

Fayetteville Observer.

DAILY NEWS SHEET AND ADVERTISER.

NUMBER 101.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 28, 1896.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

Daily one year, $3 00 in advance.
Daily one month, 25 in advance.
Weekly one year, 1 50 in advance.

Advertising is to business what steam is to machinery—the grand motive power.
—MACAULEY.

There is but one way of obtaining business—publicity; but one way of obtaining publicity—advertising.
BLACKWOOD.

LOCAL NEWS.

There were 8 feet of water in the Cape Fear at 8 o'clock this morning.

Where is that Base Ball team which was going to make us lively during the dull summer months?

Col. Pemberton is acting Mayor of Fayetteville to-day, Col. Cook having gone to Wilmington this morning.

The Presbyterian Sunday School excursion carried about 180 people from Fayetteville to Wilmington this morning.

Weather Predictions—Chief Moore, Washington, D. C., 11:30 o'clock—Rain and probably thunderstorm to-night. Friday generally fair and cooler.

A. J. Hall, the aged ex-postmaster at Cedar Creek, was yesterday in the Federal court at Raleigh, sentenced to one month in Cumberland County jail for false cancellation of stamps.

Ordination Service.

Next Sunday morning at St. John's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Jos. N. Starr will be ordained with impressive ceremonies. Dr. Carmichael, of Wilmington, will present the candidate and Bishop Watson will preach the ordination sermon.

No Yankee War Literature.

The County Commissioners, at their meeting next Monday, will have to decide what school books are to be used in the public schools. Several book companies will be represented. It should be seen that no yankee war literature be passed off for a truthful history.

No Corner Stone Yet.

The Old Court House is a thing of the past. Not a brick has been left standing. No sign of a corner stone has yet been discovered, though there are still hopes that one may be found when the foundations are removed. The removal of this historic, but ugly old building, has added much to the appearance of Green and Rowan Streets.

False Rumor.

It was reported in this city this morning that a big battle had occurred in Flea Hill last night, and that blood was spilled. As we heard nothing from our correspondent to this effect, we immediately discouraged the report. It turns out that the report started in Flea Hill that a portion of the now famous fence was destroyed last night, that the report was passed on to this city by word of mouth, reaching here in the above distorted rumor. There were surely some pretty big exaggerators between here and Flea Hill this morning. From a later report, we learn that the fence was not disturbed at all last night.

Monument Benefit Musicale.

Make your arrangements so that you may all turn out in full force to-morrow evening, for the enjoyment of the open-air musicale in front of the manse.

A very attractive programme is in rehearsal for the lovers of music as well as for all who are not averse to a hearty laugh. Nice refreshments served on the lawn. Admission at the gate, 10 cents.

Fine Crops.

We have interviewed farmers from all sections of the county, and from them we learn that the crops are in an exceptionally fine condition. If conditions continue favorable, we will market the finest grade of cotton ever raised in this section, and it must be remembered, we raise very high grade cotton in Cumberland.

The Reception to Miss McKinnon.

Red Springs was the scene last night of one of the most delightful social events that ever occurred in Robeson, that county of so many pleasant occurrences. It was the celebration of the departure for Europe, to complete her musical education of Miss Mary McKinnon, a young lady of rare musical gifts.

The dining-room of the Hotel Townsend was crowded with Miss McKinnon's admirers from Fayetteville, Laurinburg, Maxton and Lumber Bridge and the county districts adjacent to Red Springs—talented and beautiful young women and handsome young men. The evening was spent in a musical entertainment of rare conception and execution, such as can be heard in no other part of the State. The entertainment was brought to a close by Miss McKinnon graciously playing a piano solo in her own inimitable manner. At 12 o'clock a bounteous supper was served, but it was not until 3 o'clock this morning that Miss McKinnon was permitted to retire.

The following ladies and gentlemen attended from this city under the chaperonage of Mesdames W.A. Robeson, Chas. Rankin, and Frank Cotton: Misses Maggie Pemberton, Mattie Sedberry, Eliza Robeson, Annie Gaster and Mary Fuller Robeson; Messrs. E. L. Pemberton, W. Frank Blount, Chas. Rankin, F. H. Cotton, H. M. Pemberton, Hector McGeachy and Jos. Crews.

Base Ball.

The following is the result of the National League games played yesterday:

Pittsburg.....	14
Boston.....	15
Cleveland.....	11
New York.....	5

Louisville.....	7
Brooklyn.....	8
Washington.....	6
Cincinnati.....	10
Chicago.....	5
Philadelphia.....	8
Baltimore.....	9
St. Louis.....	0

Hotel Arrivals.

Jno. J. Hamilton, N. Y.; J. E. Keith, Cincinnati; A. T. Wishart, Baltimore; R. W. Rice, Baltimore; W. R. Walker, S. C.; Tom Bissett, Florence; A. J. McKinnon, M. A. McKinnon, N. C.

Cotton and Woolen Mills on the C. F. & Y. V. Railway.

A circular has been issued by General Manager Fry and General Freight and Passenger Agent Kyle, giving the number of Mills on the C. F. & Y. V. Out of the thirty Cotton Mills, seven are in Fayetteville or the immediate neighborhood. The list is as follows:

Wilmington cotton mills, Wilmington, N. C., cottonades, outings, shawls, toweling. Phoenix mill, (building) Fayetteville, N. C., warps.

Fayetteville Cotton Mill, Fayetteville, Warps.

Holt's cotton mill, Fayetteville, N. C., various.

Hope Mills Manufacturing company, No. 1, Hope Mills, N. C., warps, cottonades, chevots, gingham.

Hope Mills Manufacturing company No. 2, Hope Mills, N. C., cotton yarns, sheetings, shirtings, etc.

Cumberland mills, Cumberland, N. C., cotton yarns, plaids, warps, bags, twine.

Beaver Creek and Bluff mills, Fayetteville, N. C., 4-4 sheeting.

Maxton cotton mills, Maxton, N. C., yarns.

McColl Manufacturing company, McColl, S. C., cotton yarn.

Beaver Dam cotton mills, (building) McColl, S. C.

Manchester cotton mills, Manchester, N. C., plaids.

Jonesboro cotton mill company, Jonesboro, N. C., yarns.

Hadley People's Manufacturing company, Siler City, N. C., yarns.

Mt. Pleasant Manufacturing company, Kimeville, N. C., plaids.

Dixon woolen mills, Snow Camp, N. C., woolens.

Worth Manufacturing company, No. 1, Worthville, N. C., sheetings and bags.

Worth Manufacturing company, No. 2, Worthville, N. C., plaids.

Cedar Falls Manufacturing company, Cedar Falls, N. C., sheetings, warps and yarns.

Randolph Manufacturing company, Franklinville, N. C., sheetings and yarns.

Franklinville Manufacturing company, Franklinville, N. C., seamless bags.

Enterprise Manufacturing company, Coleridge, N. C., cotton yarns.

Columbia Manufacturing company, Ramsuer, N. C., sheeting and ball thread.

Proximity Manufacturing company, Greensboro, N. C., colored cotton goods.

Hucomuga mills, Greensboro, N. C., bold cotton goods.

Southern Finishing and Warehouse company, Greensboro, N. C., finishers of all classes of cotton goods.

Crown cotton mills, Greensboro, N. C., (not in operation.)

Greensboro Cordage company, Greensboro, N. C., hammocks.

Laurel Bluff cotton mills, Laurel Bluff, N. C., yarns and warps.

Hamburg cotton mills, Mt. Airy, N. C., yarns.

Oak Hill cotton mills, Mt. Airy, N. C., (not in operation.)

Alpine woolen mills, Mt. Airy, N. C.

The aggregate number of spindles operated by these mills is 123,024, and the number of looms 4,485. They consume 52,050 bales of cotton per year.

"Why are the drinks AT HORNE'S SODA FOUNTAIN BETTER THAN ANYWHERE ELSE IN NORTH CAROLINA?"

Reader how often have you heard the above question asked?
May 28, 1896.

THE CELEBRATED ANHEUSER-BUSCH BEER tapped daily and on draft at McDonald's—in glass, quart and gallon measures.

People and their Movements.

Maj. Hale is confined to his house by a slight indisposition.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Thos. McDaniel.

Mr. Allen Lee has returned from a visit to his parents in Johnston county.

Miss Emma Hollingsworth is visiting relatives in Bladen and Columbus counties.

Misses Sadie and Lida Adams, of Little River Academy, were in town shopping to-day.

Messrs. Ed. Kyle and James Kyle returned this morning from Wilmington and the Beach.

Dr. Smith and daughters, Misses Floss and Daisy, of Little River Academy, were in the city this morning.

Miss Lottie O'Daniel, who is attending the Jonesboro High School, has returned home for the summer.

Misses Fannie and Eva Willis, who have been visiting Mrs. Ijams, on Gillespie street, have returned to Wilmington.

Miss Mamie Morrow has returned from Asheville, where she has been teaching school, to spend the summer holidays at home.

Mrs. C. D. Hill, of Pittsboro, and Mrs. M. A. Haslem, of Marshalville, Ga, are visiting Mrs. H. R. Horne, on Green street.

Mrs. J. J. Crosswell has returned from Wilmington, where she visited her brother, Mr. W. J. Crosswell, and attended the Episcopal Council.

AS RED AS BLOOD!
AND AS CHEAP AS DIRT.

It is just this, we have more Red Shoes than we want, and we are willing to sacrifice them at 50 CENTS.

Some of them cost $2.20. Come early while we have the sizes.

White Dotted Dimity, a new lot by Express. Gimpure Edgings in all widths. These are the most popular Trimmings—deservedly so too—ever brought to this market.

New Goods every day.
CAPE FEAR DRY GOODS CO.

S. SHEETZ & SONS
ARE OFFERING FOR THE NEXT FEW DAYS A FEW BABY CARRIAGES AT COST.

W. H. NEWBERRY & SONS
HAVE JUST RECEIVED A LINE OF Ladies' Fine Willow Rocking Chairs, VERY COOL, just the thing for hot summer weather. —ALSO A LINE OF HANDSOME—PUSH-SEATED ROCKERS. CALL EARLY TO MAKE YOUR SELECTION.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria