Velt's Quint Drops Underwood's 50-31

Revenge came in a big hunk Monday night for the Velt's Cafe quint as they rolled over Underwood's of Waynesville 50-31 in the Sylva School gym.

Earlier in the season the Waynesville five took the measure of Velt's 40-24 in Waynesville, but with Ike Olson and Ferris Bryson shipping in with 15 points each the Veltmen had an easy time in disposing of their opponents Monday night.

The first half was comparatively slow. At haltime the Sylva quint held a 13-11 advantage but Olson warmed up during the last two quarters and split the nets seven times. That, with the rest of the Conference bill.

Sylva's girls will be out for their first win, having tied Cullowhee 19-all and dropping a 41-21 verdict to Clyde. The boys will be after their second victory having beaten Cullowhee 27-25 and dropping a 27-26 game to Clyde.

Coach James Barnwell is still optimistic about his teams. His boys are tall and could develop into a conference power, and if two or three girls come through they should win some games also. The Nantahala teams, boys and girls, are reportedly loaded for bear—the bruin being Sylva High.

Farmers' cash receipts from marketing during 1948 will total slightly larger than last year, according to present estimates.
