Miss Cannon Honored With Round Of Pre-nuptial Parties

Several pre-nuptial parties have been given in the past week for Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon of Dillsboro who will be married on Saturday evening to Walter Wade Wilson of Sylva.

On Sunday Miss Anne Enloe entertained with a luncheon at 1:00 p. m. at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Enloe in Dillsboro.

The living room and dining room were decorated with vases of salmon colored gladioli. The dining room table was centered with a large white nosegay, with flower-tipped white satin streamers extending to each corner.

In the living room were placed three small tables, each centered with a small nosegay in pastel shades and tied with matching ribbons.

The bride-elect was given a piece of silver in her chosen pattern.

Covers were laid for the following: Miss Cannon, the honoree, her mother, Mrs. M. B. Cannon, Mrs. E. E. Tweed, Mrs. David Hall, Jr., Mrs. Jack Allison, Mrs. E. B. LaVange, Mrs. Wayne Terrell, Mrs. Dan K. Moore, Miss Nancy Allison, Mrs. Ralph Tatham, Miss Hicks Wilson, Mrs. J. C. Cannon, Mrs. Ben Queen, Mrs. D. M. Hall, Mrs. S. W. Enloe, Miss Mary Henson, Miss Lou Elsie Parker, Mrs. W. R. Enloe, and Miss Lela Moore Hall.

On Monday evening Miss Lela Moore Hall was hostess at a bridge shower at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Dan K. Moore, again honoring Miss Cannon. The home was beautifully decorated with a profusion of mixed fall flowers.

Three tables were made up for play. Mrs. Rudy Hardy won the award for high score, Miss Chris

Maureen Cope Celebrates Fifth Birthday

About thirty-three little friends of Maureen Cope gathered at her home Monday afternoon to help her celebrate her fifth birthday at a party given by her mother, Mrs. Grayson Cope.

As each guest arrived he was given a party hat as a favor to wear during the afternoon. Two contests were given with Ann Potts and Billy Kilpatrick receiving prizes.

After the games and contests they were invited to the dining room for refreshments. The white birthday cake, decorated in pink and green and bearing 5 pink candles, was used as the table centerpiece. After singing "Happy Birthday, Maureen," individual cakes, matching the large cake, each bearing one tiny candle, together with ice cream and peanuts were served. Lollypops were given as favors. The many gift packages presented were then opened.

Mrs. Cope was assisted in entertaining and serving refreshments by Mrs. Bart Cope, Mrs. Johnny Watson, Miss Jo Higdon, and Mrs. J. V. Case.

Surprise Party Given Mrs. W. T. Brown

Mrs. Joe Deitz was hostess at a surprise birthday party at her home on Thursday evening, Oct. 7, for Mrs. W. T. Brown.

Mrs. Gudger Crawford was in charge of the entertainment which consisted of contests. Three prizes were awarded the winners. Mrs. Brown was presented a number of lovely gifts.

Mrs. Deitz served a delicious salad course to the following guests: Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Roger Dillard, Mrs. Grayson Cope, Mrs. Charles Pettit, Mrs. Claude Jones, Mrs. Earl Padgett, Mrs. Hugh Monteith, Mrs. W. B. Cope, Mrs. Kenyon Moody, Mrs. Willie Monteith, Mrs. Gudger Crawford, Mrs. Ruth Adlington, and Mrs. Claude Campbell.

Rucker the one for low score, and the bingo prize went to Miss Anne Cowan.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. D. M. Hall, and Mrs. Moore, served individual cakes decorated with lilies of the valley and green heart shaped ice cream with a cupid mold on each.

The bride-elect was then presented a shower of lovely gifts.

Those playing were Miss Cannon, Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Dan B. Hooper, Mrs. James Myers, Miss Chris Rucker, Miss Lou Elsie Parker, Mrs. Agnes Wilson, Miss Mary Henson, Miss Nancy Allison, Miss Dot Tarrant, Mrs. E. B. LaVange, and Mrs. E. E. Tweed.

Coming in later for refreshments were Mrs. Ralph Tatham, Mrs. Robert Allison, Mrs. D. M. Hall, Jr., Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton, Miss Anne Enloe, Miss Hicks Wilson, and Miss Anne Cowan.

Mrs. Tompkins Attends Unit President's Meet

CAMEL MILDNESS
30-Day Test of hundreds of Camel Smokers revealed
NO THROAT IRRITATION DUE TO SMOKING CAMELS
In a recent test, hundreds of men and women all across the country smoked Camels—and only Camels—an average of one to two packages a day—for 30 consecutive days. Each week their throats were examined by noted throat specialists—a total of 2470 examinations—and these doctors found not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels.
