Miss Frances Grant Is Wed To John B. Ashe In Church Rites

From Rock Hill Paper
Saint John's Methodist church was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 5:30 p. m. yesterday when Miss Frances Ruth Grant became the bride of John Bayne Ashe. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. J. Lem Stokes pastor of both the bride and bridegroom in the parlors of the church.

The room was beautifully arranged with a low container of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums on the mantel; Oregon fern and a pair of floor candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

Wedding music was given by Miss Claire Simmons, who sang I Love Thee (Grieg), Because (D'Hardelot) and as a benediction Seal Us O Holy Spirit. Billy White, pianist, played Liebestraum, Traumerie, and the traditional wedding marches from the processional and the recessional. During the ceremony Clair de Lune was softly played.

Ushers were Julian Dickerson and Charles N. Waters. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Olin H. Grant and the bridegroom chose as his best man his father, J. B. Ashe.

The bride was attended as maid of honor by her only sister, Miss Mary Anna Grant. Miss Grant wore an aqua suit with hat of aqua and other accessories of black. She wore a shoulder corsage of talisman roses.

The bride was lovely in a winter white wool suit with dusty pink hat, blouse and gloves. Other accessories were black and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers and tube roses. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Olin H. Grant, mother of the bride, wore a purple dress with black accessories and a white gladiol corsage.

Mrs. J. B. Ashe, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue dress with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The couple received guests at the door following the ceremony after which they left on a wedding
