Advertising is to business what steam is to machinery—the grand motive power.

—MACAULEY.

There is but one way of obtaining business—publicity; but one way of obtaining publicity—advertising.

BLACKWOOD.

LOCAL NEWS.

All papers sold on the streets by newsboys should bear the stamp, "For Transient Sale," in red ink.

Weather Predictions—Chief Moore, Washington, D. C., 11:30 o'clock.—Generally fair to-night and Wednesday.

On account of the very hot weather, Mr. Thornton has changed the time from 9 o'clock to 8 o'clock for his big sale to commence in the mornings.

Brick masons are at work on a new foundation for our printing press. Our readers may attribute to that any delay in dispatching the mails or delivery of the papers by the carriers for a few days.

Gen. John Gill, Receiver of the C. F. & Y. V., Col. Talcott, expert Engineer, of Richmond, Capt. J. W. Fry, General Manager, and Mr. H. L. Fry, Chief Engineer of the C. F. & Y. V., arrived in the city this morning in Capt. Fry's private car. They spent a few hours and then left for Greensboro.

Fight in Flea Hill.

Constable Autry ran into a free fight in Flea Hill last night, and arrested the following combatants: Julia Patrick, Lena Holmes, Matilda Williams and Chas. Williams. Mr. Autry says that razors, etc., were flying in the air.

A Former Fayetteville Boy Ill.

The many friends here of young Mr. Fife will be grieved to read the following from Monday's Charlotte News:

Prayers were offered in the city churches yesterday for the recovery of Mr. Will Fife, son of evangelist Fife, who is very sick with fever.

Horrible Accident.

West Bass, a workman on the Phoenix cotton factory, met with a terrible accident this morning.

He was at work on the building when he fell through a hole and striking one end of a short, loose plank with his feet, the other end, which was sharp pointed, flew up and entered his abdomen, exposing the intestines. Dr. McGougan who attended him says that though badly hurt the unfortunate man will probably recover.

Revival at Campbellton.

Rev. Dr. Nash is engaged in a revival in Campbellton. Rev. Mr. Parker has been holding a meeting down there for a week, assisted by Revs. A. McCullen and W. H. Whitaker. Dr. Nash went down yesterday and last night to assist. There was a large congregation last night, and much interest manifested. There were about 20 who came forward for prayers, and many others who knelt in the congregation. The services are held at 5 and 8:30 P. M.

Cumberland Court.

Notwithstanding the dreadfully hot weather the work of the court goes smoothly on, and when night comes those who have been actors on the scene—the Judge who has to keep his head cool, the lawyers who have to brow beat and plead alternately, the witnesses who have to remain placid under a storm of entangling questions, the jury who have to be locked up in a close room to consult, and finally the sheriff and his officers who have to be constantly running about shouting "order in court," and looking after witnesses and prisoners—wonder how they survived it all.

The following cases were tried yesterday: M. A. Gillis, assault with a deadly weapon. Guilty. Judgment not yet pronounced.

William West, assault and battery. Guilty, with recommendation of mercy. Judgment not pronounced.

This morning Isaac Branch was tried for disposing of mortgaged crop and found not guilty.

R. H. Beaver, alias Snodgrass, pleaded guilty this afternoon to a charge of forgery, and was sentenced to 2 years on the Chat-ham roads.

Henry Ivy appeared before Judge Starbuck this morning in the custody of the sheriff of Montgomery county and applied for a writ of habeas corpus. He is charged with killing a man named Street in Montgomery last month. The Judge heard the testimony of several witnesses who accompanied the prisoner. He continued the hearing until to-night.

In the case of State vs. Henry Simpson for rape a special venire of 75 jurors were drawn this morning. The case is set for trial to-morrow.

The trial of the case of State vs. Bishop Holmes charged with murder is set for Thursday. A special venire of 75 jurors were drawn this morning.

To Open the Campaign.

Hon. R. B. Glenn and Hon. D. H. McLean, two of the finest orators in the State, and neither of whom needs an introduction to a North Carolina audience, will address the citizens of Fayetteville and surrounding country, Thursday night under the auspices of the Bryan and Watson Club. Let's give them a rousing reception.

Special Rates.

The C. F. & Y. V. has made the following special rates:

On account of the annual meeting of North Carolina Farmers State Alliance, at Hillsboro, N. C., Aug 11th, the following rates will be in force: Fayetteville, $5.95; Maxton, 7.30; Wilmington, 8.30; Hope Mills, 6.45; Sanford, 4.25.

The Manchester Sufferers—Col. Murchison's Generous Help.

The following letter has been received, which explains itself:

NARRAGANSETT, (Rhode Island),
July 25, 1896.

Editor Fayetteville Observer:

From your paper, received to-day, I heard for the first time of the distress prevailing at Manchester, my native place. Should the sufferers require further assistance, I cheerfully place at your disposal $100, for which amount your draft on Murchison & Co., Wilmington, will be honored.

Very respectfully,

K. M. MURCHISON.

The editor of the OBSERVER will appoint a committee to disburse the amount so generously contributed by Col. Murchison, and will announce their names to-morrow.

Magistrate's Court.

'Squire Overby disposed of the following cases yesterday and to-day, the papers in the cases having been served by constable Maulsby:

Wright Smith vs. Julia Monaghan for trespass. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Rachel McDougald vs. Delia Wright for an assault. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Warrants have been issued for the following:

Lula Wilson known as the fighter of Devil's Cove, for throwing brickbats at the children of Mrs. Ida Wilder.

Burt Johnson for an assault on Green Beal.

Jno. Mannel for assault and battery on Rebecca Mazingo.

Chas. McDonald and William Thos. Hughes for an affray.

Rev. Jos. N. Starr.

Rev. Joseph N. Starr, rector of St. Phillips, Campbellton, has received a call to the rectorship of the church of the Holy Evangelist, Baltimore. He has accepted and will leave for Baltimore the first of next week.

While his departure will be a great loss to the Campbellton Mission, yet his parishioners and also his friends in Fayetteville, are rejoiced over his good fortune—in that he will have a larger field to display his talents—and join in wishing him a brilliant career.
