LOCAL NEWS.

All papers sold on the streets by newsboys should bear the stamp, "For Transient Sale," in red ink.

Weather Predictions—Chief Moore, Washington, D. C., 11:30 o'clock.—Fair to-night and Friday.

Black River Solid.

Lawyer A. S. Hall has just returned from a visit to his home in Black River township. He says everybody down there, Democrats, Populists and negroes are for Bryan and Free Silver.

This morning's Wilmington Messenger says:

Among the arrivals from Fayetteville by the excursion yesterday afternoon were Colonel and Mrs. Frank Thornton, Miss Thornton, Miss Kate Underwood, J. B. Underwood, Jr., E. H. Jennings, C. L. Taylor, Captain A. B. Williams and Captain J. B. Smith.

Kotel Arrivals.

Cumberland County Court.

Cumberland County Superior Court convenes Monday for the trial of criminal cases only. There are not a great many cases to be tried and it is probable that they can all be disposed of within the week.

There is one murder case, one rape case, and a case for arson. Judge Starbuck will preside and Solicitor Sewell prosecute.

Fire.

For the first time in several months the fire alarm rang out this morning. It was one o'clock when the alarm was given and five minutes afterwards the fire company were throwing water on the burning building—the kitchen attached to the residence of Mr. R. G. Haigh on Gillespie street. The fire was soon extinguished though considerable damage was done to the building.

Tobacco Warehouse.

Rowland and Lumberton are building Tobacco Warehouses. Why should not Fayetteville have one. Car loads of tobacco will soon pass through this city seeking a market further north. If it is thought too great an outlay to erect a building, we should think that the F. I. L. I. armory could be rented temporarily. With sky lights in the roof it would make an ideal warehouse; no finer anywhere. Enterprises have to be built up, not waited for.

LATEST FROM ST. LOUIS.

The Populist Convention and the Silver Convention convened in their respective halls at 10:00 o'clock this morning.

POPULIST CONVENTION.

St. Louis, July 23rd; 10:18 A. M.

Populist Convention in session, Marion Butler presiding. Committee on Credentials not ready to report.

11:52 A. M.

Delegate from Oklahoma takes the platform and is entertaining the convention with a song.

Populist credentials committee will not be ready to report until 3 o'clock. Motion to adjourn to that hour carried.

It will be four o'clock in Fayetteville when the convention assembles, as there is about an hour's difference in time.

SILVER CONVENTION.

MUSIC HALL, ST. LOUIS, 10:20 A. M.

Delegates late in arriving. Committee elected for Conference with People's party caucusing back of chairman's desk. Hall filling rapidly.

10:30

Chiles, of Minnesota, addressing convention. He says Bryan represents the cause of Humanity against Injustice. He mentioned Teller's name and the convention rose and cheered in a body. Ex-Gov. St. John called upon and is making a fine speech. He mentioned Cleveland's name and it was greeted with a roar of laughter.

11:44 A. M.

At the conclusion of ex-Gov. St. John's speech Mrs. Helen Gougar, of Indiana, arose to address the convention. Mrs. Gougar concluded with a song, and the band plays "My country 'tis of America," convention rises and sings.

At 1:23 Towne, of Minn., takes the chair and announces that Mrs. Lease, of Kansas, will address the convention this evening.

At 1:24 Hon. R. A. Cole, of Wisconsin, begins to address the convention. He says he takes issue with that part of Mrs. Gougar's address advocating Prohibition, and defends the brewing interests of Milwaukee and St. Louis. This caused great confusion, and order could not be restored for several minutes.

It is said that Senator Marion Butler is now in favor of endorsing Bryan and nominating Judge Clark for the Vice Presidency. The North Carolina delegation at St. Louis are said to have suddenly adopted the same views.

Nothing but Speeches and Songs.

Up to four o'clock this afternoon nothing of importance had been done by either of the two conventions in session at St. Louis. Speech-making, songs and instrumental music have been the order of the day.

At this hour, four o'clock, our old (or young) friend, Mrs. Lease, who spoke in front of the OBSERVER office nearly four years ago, is addressing the convention. Of course she is making things lively.

Police News.

James McNeill was lodged in jail this morning for failure to give a peace bond. He is charged by Fannie Gillis with threatening her life.

Amy McLaughlin and Josephine Ray were arrested this morning on a warrant issued by Mary Ann McLaughlin charging them with forcible trespass and the felonious taking of fruit.

The trial will be before 'Squire Overby this evening.

The following case growing out of the above will also be tried this evening: Josephine Ray for assault and battery on Minnie McLaughlin.

Did You Ever Have Winburn to Make You A Photograph?

If so he has your negative and from it he can make you a nice lot of bright fresh Photographs. Owing to the improved methods your duplicate photograph will be better than the first ones. Just to think that you can get a fresh photograph of yourself, father, mother, or of your child or friend as they looked a few years ago. Perhaps you have not got one of them, if so, it may be scratched or show signs of age. Come and get new ones. You can give your friend a bright new photograph for the old one. Just think of the price—you can get half dozen duplicate photographs for $1.00, or half dozen duplicate new style Platinums for $1.50. This proposition is good for a short time only. Come early and avoid the rush.

Bicyclers and Athletes: Coca-Cola removes thirst and makes muscle.
