During the social hour gifts were exchanged and secret pals were revealed. New pals were chosen for the coming year. There were 24 members present for the meeting and 3 visitors.

The meeting was dismissed with a prayer by the Rev. George C. Snyder.

Carl Stanford Honored With Surprise Party

On Saturday evening Mrs. Claude Stanford, assisted by her daughter, Claudia, invited several young people to come as a surprise to her son, Carl, to help celebrate his birthday anniversary. Several interesting games, directed by Claudia, were enjoyed by the group.

Refreshments of the beautiful birthday cake and oranges, and hot chocolate were served.

Carl received many useful gifts.

Those enjoying the evening besides the honoree were Patsy and Nancy Ensley, Mary Lou Plemmons, Annie Kate Stinnet of Canton, Nola Higdon, Doris Middleton, Blanche Montieith, C. J. Cowan, Robert Shular, Clyde Vance, Claude McConnell, Odell Haskett, and Adeline Turner of Greenville, S. C.

Cullowhee Woman's Club Has Meeting And Christmas Party

The Cullowhee Woman's club held their regular monthly meeting and annual Christmas party Tuesday evening in the parlors of Moore dormitory on the WCTC Campus. About 80 persons were present including members, their husbands, and guests.

The main project for the month was "Care", and Mrs. John Worth McDevitt, club president, announced that funds for nine "Care" packages had been raised.

Music was the theme for the evening's program and a delightful program was arranged by the committee, Mrs. Margaret T. Jones, chairman, Miss Kate Anderson, and Mrs. Glenn Ruff. The WCTC mixed octette presented, beautifully, eleven carols in a cantata, "The Child Jesus", by Joseph Cloky and Hazel Kirk, with Walter H. Cupp as director and accompanist. Members of the octette were Virginia Barnwell, Velma Ramsey, Kathleen Moss, Joan Rogers, Robert Bowers, Bronson Matney, Herbert Foster, and Charles West. The students gave an excellent performance and received an enthusiastic round of applause. Following the Cantata everyone then joined in the singing of several favorite Christmas carols with Mr. Cupp directing.

Attractive corsages of spruce, red ribbon, and tiny bells were given as favors. Delicious refreshments consisting of plum pudding, coffee, and nuts were served by the hostesses, Mrs. C. F. Dodson and Mrs. David Brown, co-chairmen; Miss Fannie Goodman, Miss Anne Albright, Mrs. D. M. Hall, and Mrs. Stedman Mitchell.

The Wesleyan Service Guild Meets

The Wesleyan Service Guild held their regular meeting Monday with the president, Dr. Norcella Wilson, who presided over the routine business session.

Mrs. John H. Wilson led the devotional. A program of Christmas carols was enjoyed by the Guild members present.

Mrs. Wilson served refreshments of cake and molded ice cream.
