Vows Are Spoken For Miss Hazel L. Morrison And Jimmy T. Monroe

The marriage of Miss Hazel L. Morrison of Old Fort and Jimmy T. Monroe of Eagle Springs and Cullowhee was solemnized November 8 at high noon in the Green St. Methodist Church at Augusta, Ga. The Reverend Young, pastor, officiated.

The bride wore a grey gabardine suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of red roses. She was unattended as the couple spoke their vows.

Mrs. Monroe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Morrison of Old Fort. She was graduated from Marion High School and is now a senior of high standing at the University of South Carolina where she is drum majorette of the University Band.

Mr. Monroe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Monroe of Eagle Springs. He was graduated from Taber City high school and is now a student at Western Carolina Teachers college in Cullowhee. He spent two years in the Navy.

Immediately after the wedding the couple left for Columbia where they spent their honeymoon.

Mr. Monroe returned to Cullowhee November 15 to resume his studies.

After Mrs. Monroe graduates in the spring the couple will go to New York where Mr. Monroe will enroll in the Pratt Institute of Design in Brooklyn.

WCSA Meets In Allison Building

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met on Friday evening in the Allison building with nine members present. Mrs. Harry Hastings presided over the meeting. Due to so few members being present there was no important business brought up for discussion. Mrs. J. H. Gillis, who was in charge of the program, gave a book review of "The Story of Mankind" by Sam Loon.

On Dec. 6 the Society will have their Christmas party.

All Day Service Is Observed At Speedwell

A large number of people from Jackson county and visitors from Florida and Asheville, enjoyed the all-day service held recently at Speedwell. The delicious picnic lunch, along with the fine singing of the various choirs and quartets added greatly to the enjoyment of the day.

The morning session was taken up with the Sunday School lesson, with the devotional being given by Rev. Jonathan Brown, of Tuckaseegee. Good singing was also a feature of the morning service.

In the afternoon other singers joined the groups already assembled to bring more good music and singing. The Vincen sisters of Macon county were among the welcome visitors. When it comes to singing these young ladies have it. The Vincen sisters' duet and the Blanton sisters' trio from Beta, were grand.

All singers are invited to come again. We enjoyed having Rev. John Kincaid and family with us. We also wish to thank everyone for the offering of $100.00.
