LOCAL NEWS.

Weather Predictions—Chief Moore, Washington, D. C., 11:30—Threatening and probably showers to-night. Warmer to-night, Tuesday Fair.

Charity and Children says that Mr. Geo. W. Vanderbilt needed the Baptist church at Biltmore for a barn. He told the brethren he would build them another if they would let him have it. They agreed to do so, and now they have a beautiful house worth $7,000 for their old one worth about $700.

[The late Mr. A. T. Stewart, of New York, had a great fancy for turning churches into stables. He bought an old marble church on Amity street in that city, among others, and stabled his shop-wagon horses in it.]

Cross Creek Magistrates.

The following is a list of Magistrates of Cross Creek Township: W. S. Cook, C. B. McMillan, T. S. Lutterloh, D. N. McLean, J. G. Garrett, W. P. Wemyss, A. J. Deal, T. B. Newberry, and G. A. P. Wilkerson.

Ex-Postmaster Hall to Be Tried.

Amos J. Hall was taken from the county jail this morning to be carried to Raleigh to be tried before the Federal Court. Hall, who was postmaster at Cedar Creek, is charged with defrauding the United States Government.

The Red Springs 20th of May Celebration.

In our account of the Red Springs Veteran's Reunion and 20th of May celebration, given in Thursday's Daily, the names of those excellent gentlemen, Rev. Mr. Moore, who made the opening prayer with such eloquence and fervor, Mr. Kirkland Hill, of the Scottish Chief, Mr. Harker, of the Robesonian, and Mr. A. B. Pearsall, were inadvertently omitted.

By the way, some of our contemporaries have been remarking that there was no celebration of North Carolina's great historic day, this year. On the contrary, there could hardly have been a finer one than that last week at Red Springs. Besides that, Col. Starr and the veterans of the Lafayette Light Infantry (Company F, Bethel Regiment) spent the day at Cottonade (as they do somewhere every recurring anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration) in quiet observance of the great event. The day it will be remembered, was selected by the Lafayette for its natal day 40 years ago, as it was also subsequently by the State for its Secession, and for unveiling the monument at Raleigh in honor of those who fell in behalf of that great right.

Mr. S. R. Townsend and daughter, Miss Ida, of Red Springs, are in town today.

Revenue Raid.

Deputy United States Marshal J. W. Atkinson and a posse of deputies made a raid Friday night on a moonshiner's camp near the Hart place down the Wilmington Road. They found nothing, however, but a few empty tubs and a cart. The cart had the appearance of having been hurriedly detached from a horse whose tracks were fresh upon the ground. A fire was built and the tubs and cart destroyed. Nothing was seen of the moonshiners, although the cart was recognized as belonging to an old blockader.

A Notable Case.

Fayetteville boasts the possession of a citizen who is a capitalist, a manufacturer and a Bank President, and who is, notwithstanding these supposed disabilities, an uncompromising silver man. He is the only Bank President, besides the distinguished Mr. St. John, of New York, and Capt. Jos. F. Johnston, of Birmingham, (Democratic nominee for Governor of Alabama), who, so far as we know, has had sense enough to see that the gold standard is killing the goose that lays the golden eggs.

We refer to Dr. H. W. Lilly, President of the Bank of Fayetteville.

Attention Democrats.

By the notice published elsewhere the Democrats of Cumberland will perceive that they are called to meet in their precinct primaries on the 13th of June for the election of delegates to the county convention to be held on the 20th of June, and for the election of five executive committeemen in each precinct to succeed those appointed by Chairman McNeill in the present notice. These five, to be so elected, are required by the State Plan of Organization to elect one of their number chairman of such precinct committee, and the chairman so elected becomes by virtue of his election as precinct chairman a member of the county executive committee.

It will be seen how extremely important it is that every Democrat who has the good of the county, State and nation at heart should attend these primaries, and take part in the selection of delegates to the county convention and of precinct committeemen. The fate of decent government in North Carolina is bound up in the Democratic party, for that is the only party which professes the true principles of government. And no thoughtful man will deny that the defeat of the Democratic party in North Carolina—a State more devoted to the principles of that party than any other, as her history shows—was the result of the selection of representatives who betrayed their promises to the people, or of the arrogance of those in control of the party organizations and therefore, under the bad system that too often prevailed, of the selection of party nominees, or both.

The work of these precinct primaries, as thus called, goes to the very root of the evils of government as now suffered by us or of those we may have to endure if the vindictive Russell should be elected. Hence the vital importance of the selection of our most trustworthy—remember the word, OUR MOST TRUSTWORTHY—men for delegates to the county convention and for precinct committeemen.

In the OBSERVER of February 6, 13, 20 and 27, will be found the Clerk of the Court's official advertisement of the boundaries of the new precincts into which the new Law has divided the township of Cross Creek. The unit of party organization is no longer the township (where there are more precincts than one in a township) but the precinct; and the four precincts of Cross Creek will elect their delegates to the county convention separately in their several precinct party meeting places, and send them direct to the county convention without any intervention of a township meeting at the town hall (market house) or otherwise.

The four precincts of Cross Creek are divided by the four streets that diverge from the town hall (market house), and are bounded by those streets (and the main roads that they lead into) and the boundaries of the township as intersected by those streets or main roads.
