Gaynelle Murray Circle Has Memorial Service For Beatrice Cagle

On Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. the Gaynelle Murray circle of the Sylva Baptist church held a Memorial Service in honor of Miss Beatrice Cagle, the first member of the circle to pass away. The Sunday School class of which she was a member also took part in this service. Mrs. E. P. Stillwell played organ music softly during the entire service. Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton, chairman of the circle in charge of the memorial service, was assisted by Miss Docia Garrett. Mrs. Roger Dillard and Mrs. W. T. Brown opened the service by singing a duet, "The Lord is My Shepherd." Mrs. Ray Cogdill quoted softly the lovely poem "Crossing the Bar." Miss Garrett was in charge of the Memorial basket of beautiful pink gladioli. The eighteen members of the circle present individually placed a flower in the basket as she repeated a personal experience, Bible verse, or any remark she wanted to make about Beatrice. Mrs. J. R. Jones sang "The Lord's Prayer", and Miss Sutton read a memorial written in honor of Miss Cagle. Mrs. C. M. Warren closed the service with prayer after which the flowers were taken to the cemetery and placed on Beatrice's grave.

Afternoon Attraction

Taffeta and georgette.

By VERA WINSTON

A GOOD choice for the traveler is this two-piece setup that makes a good late afternoon into evening job. The blouse is of flesh pink georgette and has horizontal tucking below a very simple round neck that barely covers the shoulders. The navy taffeta skirt is pleated all around, and the belt, of crushed navy taffeta, is leather lined.
