Annual Picnic Enjoyed By Glenville Members
The annual picnic of the Glenville Home Demonstration club was held Monday, August 23 at the home of Mrs. George J. Stewart with Miss Mary Johnston, county home agent, and her guest, Miss Dair Swanson, and six club members and their families participating.
Miss Johnston tested several pressure cookers and gave the members a report on the county curb market operated each Friday afternoon in Sylva.
A delicious picnic lunch was enjoyed on the lawn, after which all assembled in the living room for games and contests.

Dr. Smith Declines Chowan College Offer
Dr. H. P. Smith, professor of Social Science at Western Carolina Teachers College, has announced that he has declined the offer of the presidency of Chowan College and will remain at his post at Western Carolina.
The trustees of the Chowan Baptist Institution had made Dr. Smith a very attractive offer to take the job as president of the college. Considerable building and expansion is now in progress at Chowan in view of opening for the acceptance of students next fall.
