LOCAL NEWS.

Cotton is steady at 7½.

There was 6.3 feet of water in the Cape Fear this morning at 8 o'clock.

No new cases of Scarlatina have been reported to the Health Officer to day.

Weather Indications.—Chief Moore, Washington, D. C., 11:30 o'clock. Increasing cloudiness to-night. Sunday fair and warmer.—Gen. Thos. Gill city, 10:30 o'clock—Rain in 24 hours.

We learn on good authority that the traveling man who was thought to have brought the Scarlatina here had not been home since Christmas and that on his return recently found his children had been sick for some time. The origin is therefore more of a mystery than ever.

Episcopal Visitation.

The Right Reverend, the Bishop of East Carolina, will hold his annual visitation at Christ's church, Rockfish, at 11 a. m., on Sunday, and at St. Andrews, (across the River), at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Hotel Arrivals.

E R Fishplate, Greensboro; I H Hudson, Bennettsville, S. C.; H C Causey, Liberty, N. C.; Timothy Kyle and wife, Leadville; J J Fields, Miss Fields, Brooklyn; Emmet F Levy, Baltimore; Wm E Neal, N. C.; Alex Read, Buffalo, N. Y.; Jno S Burnett, Wilmington; J M Weaver, Kenton, Ohio.

Fox Hunting on Bicycles.

Messrs. Lawrence Williams, Jno. Thomson and Leon Brandt accompanied a party of fox hunters last night on bicycles. They met with adventures numerous, such as getting lost for several hours, punctured tires, scalped by limbs of trees, running in to moonshine camps and barely escaping with their lives, and finally being chased home by a pack of foxes.

Married.

Rev. and Squire T. B. Newberry married at Kinlaw's boarding house this morning Curtis Berry to Miss Florence Moore, both of Sampson county. The bride was a fresh looking, beautiful country girl about 19 years old. After the ceremony the bride jumped into the buggy and extending her hand to the bashful groom, fairly pulled him in and drove off, both as merry as larks.

Horribly Burned.

A horrible accident occurred in Flea Hill yesterday. While Lucy Williams, an old colored woman, was burning grass her clothes caught afire, and before aid reached her she was terribly burned. We learn that she is not expected to live, as it is feared that she was burned internally.

Aunt Lucy, as she was called, was an old family servant of Mr. J. C. Williams, of Sampson county.

Homicide in Quewhiffe.

Deputy Sheriff J. D. Currie brought into town this morning and lodged in jail Lawrence Rowland charged with killing Tom Crowder, in Quewhiffe Thursday. The homicide occurred on Mr. J. E. Buchanan's farm. Rowland and Crowder were playing snapping guns at each other when Rowland's accidentally exploded, sending a load of shot into Crowder's head, killing him instantly. It is said that the killing was purely an accident. If such is the case, the boy should be discharged.

Destruction of the Fence Continues.

Thursday night the upper end of the Flea Hill fence, from the Kyle branch to the old McDuffie place, was attacked by a mob and destroyed. Messrs. W. H. H. Wade and Josiah Cook, the commissioners, were in the city to-day, and reported the matter to the authorities.

Great excitement prevails in the district, and serious trouble is feared at any moment.

A number of persons are suspected, but no tangible evidence can be had against them.

Blackman Crumpler.

The Rev. Blackman Crumpler, the apostle of sanctification, who has been creating so much religious excitement in the country districts, is coming to Fayetteville. He is described as a short stout man with low forehead and dark hair.

He has just closed a meeting at Autreyville, which brought together enormous crowds. It is said that on last Sunday over 2,000 people assembled to hear him.

During the meeting there were 81 sanctifications and hundreds of conversions. One old man arose and said that a week before he was in despair and had decided to "bunch rags with the devil and fight him no more, but since hearing Blackman Crumpler he was a converted man."

His manner of speech is unique and his gestures odd. It is said that in his enthusiasm he jumps six feet from the floor without apparent exertion, and at times throws his head back and laughs so heartily that it becomes contagious. His doctrine is that after being converted one can be absolutely sinless. He says that he was a terrible boy—so bad that he was shunned by everybody, but since being converted ten years ago, he has not committed one sin. He carries a tent with him, the seating capacity of which is about 1,200.

He says he will be here some time in June.

Capt. Jesse Kyle is sinking rapidly and is not expected to live many hours.

Mr. Jack Burnett, one of the most popular commercial men who visit Fayetteville, is in the city.

People and their Movements.

Col. Cook left last night for Savannah on steamboat business.

Miss Nyda Hicks left this morning to visit friends in Manchester.

Mrs. Henry Marsh is spending a few days in Charlotte, her old home.
