Tatem Surf Club Guests

This picture shows Felix Picklesimer surrounded by a group of bathing beauties, members of the Asheville Band Majorette corps, taken in front of Tatem Surf Club at Miami beach, where they were special guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tatem Wofford, owners of the club. This group attended the American Legion National Convention in Miami at this time.

Tatem Wofford is also owner of Tatem Sky Club, formerly Fairfield Inn at Cashiers.

CONTEST OFFERS $1,500 IN PRIZES

Prizes totaling $1,500 will be awarded to student and teacher winners in the second annual Rural Life Contest sponsored by Southern Agriculturist magazine, according to L. R. Harrill, State 4-H Club leader.

The top student winner will receive $100 and an expense-paid, five-day trip by air to Washington and New York. The runner-up will also receive the five-day trip as well as $50 in cash. Sixteen additional cash prizes will also be awarded.

First and second prizes for teachers will be $200 and $100.

To participate in the contest, a student must write an article of not more than 500 words on the solution of some problem in rural living and mail it to Contest Editor, Southern Agriculturist, postmarked not later than March 1, 1949. Entries received by January 1 will receive a bonus of five points.

A teacher may enter the contest by writing a short play or pageant

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Cordell

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 26, at Qualla Methodist church for Mrs. Jack Cordell, 26. The Rev. E. O. Thorne, pastor, and Rev. S. T. McGinnis, officiated. Mrs. Cordell passed away Sunday, Oct. 24, at 8:20 p.m. at the C. J. Harris hospital where she had been a patient for the past five weeks, having been ill since January.

Serving as pallbearers were: Pritchard Smith, of Franklin, Lawrence Cordell, Wade Cordell, Glen Cordell, Frank Hayes, and Buddy Smith.

In charge of the flowers were: Mrs. Maxine Bowles, Mrs. Wilma Boyer, Mrs. Frances Webb, Mrs. Louise Smith, Miss Melba Cordell, and Miss Virginia Cordell.

Garrett's Funeral home in Waynesville was in charge of services. Surviving Mrs. Cordell are the husband and one daughter, Jackie, 5; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cooper of Whittier; 2 sisters, Miss Lois Cooper of Asheville and Mrs. Ruth Rogers of Whittier; 5 brothers, Oscar, Ralph, Bill, Donald, and Max, all of Whittier. Scientists and engineers have been working for 20 years on the problems of growing and processing sweet potatoes for starch.
