Advertising is to business what steam is to machinery—the grand motive power.

—MACAULEY.

There is but one way of obtaining business—publicity; but one way of obtaining publicity—advertising.

LOCAL NEWS.

All papers sold on the streets by newsboys should bear the stamp, "For Transient Sale," in red ink.

Oak Ridge Institute has opened with 150 students.

The State Normal School for colored will open its Fall session next Monday, the 7th inst.

Weather Predictions—Chief Moore, Washington, D. C., 11:30 o'clock.—Generally fair to-night and Thursday.

Mrs. Walter L. Holt entertains a number of ladies at tea this afternoon at her delightful residence on Haymount.

Mail for the South may be put in the Postoffice-box at the Coast Line depot as late as 1 o'clock A. M. Mail for the North up to 9:15 P. M.

Bryan's triumph continues, and the crowds that turn out to greet him and the enthusiasm increases. Last night 50,000 people assembled to hear him speak in the capital of Ohio. It was the biggest meeting of any kind ever held in Columbus.

Col Childs, this morning, shipped to his house, E. B. Culbert & Co., cotton brokers, a number of stalks of cotton from the plantation of Maj. W. B. Draughon, on the East side of the River. This is to show the firm to what extent cotton has been damaged in this section. Maj. Draughon's crop generally yields him 200 bales, this year he expects only 90 from the same acreage.

Speakers To-morrow.

Hon. Theo. Klutz will address the citizens of Cumberland in this city to-morrow night.

Oscar J. Spears, the rampant Hanna elector-at-large, will speak here at noon to-morrow.

The Dutch Capture Holland.

The Republicans in yesterday's election carried Vermont by increased majorities. As both the Republican and Democratic candidates and platforms in Vermont were of a straight boldbug description, the result must be regarded as a rebuke to the Democrats for playing second fiddle to the Republicans.

Laid to Rest.

The unusually large attendance at the funeral of Mr. Frank Hollingsworth yesterday afternoon eloquently attested to the great popularity of the lamented young man. After the service at the Baptist Church, which was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Thomas, the remains were taken to Cross Creek cemetery and interred. Peace to his ashes.

BOLTER'S CONVENTION.

The Gold-bug Democratic bolter's convention at St. Louis is in session to-day.

By Telegraph.
The convention was called to order at 12:27 by Gen. Palmer. Palmer said that he had the honor to preside for a time over the only national Democratic convention of 1896. Mention of Cleveland's name causes great enthusiasm.

Roll call shows that 41 states are represented. Convention is to be governed by rules of Democratic convention of 1892.

Gov. Flower made temporary chairman. Flower in his speech says sentiment of Free Silver is only a cloak by Bryan and those behind him for revolutionary measures against law and the prosperity of the country. He says that the gathering here shows the nature of true Democrats as against those persons who favor Populism and Anarchy.

After Flower's speech the convention adjourned until 4 P. M.

A Challenge.

Mr. John McDuffie, our Populist politician, has apparently become tired of the vanities of earthly affairs, and, turning his eyes Heavenward, has entered the field of Astronomy. He is no mere star-gazer, but sounds to their depths the hidden secrets of the Spheres.

He authorizes the OBSERVER to issue in his name a challenge to any one versed in astronomy to meet him in public debate "to discuss the fallacy of the Newtonian theory that gravitation and velocity are the forces that control the motion of the bodies composing the solar system." His idea is that a small charge be made for admission to those debates, and that the proceeds be turned over to the Monument Association.

Come, gentlemen of the schools, let us hear from you. Burnish your armor and take up the gage of the doughty Knight of 71st!

Miscellaneous.

A carriage containing several ladies was rocked by a malicious set of boys in Redbourn yesterday. It is being investigated.

A little sensation was created at Liberty Point this morning by a runaway team. After turning around the corner of Person and Old streets, the horses pitched up on the embankment in front of the Ingram house. Luckily no damage was done.

A boy mute who has been soliciting alms in this city for several days, violently cursed (on paper) one of our honorable magistrates yesterday because he refused to give him anything. Last night he took supper at the LaFayette and this morning took the train for "parts unknown."

William Robinson, a colored boy, struck another boy of his color over the head with a brick-bat yesterday evening in "Texas." A great stream of blood gushed from a gaping wound, for a time it looked serious. The wound was soon dressed, and the boy to the surprise of all, seemed none the worse. Robinson was taken before Squire Lutterloh and made to pay four dollars for his work.

"Come here quick, everybody come, do come, please everybody come, I'm caught" came in the shrill voice of a boy, from the peanut stall at the Market House yesterday evening. Everybody did "come" and everybody had a hard struggle to keep from laughing. A little colored boy was capering around with a steal rat trap hanging to one of his feet. His foot had accidentally come in contact with the trap and it snapped. It is doubtful whether the boy knew what had him, until after he was freed.

"The Reason Why."

Sir Richard Fowler was lord mayor of London in 1885. He said:

"If we can keep the United States on a gold basis thirty years longer, we will absolutely ruin the wheat and cotton industries of that country."

The British are even more bitter against Mr. Bryan than the eastern money changers, their co-workers.

People and their Movements.

Mr. J. W. Sikes, of Red Springs, is in the city to-day.

Miss Annie Wetmore is visiting Mrs. Weldon Huske on Haymount.

Mr. Mike Folb left last night for New York to purchase his winter stock of clothing.

Mrs. Elliott, of Wilmington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. H. Slocomb, on Dick street.

Alderman and Mrs. A. B. Raiford went down to Wilmington Monday to spend several days at Ocean View.

We are sorry to learn of the sickness of Mr. Jas. J. Ahern at his son's residence on Cool Spring Street.

Cumberland's venerable ex-Sheriff, Hector McNeill, Esq., of Ardlussa, is in the city visiting his son, Dr. J. W. McNeill, on Dick st.

Col. and Mrs. W. S. Cook and Miss Johnson have returned from Cleveland, O. The Colonel is enthusiastic over the meeting of the Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias of the world to which he was a supreme representative.

IN MEMORIAM.

It is said that "death loves a shining mark." And the adage has certainly been exemplified in the death of Frank H. Hollingsworth. Few young men ever lived in Fayetteville who possessed in so marked a degree the art of making friends. His personal popularity was wonderful. He was noble and generous to a fault, and in fact was possessed of all the admirable traits of character which go to make up the ideal Boy, the devoted friend. His thorough selflessness, his desire to make every body happy and contented, were among his many virtues. None knew him but to love him.

His friends are crushed with grief at his untimely death, and it is hard for us to realize that we shall see him no more on earth. Just entering into manhood, the promise of a useful life has been cut short, and while we bow in humble submission, our hearts are heavy with the deepest grief. Verily the good die young.
