LOCAL NEWS.

Cotton is dull at 7½.

There will be an important meeting of the members of the Exchange Club at 9 o'clock to-night.

Weather Indications—Chief Moore, Washington, D. C., 11:30 o'clock—Fair to-night; fair and warmer Thursday. Gen. Thos. Gill, city, 10:30 o'clock—

Miss Lizzie Bolton's School in Campbellton will give an entertainment Friday night in the old McNeill gin house. Everybody is cordially invited.

We regret to announce that Mr. Silas McBee will be unable to deliver his famous lecture on church architecture on account of pressing business engagements elsewhere.

W. K. Brock, charged with larceny of a deed from Mr. Burness Geddie, was tried before Squire McLean this morning and bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of 50 dollars.

Contempt of Court.

William Brown, who was committed to jail several days ago by Squire Overby for contempt of court in refusing to answer questions, was discharged yesterday. The court ordered his discharge on account of serious sickness in the man's family.

Runaway.

A team of mules ran away this morning and broke off one of the gates at the C. F. & Y. V. crossing and tore up a lamp post. The runaway was caused by one of the gates descending on the back of the mules rather unexpectedly. No damage was done to the mules or wagon.

The Meeting Last Night.

A large congregation assembled in the Armory last night, notwithstanding the scarlatina scare. Rev. Mr. McKelway preached the sermon, taking for his text, "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found." In a masterly style and with his usual clearness of voice and argument, he showed the necessity for immediate repentance.

On account of the cold weather, the meetings will be held in the Methodist Church for the balance of the week.

The Episcopal Parish House.

Mr. Silas McBee, the distinguished church architect of New York, is in the city. He is to-day engaged in drawing plans for the proposed Episcopal Parish House, a sketch of which we published some time ago. These plans will be submitted to the committee this evening and probably some definite arrangement will be reached before he leaves to-night.

Mr. McBee thinks that the building should be located on the south eastern corner of St. John's church where the belfry now stands and be connected with the Vestry Room of the church by a cloister. It was at first proposed to build it along side the church, between the church and the Rectory.

The Scarlatina.

The scare has about subsided and the people are going about their work as usual, though it must be admitted many of them wear little bags around their necks and are seen to put lumps of tar in their water.

As soon as the OBSERVER expelled the cloud of mystery by publishing a list of the infected houses and the people saw that it was by no means an epidemic they became better satisfied. Only one new case has been reported to-day, that of one of Geo. Seurlock's little children.

The cases already reported are doing well with the exception of one of Mr. Jas. Johnson's little girls. She was very sick last night and at one time it was thought that she could not live the night out, though she rallied, and is some better this afternoon.

No "Scarlet Fever" placards have been placed on Mr. W. H. Tomlinson's house, though it was at first thought by Dr. McDuffie that one of the children was threatened.

In our account yesterday we said "Yellow Fever" placards had been put up, etc. It should have been, of course, Scarlet Fever placards.

The doctors say that we quoted them wrong yesterday in saying that the cold weather would have a tendency to kill the germs, that cold weather would kill yellow fever germs but not Scarlet fever.

People and their Movements.

Mr. Alex. Sessoms was in town this morning.

Mr. Ran McMillan returned yesterday from Savannah.

Mr. C. W. Bidgood returned last night from Richmond.

Dr. Wharton, of Manchester, was on the streets this morning.

Mrs. Harriet A. Mabray, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting Mrs. Morrow, on Haymount.

Mr. Webster and daughter, of Red Springs, were in the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell, who have been spending the winter in this city, have returned to their home in Pennsylvania. They made a number of friends while here and they will be heartily welcomed if they return next winter.

SHOULD YOU TRY McDONALD'S COUGH CURE and fail to be benefited by it, return empty bottle and your money will be refunded.

THE FLEA HILL FENCE AGAIN BURNED.

The War is on Once More.

Our correspondent in Flea Hill sent us the following dispatch by a messenger this morning: "Fence burned from Plank Road and still burning all along the line as far as the eye can see. Was discovered at 5 o'clock this morning."

The war has broken out again and lively times may be expected.

It will be remembered that several miles of this stock law fence which had just been erected, was recently burned, and the County offered 50 and the State 100 dollars for the apprehension of the guilty parties.

Detectives from abroad were employed, but after several weeks investigation, they abandoned the search. The Fence Commissioners immediately commenced to have the fence rebuilt. With the exception of the occasional pulling up of a post or cutting of a wire, all has gone along smoothly. It is now very evident that a secret organization is responsible for this lawlessness, as everything is done with method and precision and great secrecy. In fact a gentleman from that neighborhood informs us that there is such a society.

From the latest report we understand that about a mile of the fencing was burned. Those who were awakened by the glare of the flames say that a number of persons must have been concerned in the deed as the flames shot up simultaneously along the whole distance.

There are two factions in Flea Hill, one claiming that the Stock Law Bill was passed by fraud against the wishes of a majority of the people, and the other claiming that it was passed legally upon a petition to the Legislature by a majority of the land holders.

The fence is being built according to a law passed by the late Legislature, and until that law is repealed or declared void on account of fraud it is gross lawlessness to interfere, however much the people may think they have been wronged.
