Miss Cannon Honored With Surprise Bridge-Shower

On Tuesday evening Misses Nancy Allison, Lou Elsie Parker and Mary Henson, were joint hostesses at a surprise bridge-shower honoring Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon, bride-elect of Walter Wade Wilson. The Allison home on Savannah Road furnished a lovely setting for the affair.

On arrival the honor guest was given a corsage of white camellias by the hostesses. Three tables were arranged for play. Winner of the high score award was Miss Agnes Wilson, the low score prize went to Miss Cannon and Miss Chris Buckner won the Bingo prize. Miss Wilson and Miss Buckner presented their awards to the honoree.

A lovely plate consisting of open face sandwiches, ice cream, cake, and coffee, was served.

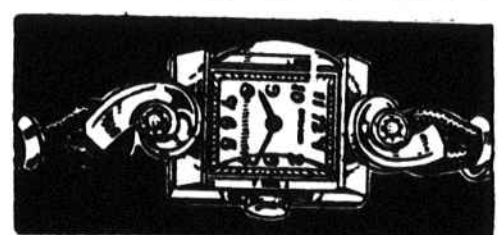

A shower of gifts was then presented to the guest of honor. The guest list included Miss Cannon, Miss Agnes Wilson, Miss Chris Buckner, Miss Jean Poteet, Miss Dorothy Sue Tallent, Miss Doris Glenda Bryson, Mrs. Dan B. Hooper, Mrs. Clyde Rector, Mrs. Martin Cunningham, Mrs. James Myers and Mrs. Raymond Nicholson.

House Warming Given The Cogdills

About fifty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cogdill surprised them on last Wednesday evening, September 22, when they gathered at the Cogdill home for a real "House Warming". The Cogdills recently moved into their new home, formerly known as the Arial home. After the usual cheery greetings, Mrs. John Corbin and Mrs. Howard Ball, who had acted as chairmen of planning, invited the party into the dining room where homemade cake and coffee were served. Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton then presented Mr. and Mrs. Cogdill with a lovely white chenille bedspread, a gift from the group.

An evening of informal group singing and conversation made it an enjoyable occasion for all.
