Ticket Now On Sale For 1st Sylva Game

Tickets for the Sylva high school's season opener football game are now on sale. Adult tickets can be bought from members of the Lions Club, who are sponsoring the game. Student tickets are being sold by the players. They will be on sale at the schoolhouse on the 9th and 10th of September, the opening days of school. There will be no student tickets sold at the gate.

The game, between Sylva and Hayesville high, will be played at Mark Watson Field September 10 at 8 p. m.

Members of the Sylva squad are fighting for positions in the starting lineup. Two daily practice sessions are being held. At the present, Coach James Barnwell is scrimmaging two teams during the workout periods. New candidates are welcomed to the squad.

The squad is composed of: Ends—Charles Cunningham, Carrol Ashe, Harold Parris, and Bennie Reese; tackles—Tom Henry, Clyde

DUGGINS WILL GROOM FROM THE INSIDE OUT HEAVY SQUAD AT APPALACHIAN

By Bob Terrell

Loss Of Stars Will Hurt; Replacements Sought

With such stars as John Hollars and Bill Dulin gone for good, Coach E. C. Duggins of the Appalachian State Mountaineers is priming 18 lettermen in an attempt to fill the gaps and field a formidable club during the 1948 season.

In his first year as head mentor of the Mountaineer squad last fall, Duggins' club captured nine wins while losing one. His only prediction for the coming season is: "The success of this season will depend on how all the games come out."

Although a good part of the power of last year's Maulin's Mountaineers is gone, there is a bright side to the picture. It is difficult to find more than seven seniors on the 48-man roster. Therefore, Duggins is pointing toward another powerhouse team by 1949 at any rate.

Besides Hollars, the All-Conference back who is now with the Chicago Professional Cardinals and Dulin, the Honorable Mention Little All-America end, the Mountaineers will be minus the services of Reece Shugart, center; Bill Underwood, back; Aubrey Fuller and Chuck Harris, guards; John Kirk, All-Conference tackle; Buddy Brooks, end; and Marvin Hoffman, All-Conference quarterback. All were sparkplugs of last year's team.

Duggins is well assisted in the coaching department by Bob Broome, who was instrumental in developing the high-stepping backfield of 1947; Francis Hoover, end coach who also turned out last winter's North State Conference basketball champs at Appalachian; and James Malcolm, who coached the undefeated "B" eleven in 1947.

The schedule: Sept. 18, Guilford at Winston-

Bumgarner, Edward Ward, and Vance Blanton; guards—Perry Rhodes, Clarence Frizell, Thornton Cabe, and Charles Crisp; centers—Dennis Enslay and Zollie Fincannon; backs—Roy Elders, Jack (Lard) Cunningham, David Long, Hayes Queen, Ernest Bumgarner, Kent Hoyle, Furman Dillard and Derel Montith.

This week marks the opening of football drills at Western Carolina. Coach Tom Young, at the time of this writing, is expecting some 80 young muskies to report Wednesday for the first drills. Equipment was sorted and distributed in the locker rooms Monday so that no time would be lost in issuing working togs to the players as they came in.

Coach Young still contends that this season will not be a repetition of last year, and we are heavily inclined to agree with him when we glance down the roster. Western Carolina lost only three men through graduation last year and will go into this 1948 season with a bunch of hardened grid veterans pulling the reins of the Catamount team. The Cats sport two of the best lines in the North State Conference and this year they will have something to go behind them.

We're certainly pulling for them to have a good season and from the looks of it, they will.

Due to lack of space this week, we will not take up a lot of room elaborating about the present heavyweight crisis in the boxing world. We'll save all that for the big edition that's coming out next week.

Salem; Sept. 25, Western Carolina at Asheville; Oct. 2, Elon at Boone (homecoming); Oct. 9, Lenoir-Rhyne at Hickory; Oct. 16, Catawba at Winston-Salem; Oct. 23, High Point at Boone; Oct. 30, Emory and Henry at Bristol, Va.; Nov. 6, Eastern Carolina at Boone; Nov. 13, Atlantic Christian at Wilson.
