met on Monday evening at the home of its president, Dr. Noracella Wilson.

The meeting was opened by a devotional led by Mrs. Nettie Shook followed by a prayer by Rev. W. Q. Grigg. Dr. Wilson presided over the business session. This finished, she presented Miss Wilson, who spoke on "The Fundamentals of the Guild", taking up its pledge and four objectives and discussing each fully. Much valuable information was gained from her talk. A question and answer period followed.

The hostess, assisted by Miss Lucile Wilson, served a sweet course.
