Glenville O.E.S. Has Regular Meeting

Glenville chapter, No. 222, Order of the Eastern Star, held a regular meeting on Saturday evening with Mrs. Ellen Robinson, Worthy Matron.

The Worthy Matron distributed the Year Books to the members and dedication of the Year's work was made to "Aunt Lula Franks," the oldest member of the chapter, who is 85. Following the dedication the honoree was presented with flowers and gifts.

During the social hour an ice course was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Emma Fowler, Mrs. Maxie Freeman, and Mrs. Emma Lou Burrell.

Mrs. Jack Allison Honored At Shower

On Friday evening Miss Nancy Allison, Mrs. Bailey Whit of Asheville, and Mrs. J. L. Hooper of Waynesville entertained at the home of their mother, Mrs. J. C. Allison, with a bridge shower as a courtesy for their sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Allison. The house, decorated with arrangements of various colored dahlias, gladioli, and asters, formed a lovely setting for the affair.

On arrival the guests found three tables appointed for bridge in the living room. The award for high score went to Mrs. D. M. Hall, Jr., that for second high was won by the guest of honor, and Mrs. Rudy Hardy received the prize for low score.

Cards were removed and covers laid for a salad course which was served. The tables were centered with miniature shoes, lamps, and baby buggies holding pink and blue asters.

Mrs. Allison was then presented a shower of gifts.

Guests playing were the honoree, Mrs. D. M. Hall, Jr., Mrs. Rudy Hardy, Mrs. Wayne Terrell, Mrs. Dan B. Hooper, Mrs. Woody Hampton, Mrs. Ned Morris, Mrs. Martin Cunningham, Mrs. Roger Dillard, Miss Mary Henson, Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon and Miss Lela Moore Hall. Other guests coming in for refreshments were Mrs. Frank Massie, Miss Anne Enloe, Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton, and Mrs. Fred Allison from Waynesville.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Lydia H. Enslley to Mr. Wright M. Welch on Sunday, August 22, at Yongles Island, S. C. The ceremony was performed by The Rev. Bass, pastor of Calvary Baptist church.

Mrs. Welch, formerly of Sylva, has been employed by the American Tobacco Company in Charleston, S. C.

Mr. Welch served three years with the U. S. Navy, and has for twelve years been connected with the Naval ammunition depot at Charleston.

The young couple will make their home in Charleston.

Mrs. C. R. Rowlson Honored At Shower

Another party honoring Mrs. Charles R. Rowlson, the former Miss Hannah Lou Brown of Cullowhee, recent bride, was the miscellaneous shower given on Wednesday afternoon by Miss Carolyn Stillwell and Mrs. William Bryson in Moore parlors of Western Carolina Teachers College. The reception room was decorated with mixed summer flowers and white tapers in silver candelabra.

Appropriate games and contests provided the afternoon's entertainment.

Jimmy Engman and Sue Ann Bryson, dressed as a bride and groom in the dress suit and long white satin gown, entered to the strains of the wedding march, went to the guest of honor and led her to the basket of gifts.

The hostesses, assisted by Miss Helen Bird and Miss Martha Lou Stillwell, served punch and sandwiches. Mrs. Lloyd Engman played several musical selections during the afternoon.

E. L. McKees Honor Mr. and Mrs. Rowlson

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McKee were hosts at a dinner party on Monday evening of last week at High Hampton Inn, honoring Mr. McKee's niece, Mrs. Charles R. Rowlson, and Mrs. Rowlson, who were recently married in Cocoa, Fla.

Covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Rowlson, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hall, Jr., of Sylva, Mrs. E. L. McKee, Jr., of Asheville, and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Brown of Cullowhee.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bryson, Jr., entertained on Tuesday evening, August 17, with a small dinner party as a courtesy for their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thurston, of Miami, Fla. It was also the birthday of Mrs. Thurston.

The table at which the group was seated had a lovely arrangement of mixed summer flowers for a centerpiece. Other enjoying the Brysons' hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Felix Fickelmeier and Mr. and Mrs. Ed W. Wilson.

Mrs. J. C. Allison Entertains For Son

Mrs. J. C. Allison was hostess on Wednesday evening, August 18, to a small group of friends in observance of the birthday of her son, Howard Allison. The living room was decorated with mixed summer flowers.

Ice cream and the birthday cake, which was cut and served by the guest of honor, were served in the living room. Following this several progressions of cards were played.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Ned Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allison, Mrs. Oglia Levine of Miami, Fla., Boyd Sossamon, Miss Nancy Allison, and Mrs. Bailey Whit.

Misses Poteet Honor Miss Cooke, Bride-Elect

On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock about eighteen of the younger set gathered at the home of Misses Jean and Thelma Poteet when they entertained with a miscellaneous shower as a courtesy for Miss Barbara Jo Cooke of Asheville, who will be married on September 1 to John F. Corbin, Jr., of Sylva.

Several games of Bingo were played. The prizes were kitchen utensils and the winners in turn presented them to the honor guest.

A salad course was served to the guests. Mrs. Z. L. Cooke of Asheville, the bride-elect's mother and Mrs. J. F. Corbin, mother of the bride groom-elect, were among the number attending.

The honoree was presented a number of beautifully wrapped packages which contained both beautiful and useful gifts.

Miss Talent Is Hostess For Junior Woman's Club

Miss Dorothy Sue Talent was hostess for the August meeting of the Junior Woman's club on Wednesday evening, August 18, with a large number of members attending. The meeting was held at the home of Miss Talent's sister, Mrs. Clair Olson, at Cullowhee.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Dan B. Hooper presided over a lengthy business session. A number of matters were discussed and donations voted to be paid to some civic enterprises.

The program was omitted and the members enjoyed a social hour, during which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Olson, served a salad course.

Lovefield H. D. Club Has Monthly Meet

The Lovefield Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. H. H. Ashe for the regular July meeting.

Mrs. Dennis Higdon, the president, presided and opened the meeting in regular form. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, the roll called and dues paid.

Due to the meeting in Asheville Miss Johnston was unable to meet with them. The subject for discussion was "Vegetable Canning." Mrs. Higdon took charge of the discussion, giving the latest information on proper canning.

The curb market was discussed and suggestions made on how to display their produce.

A report on the Chest X-Ray mobile unit was given by Mrs. Higdon. She stressed the importance of the club circulating the word in the community and urging every person to have a chest X-Ray.

Plans were made for the annual picnic, after which the hostess served refreshments, and a social hour was enjoyed.
