Alva Johnson And R. E. Keener, Jr., Wed In Lovely Home Ceremony

Miss Alva Johnson and James Ernest Keener, Jr., both of Sylva, were married Thursday, November 25 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Thomasson of Bryson City, aunt and uncle of the bride.

The Rev. Herbert Brown officiated. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar. Against a background of green were floor baskets of white gladiolus and chrysanthemums, flanked on either side by white candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Grover Wilkes of Sylva, aunt of the bride, Miss Alice Weaver of Dillsboro and Mr. H. C. Edwards of Mars Hill, vocalists. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Wilkes played "Theme and Variations" by Hayden, and a duet, "Still as The Night" by Goitze-Grey, sung by Miss Weaver and Mr. Edwards, a repetition from the wedding of the bride's parents. During the ceremony Mrs. Wilkes played "To The Evening Star" by Wagner. At the close of the ceremony Miss Weaver sang "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, B. C. Thomasson, wore a gown of white duchess satin fashioned on princess lines. Her finger-tip veil of imported French illusion was attached to a coronet of gardenias. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with valley lilies and centered with orchids.

Miss Gloria Johnson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of aqua crepe trimmed in cerise taffeta, and carried an arm bouquet of Better Time roses.

The bridegroom had as his best man Lewis Wilson of Sylva. The bride's mother wore a dress-maker suit of black gabardine with a purple orchid corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table, covered with an imported lace cloth, was centered with a three tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Assisting Mrs. Rowell Stanton of Rome, Ga., aunt of the bride, who presided at the punch bowl, were Miss Anne Bryson, Miss Carolyn Jean Truett, Miss Dorothy Martin, Miss Doris Thomasson, and Miss Emily Johnson. Individual iced cakes, nuts, and minis were served.

For traveling the bride wore a French blue suit with a gray collar. Her hat was a pale pink velour with ostrich tips of the same color. Her corsage was the orchid detached from her bouquet.

The bride, daughter of D. H. Johnson of Paris, France, and Mrs. Johnson of Sylva, is a student at Sylva High school.

The bridegroom, son of J. E. Keener, Sr., of Sylva, and Mrs. R. C. McClatchey of Asheville, received his education at Sylva High school and Western Carolina Teachers College, Cullowhee. During World War II he served with the U. S. Navy. He is now employed with the Mead Corporation in Sylva.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Sylva.

Viola Brooks Weds Miles Crawford In Church Ceremony At Addie

In a candle-light ceremony Saturday night at 7 o'clock, Miss Viola Brooks, daughter of Mr. Charlie Brooks of Whittier, became the bride of Miles Crawford at the Addie Baptist church.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edgar Wilcox, pastor of the church, before an improvised altar of greenery and white chrysanthemums and candelabra burning white tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Isaac Brooks, wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with tight bodice with a yoke of French illusion. The sleeves were long and lily pointed at the wrist, the full skirt extending in a train. Her veil was finger tip length illusion, caught with a coronet of seeded pearls.

She carried a bouquet of mums centered with gardenias and showered with tube roses. Miss Eddie Lou Terrell, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Tom Clayton, vocalist, sang, "Ah Sweet Mystery Of Life, and Because."

Mrs. Helen Brooks, sister in law of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a gown of aqua marquisited fashioned with a point de Lille yolk. Her headdress was a coronet of matching flowers. The groom had as his best man, Andy Blanton of Addie. Walter Middleton and Bobby Shuler served as ushers.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Brooks entertained at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brooks. The table was overlaid with a lace cloth. The three tiered wedding cake was banked with white pom poms and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The bride chose as her going away suit a gray gaberdine with green accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Following a trip to Florida the couple will reside at Addie.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford received their education in the Sylva High School. Mr. Crawford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Crawford of Addie and at present is employed with the Sylva Supply Hardware Co. in Sylva.
