Miss Cooke Is Bride Of J. F. Corbin, Jr.

Miss Barbara Jo Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Lee Cooke of 38 Lakeview road, was married to John Franklin Corbin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Corbin of Sylva, on Wednesday afternoon, September 1, at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland R. Lackey, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

The Rev. T. F. Deitz of Sylva officiated. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar banked with ferns interspersed with baskets of gladiolus and chrysanthemums. The candles were lighted by Rebecca Abernathy of Winston-Salem, cousin of the bride.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Edward Lee Cooke, wore a gray gabardine suit with pink blouse and grey felt hat with an ostrich plume. She carried a white prayer book to which was attached a purple throated aramid showered with satin streamers and lilies of the valley. Her ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Garland R. Lackey served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a dark green crepe dress with pink beaver hat and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of mixed flowers.

William Whitten of Clemson college served as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held. Those assisting included Mrs. Frank F. Brown, Mrs. Myron C. Peterson, Mrs. Raymond McClure and Mrs. Wesley Brown.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with silver beads and a corsage of white gladiolus, and the bridegroom's mother wore wine crepe with a corsage of red rosebuds.

After the ceremony the couple left by motor for a wedding trip. They will reside in Sylva.

Mrs. Corbin attended Sylva high school and the Dell School of Medical Technology. Mr. Corbin is a graduate of Sylva high school and served in the navy for two years. He later attended Clemson college, and Western Carolina Teachers college.

Twentieth Century Club To Resume Activities

After a period of inactivity during the summer months the Twentieth Century club will resume activities when it meets for its first fall meeting tonight (Thursday, Sept. 9) at the Allison building at 8 o'clock. Mrs. J. H. Gillis and Mrs. D. D. Davis will be hostesses for this meeting. A very delightful program has been planned. Mrs. H. S. Parry will show colored slides of Hawaii and other islands and countries where she has lived and visited. Among items of important business to be transacted will be the report of the program committee when they submit a list of subjects for consideration for the year's programs.

Mrs. R. U. Sutton, president, urges full attendance for the meeting tonight.

Strong consumer demand resulted in a record output of 379 billion cigarettes in the year which ended June 30.

Halcyon Club Has Annual Picnic

The Halcyon Club held its annual picnic September 1 at Cherokee. Townspeople who helped the club with their Bingo on the 4th of July and their recent barbecue were the guests of the club. The picnic supper of fried chicken, potato salad, slaw, and cake, was served when the group assembled on the little island in the Oconaluftee river.

Mrs. Corbin Honors Son With Dinner At Her Home

Mrs. J. F. Corbin was hostess at her home on Monday evening, at a stag dinner for her son, John Frank Corbin, who was married on Wednesday afternoon to Miss Barbara Jo Cooke of Asheville.

Assisted by Mrs. Ray Cogdill, Mrs. Corbin served dinner to the following: the honor guest, "Bud" Reed, Lewis Wilson, Jimmy Keener, Raymond Nicholson, Charles Poteet, Wade Wilson, all of Sylva, and Billy Whitten of South Carolina.

Mrs. Fisher Has T.E.L. Class Meeting

Curb Market

Mrs. E. L. McKee, former District Senator and 1948 candidate for the same office, brought greetings to the women and stated that the Curb Market was worth more than dollars and cents, in that it would create a community spirit and lead to greater friendship between county and town people.

The Curb Market opens each Friday from 2 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. and has been opened from the past four consecutive weeks with a total sales of more than $280.00. It has an average of fifteen sellers each selling day.

Mrs. D. C. Higdon states that there are certain rules and regulations which must be observed in order to sell on the market.

All persons who have sold or bought on the market are well pleased with the progress made and procedures adopted by the market personnel.

The Home Demonstration women are planning to have a better and larger market for 1949.
