DAILY NEWS SHEET AND ADVERTISER.

No. 5.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., FEBRUARY 6, 1896.

Price 2 Cents.

This paper will be sold by newsboys at 2 cents per copy. It will be delivered by carriers, in the city limits, at 25 cents per month, in advance. It will be mailed, post paid, at $3.00 per year, payable (in advance) quarterly, semi-annually, or yearly, as may suit the subscriber's convenience. It will be discontinued upon expiration of the time paid for.

Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of 25 cents per inch for the first insertion, to be continued (unchanged), if desired, at 15 cents per inch for each subsequent issue. "Special notices," will be inserted for a cent a word, though no such "notice" will be taken for less than 20 cents. Larger and contract advertisements at proportionately low rates.

The carrier is responsible for every copy. Don't say to him that you will pay to-morrow. He can accommodate you with the correct change for any small piece.

Every copy offered for sale on the streets should bear the stamp, For Transient Sale, in red ink.

LOCAL NEWS.

The rainfall last night was 2.65 inches.

No weather report to-day, and none is needed.

No news from the front to-day—everything is quiet in Flea Hill.

A colored woman named Mary Jane Parker was taken to the asylum yesterday.

Capt. J. D. McNeill had a hard time last night in holding his mill-dam fast against the torrent of water in Cross Creek.

Joe Royals, the colored boy convicted of throwing stones at houses on Person street, and sent to jail for 30 days, has been hired out to Mrs. Fisher.

Mrs. W. B. Overby, of Mt. Airy, has arrived in the city, and will make this her future home, occupying the old Overby homestead in Redbone.

A special train passed through this city this morning en route to Clinton with General Manager Fry on board. He is a witness in the Express robbery case.

Hector Ray, the negro charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was taken before Squire Overby yesterday, and gave a justified bond for his appearance for trial on Feb. 31st.

The $100,000,000 bond offer received, yesterday, bids aggregating $568,269.850. It is estimated that the price will average 110½. So much for the World's breaking up the secret way of selling bonds which the President engaged in last year, through his former law partner. Then the government's credit was better than now (because there was no war scare,) and yet the President sold to the syndicate at 104½.

A Model Farm in Fayetteville.

Mr. W. H. Powell, one of our city aldermen, has a model farm consisting of about 20 acres near Council Hall in Campbellton. He works it himself and proposes to beat all records in the matter of early spring vegetables.

The Cape Fear River to Boom.

Mr. Frank Glover, the weather reporter, received the following telegram from Raleigh this morning:

"Cape Fear will rise fifteen to twenty feet, and probably reach danger line within next forty-eight hours.

VON HERRMAN."

Marriage at Lumber Bridge.

Mr. D. G. McInnis and Mrs. Alice S. Blue were married yesterday at Lumber Bridge, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. P. Clark, Rev. P. R. Law officiating.

Cursing on the Streets.

Haywood Peterson, the colored drayman, was arrested yesterday for cursing on the streets. Something should also be done with crazy Morris. He uses the vilest language without regard to the presence of ladies.

Severe Rain and Wind Storm.

The hardest and heaviest rain fell last night that we have ever known. Several washouts are reported, quite a serious one on the A. C. L. This morning a tremendous wind storm prevailed, almost blowing one off his feet. Several fences were blown down, and a number of window panes blown out on Hay street.

Hotel Arrivals.

J. K. Hinsey, Va.; A. N. McNeill, N. C.; W. R. Fonium, Va.; C. H. Sexton, Dunn; S. Taupheimer, Baltimore; S. N. Ward, Philadelphia; Jas. Levy, N. Y.; Thos. Birses, Florence; Emmitt E. Levy and E. Elliott, Baltimore; B. Leavy, New York; G. Strauss, Atlanta.

Improvements.

Mr. W. S. Maultsby is building several pretty little dwellings on B street, better known as Maultsby street. Mr. Chas. McMillan is contemplating adding a number of small houses to his already large possessions.

Mr. Louis Elkins is building a neat little dwelling house on one of the beautiful arsenal sites.

Election of County Commissioners.

The County Commissioners are to be elected this year. Three will be elected by the people and two appointed by a Judge upon a petition from one hundred electors of the county that three are not sufficient to administer the affairs of the county. We have five now. The Judge in appointing the two commissioners is required by law to appoint men of the opposite political faith from the majority elected. Thus if two democrats are elected and one populist, he will have to appoint two populists, giving the populists the majority, or vice versa as the case may be.

Should be Revived.

Wouldn't it be a good sight to see the shops of Walter Watson resume the aspect of life and activity which they used to wear some ten years ago or more? Then the clatter of anvil and hammer made by the labor of some thirty stalwart smithies forging turpentine tools, resounded through the neighborhood. Now that the turpentine industry has moved away South the demand for tools is not so great for this section. Then some sixteen forges were in operation as against four or five now. But there should be no reason why, with our fine shipping facilities, the business might not be resumed.

Asleep in Jesus.

At the invitation of Him who died for her, Jennie Willis, daughter of Rev. R. A. and Ellen E. Willis, took her departure for her Heavenly home at 10:30 A. M. Tuesday, Feb. 4th, in the city of Wilmington. Another angel added to the throng to sing God's praises around the throne in heaven. A bright, beautiful bud gathered by the Master's hand to bloom forever in the sunlight of God's glory.

Jennie was borne to her last resting place from Hay Street M. E. Church, Fayetteville, followed by a large body of surviving friends. The services were conducted by W. S. Roane, Presiding Elder, Wilmington District, assisted by Rev. Dr. Nash, pastor. Many beautiful floral tributes covered the casket and grave, so pure and lovely, so much like the sweet life they were sent in kind and loving remembrance of.

"Jennie,"

We shall sleep but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn
We shall meet to part, no never,
On the resurrection morn.

Dear father, mother, sisters and brothers, while our heart bleeds in deepest sympathy for you, we recognize God's hand, and feel it is but another tie to bind us to heaven. B. C. G.

People and their Movements.

Mr. John Roddick is on a visit to friends in Wilmington.

Mr. Henry Smith, the popular stove drummer, is in the city.

Miss Maggie Mallet left last for New York to visit her uncle, Col. Peter Mallett.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams, of Little River Academy, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Styles Sedberry have returned from an extended trip to the principle places of interest in the South.

Encouragement.

N. C. Presbyterian, 6th 1

The Fayetteville OBSERVER now issues a daily edition. The Weekly will be continued as heretofore. We are glad to note the progress of our sister city.

Wilmington Messenger. 1

The first issue of the "Daily News Sheet and Advertiser" of the Fayetteville OBSERVER is to hand running over with excellent reading, live locals and timely pointed editorials. The sheet is small—five columns to the page—but twelve of them are packed with original and selected matter. It is sold at $3 a year or 2 cents a copy. It is capital.
