

For The Women

Society News and Club Activities

Phone 110

Cooke-Corbin Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Lee Cooke of Asheville have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jo Cooke, to John Frank Corbin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Corbin of Sylva.

Miss Cooke with her parents formerly lived in Sylva and is a graduate of Sylva High school and attended the Asheville School for Technicians.

Mr. Corbin graduated from Sylva High school, attended Clemson College and Western Carolina Teachers College. He served for two years with the U. S. Navy during World War II.

The wedding will take place September 1.

Mrs. Cunningham Hostess For Bridge Club

On last Thursday evening Mrs. Martin Cunningham was hostess for the regular meeting of the Thursday Nite Bridge club at her home in the Allison apartment.

For the evening's play Mrs. Dan Hooper scored high and Miss Nancy Allison made second high score and were awarded the respective prizes.

Others playing were Mrs. Rudy Hardy, Mrs. Clyde Rector, and Mrs. Ned Morris, Miss Lou Elsie Parker, Miss Mary Henson and Miss Dot Tallent.

Following the games Mrs. Cunningham served a salad course to her guests.

D. M. Halls Honor

Mr. and Mrs. Rowson

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hall, Jr., were hosts at a small dinner party on Tuesday evening as a courtesy for Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Rowson, who were recently married in Florida and are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Brown at Cullowhee.

The house was decorated with mixed summer flowers and in the dining room a color scheme of green and white was carried out. The table was centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and clematis, flanked on either side with candelabra holding tall white

Mrs. Wise Hostess For Sylva Woman's Club

Rev. W. Q. Grigg, pastor of the Sylva Methodist church, was the guest speaker when the Sylva Woman's club met in monthly session on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wise. He spoke on the subject, "Personal Counseling."

Miss Hicks Wilson, the president, was in charge during the business session. A number of matters of vital interest to the club were discussed and voted on, one of these being a donation to the Jackson County public library.

As the sponsoring organization of the cub scouts, it is urged that each member be present for the next public meeting of the cubs, their leaders and committee members to be held Friday, September 10.

During the social hour Mrs. Wise served a salad course.

Ruby Daniel Circle Has Monthly Meeting

On last Thursday evening Mrs. Porter Scroggs was hostess for the regular monthly meeting of the Ruby Daniel circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Sylva Baptist church.

The president, Mrs. Lee Walker, conducted the business session, and two new members, Mrs. Tommy Davis and Mrs. Robert Ensley, were welcomed into the circle.

The personal service work for the month was for the local hospital for which the group purchased and presented a bedspread.

Mrs. Charles Campbell was in charge of both the devotional and the program on the Baptist Woman's Work in South America. She was assisted by Mrs. Felix Potts and Mrs. Cicero Bryson.

The hostess served cake and coffee. The guests places were marked with white place cards tied with green bows.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Rowson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allison.

Married August 4th

Mrs. Hugh Brendle Jenkins, who was, before her marriage on August 4, Miss Iris Sitton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sitton, of Whittier. She and Mr. Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jenkins, also of Whittier, were married in the Methodist parsonage with the Rev. O. E. Thorne, pastor, officiating.

Sylva H. D. Club Has Annual Picnic

On Monday morning 30 o'clock 15 members of the Sylva Home Demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. C. R. Moody for their annual picnic. The members brought picnic lunches and a bountiful dinner was served.

In the afternoon a business session was held under the direction of Mrs. Isola Thomas, the president. All old business matters were cleared up and the club voted to make a donation of $25.00 to both the Jackson County public library and to the curb market.

The program was omitted for this month as this was the social meeting of the year.

Annie Cowan Circle Met With Mrs. Buchanan

Mrs. M. Buchanan, Sr., was hostess at her home on last Wednesday afternoon for the monthly meeting of the Annie Cowan circle of the Sylva Methodist church. In

PERSONALS

Mrs. George Sentelle, Mrs. Marvin Cappel and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McDonald of Alexandria, La., were guests last week of Mrs. B. E. Gray at her home in Dillsboro.

Misses Era and Esther McGinnis have returned to their home in Commerce, Ga., after spending several weeks with their sister, Mrs. J. H. Patterson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooper and son, Pat, will leave today for their home in Lest Creek, West Virginia, after spending the past two weeks with Mrs. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson. While here they also visited friends and relatives in Watkinville and Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. H. T. Hunter and two daughters, Misses Martha Lou and Elizabeth Ann, returned to their home at Cullowhee Saturday after spending a few weeks in Los Angeles, Calif., with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Richard Pettit, and Mr. Pettit.

Mrs. E. E. Brown has gone to Newport News, Va., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Emerson Phillips, and Mr. Phillips. She will then go to Pollockville, N. C., to visit another daughter, Mrs. C. S. Williams, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Row-

Misses Stillwell Entertain College Group

Misses Elizabeth and Joy Stillwell entertained a group of college friends at their home on Saturday evening. The spacious veranda under rustic lantern light, was open for dancing.

Bridge tables were set up in the living room and for that social chat the music room provided the suitable atmosphere.

The couples were invited into the dining room where a salad course was served buffet style by candlelight to the strains of the Romeo and Juliet Overture from Tschaiakowsky.

Out-of-town guests for the occasion were Zeb Jones, of Monroe, N. C. college, and Charles Griffin and Colbert Smith, of Greensboro, both members of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity of Duke University.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Harry Hastings presided over a routine business session.

Mrs. W. R. Enloe presented the devotional on the theme, "Christ, the Ongoing Companion of Our Way," and Mrs. George Evans had the program. Her topic was "Thy Way in Puerto Rico."

Mrs. Buchanan served ice cream and cake to the fifteen members present.

Spark up your fall wardrobe with COLOR... see the wide selection of HOLE-PROOF novelty socks... young brights, smart darks, handsome neutrals in bold checks, stripes and patterns. Racer Shorts or regular length.

55c TO 85c HOLEPROOF WALLIN'S

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Thursday, August 19—The Dillsboro Masonic lodge will meet in the Masonic hall, Dillsboro, at 7:30 p.m. Claude J. Cowan, W.M.

Friday, August 20—The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet in Allison building at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Harry Hastings, president.

Monday, Aug. 23—Sylva Elementary and High school Faculty at High school at 10 a. m.

Monday, August 23—The Woodmen of the World will meet in the W.O.W. Hall at 7:30 p. m. Jeff Hedden, council commander.

Monday, August 23—The Sylva firemen will meet at the fire station at 6:45 p.m. Bart Cope, chief.

Tuesday, August 24—The Rotary club will have a dinner meeting daughter, Marsha Kay, have returned to their home in Cullowhee after having spent the summer in Nashville, Tenn., where Mr. and Mrs. Olson attended Peabody college.

Mrs. W. H. Link of Aspermont, Texas, arrived Saturday for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bumgarner of Sylva, and with Mr. and Mrs. Carson Bryson and Mrs. Vera Bryson and their families at Cullowhee.

Rev. and Mrs. Wayne C. Deitz will return Friday from Charlotte where they have spent since Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Moseman

in Allison building at 7 p.m. J. C. Cannon, president.

Wednesday, August 25 — The Lions club will have a dinner meeting in the High School cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Roy Reed, president.

Thursday, August 26—Oce chapter, No. 129, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in the Masonic hall, Dillsboro, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Hazel Carlson, Worthy Matron.

Friday, Aug. 27—William E. Dillard club will have a dinner meeting

Post of the American Legion will meet in the Community building at 7:30 p. m.

Friday, August 27—The American Legion will meet in the Community house at 7:30 p.m. F. M. Williams, commander.

have returned to their home in Speedwell after six weeks' visit in Seattle, Wash., and points in California. Mrs. Moseman is the former Miss Sara Belle Hooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yonally arrived from Grand Island, Fla., several days ago for a visit with Mrs. Yonally's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Morgan. Mr. Yonally has returned to Grand Island but Mrs. Yonally remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Gerhardtstein of Batavia, Ohio, who have been visiting her father, J. B. Ensley, and Mrs. Ensley, and her sister, Mrs. H. M. Hooper, have gone to Georgia and Florida for visits after which they will return to Sylva for another stay before returning to their home.

Advertisement for THE BOOK STORE featuring various office supplies like pens, paper, and folders. Text includes: 'THESE ARE A FEW OF THE OFFICE SUPPLY ITEMS WE CARRY IN STOCK', 'ITEMS We do not have we can get for you.', 'Call us for your NEEDS.', 'FINE STATIONERY - - GREETING CARDS'

Large advertisement for Simmons Electronic Blanket. Features an image of a woman sleeping and a gift bond. Text includes: 'What Better Gift than BETTER SLEEP!', 'A GIFT BOND for a Simmons Electronic Blanket!', '$44.50', 'ONLY SIMMONS PROVIDES electronic control... adjusts automatically for in-the-bed temperature, compensating even for changes in body radiation. Choose the warmth you want it stays that way.', 'Sossamon Furniture Company', 'Main Street Sylva, N. C.'