Local Happenings Told in :-: Short Paragraphs

MARKANAN MARANAN

Mr. and Mrs. Zach T. Massie of Sylva visited the fair last week.

Mrs. C. W. Davis and two children are visiting relatives at Hendersor ville.

Corporation Commissioner W. T. Lee was home for a brief stay this Week.

Night Services in the churches have moved back to 7:30 Don't forget it.

Lebo Massie left yesterday for Orlando, Fia., where he expects to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Massie are at Cruso this week visiting relatives and Born Monday October 1st to Mr. and Mrs. Branner Gilmer a daughter, Maude Duval Gilmer.

Miss Nora and Guy Massie and their sister Mrs. Waldo McCracken motored to Cruso Sunday.

town this week.

Attorneys Felix Alley and George Ward attended Jackson county court at Sylva this week,

Judge Ferguson is spending a few days at home. He will hold court at Rutherfordton next week.

Mr. H. C. Wilson of Statesville spent Sunday here visiting his wife who is on a visit to her sister Mrs. M. H. Reeves.

Mrs. A. M. Simons and little daughter Helen went to Sylva yesterday to be with Mr. Simons who has a branch store

Mrs. Frank Ferguson was the hostess on Tuesday afternoon to the Woman's Missionary Society, Mrs. H. G. West was the leader.

Frank Byatt seems to be out of danger and will soon be out of the local hospital. The same may be said of Miss Addie Mehafley.

Mr. W. L. Francis a prominent merchant of Bryson City was here last week attending our fair and visiting his uncle Mr. T. N. Massie.

Miss Alice Quinlan left Wednesday afternoon for Detroit to visit Mrs. J. E. Ellwood, who was prior to her marriage Miss Mary McFadyen.

Mrs. I, J. Ashe and her daughter Mrs. J. H. Mashburn of Franklin arrived Inst Sunday afternoon for a few days visit to Mrs. Toonie Davis.

Married Sunday October 7th at the court house, W. J. Haynes, Esq. officiating, Mrs. M. M. Norris of Ratcliff

Cove to E. W. Sharp of Cruso. Mrs. T. L. Green and daughter Miss Lillian Green went to Clyde last Friday to attend the Medford-Williams marriage, the bride being her niece. Wallace Blackwell of the wholesale ing in the World Series of baseball games-in Chicago and New York. Mrs. Lawrence Green attended the Medford-Williams marriage at Clyde lest week where she sang. She was accompanied by her little daughter Olive-Miss Sadie Downs of Franklin has been visiting her brother-in-law J. J. Bridges. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Fannie Liner of the same ell will have charge of an exhibit from Lawrence E. Greene of the postoffice force left Saturday for Franklin to visit. his grand parents Mr. and Mrs. Thad Green and to see other relatives. Mr. Green is very feeble.

T. C. Breeding has moved to his home on Boundary street, Lawrence Green to the Mallonee cottage on Hazel street and E. R. Elmore to Green Gables on Branner Ave.

Chief John S. Mitchell saks us to state that hereafter he and policeman Whitener will arrest any automobile driver who is found under the influence of whiskey. Drivers, take warning.

Mrs. Lucius Bramlett and Miss Jessie Lee left Saturday for Laurens, S. C. to visit Miss Grace Poole and will then go to Sumpter county for a stay with Mrs. Alston. While away they will see Camp Sevier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Andre wa and their grandson Charles Mayo of Ashevill, G. C. Sprague has returned toher home have returned home after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boone and taking m the Haywood County Fair.

B. T. Reeves of the Waynesville Gro-cery Co, went last Saturday to an Asheville hospital on account of an old trouble that has put him on crutches lately. Mrr. Reeves and his son Byron Recruiting Sergeant Jerry Mehaffey is now stationed at Asheville and was here the first of the week looking for men for the army. He leaves today for morphy with he will speed three days. He was first sont to Greensboro, then to Chariotte and last week to Ashaville.

Paramana anaraman An infant of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell was found dead in bed at their home in the depot section last Tuesday morning. Death was supposed to have been caused by an illness with which the child had lingered for some time.

> Miss Sallie McCracken of the Baptist orphanage Thomasville, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting her brothers, Theodore and Dr. J. R. McCracken and a sister Mrs C. A. Haynes and is at Crabtree this week with relatives.

> Mrs. J. Hardin Howell and small son left Saturday for Greenville, S. C where they will be with Major Howell as long as he remains at Camp Sevier. Her sister, Miss Helen Marshall will be with Mrs. Will Campbell during her absence.

Five soldier boys from Camp Sevier hartered an Automobile Saturday and came home to spend Sunday, arriving fund. here Shturday afternoon. They were: Special officer Jule S. Robinson and C. M. Whitehouse, L. L. Allen, C. M. revenne officer John F. Cabe were in Caldwell, Robert Gibson and James D.

> Frank Ray our popular merchant has returned from an Asheville hospital where he went about a week before to recuperate from a nervous break down caused by overwork and worry on account of his brother Walter's serious condition.

> Mr. and James E. Carraway have returned to their home at Waynesville after a short stay in the city. -Mr. Cecil Pless of Waynesville who has been visyesterday for Atlanta. - Asheville Times Tuesday.

Married Sunday October 7th at the Baptist parsonage Rev. A. V. Joyner officiating Mr. Dan W. Butler and Mrs. Mamie Ogden both of Buncombe county. Mr. Butler will be pleasantly remember. ed here having worked at the Waynesville Grocery Co., as meat cutter.

Col. W. J. Hannah and family have returned from Greenville, Tenn. and other near by points visiting relatives. They went in their Saxon car via Asheville and Hot Springs and he says there are only a few miles of rough mountain roads on that route.

Hon, and Mrs. C. H. Ray have returned from Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C. Their son Walter was operated on a few days ago and an abscess was removed from his brain. It is hoped now that in a few days he will be out of transferred to Fort McPherson and later to Oglethorpe.

Mrs. J. T. Duckworth of Canton has been in Asheville for a short stay. - Mrs.

The Southeastern Fair begins in Atlasta next Monday. Mr. R. D. Noland will make a Haywood county exhibit. His son Reeves will have a cheese exhibit under state and Federal auspicies, showing what the factories of our western counties are doing. Mr. E. J. How-Jackson county. Mr. R. N. Barber will have some famous Haywood County apples on display from his Saunook orchard.

The Sunday Asheville Times had the following items of local interest:- Mrs. James Thomas of Waynesville spent yesterday in Asheville. - Mrs. James Reed of Waynesville was in Asheville yesterday. - Mr. David Gudger is spending several days here from Waynesville. -Mr. T. L. Gwyn of Clyde, N. C. spent yesterday in Asheville. - Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duckett, of Waynesville are spending the week end in the city with date. friends.-Mr. E. I. Burn is spending the week-end in Ashevills with Mrs. Burn. Mr. Burn is training at the Officers' Reserve camp at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. - Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Atkins of Waynesville were in Asheville yesterday. - Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Maney, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hamrick, and Mr. Roy Hamrick of Biltmore, motored to Waynesville to attend the Haywoodcounty fair. - Mrs. at Black Mountain after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Randolph at her home on Cumderland avenue, -Rev. G. P. Hamrick of Canton has gone to the Biltmore where he will have charge of the Biltmore Baplist church.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY

The Jurior Auxiliary of the Methodist church met with Miss Hilds Way on Wednesday afternoon. The next meet-ing will be held with Kiss Dolly Lee. Miss Willie Edna McCracken was the

RED CROSS RED LETTER DAY

Thursday of fair week was set apart by the Executive Committee of the Red Cross as Tag Day for the benefit of the cause. The league met with much response and enthusiasm in proof of which the amount of $141. was raised. The entire membership of the local chapter wish to thank Haywood County for its liverality and patriotism exhibited on Tnursday.

GREAT WAR PICTURE AT WAYNEWOOD WEDNESDAY

"The Tanks" which have caused so much interest everywhere in the larger towns and cities as the most interesting war picture shown on the screen will be on exhibition here next Wednesday Oct. 17th at a matinee at 2:30 p. m. and twice that night the first run beginning at 7:30 "The Tanks" is an authentic picture taken under the auspicies of the British government. It was loaned to the War relief Fund committee, of which W. K. Vanderbilt is president, and the entire proceeds from the picture go to that

It is said that several camera men were killed during the taking of the pictures and when the spectator gets the close-up view of the trenches during actual fighting the story is not hard to believe.

MEDFORD-WILLIAMS

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at Clyde Friday afternoon Ocober 5th 1917, at the home of the bride's parents Dr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Medford when Mr. John R. Williams led to the alter Miss Odessa Medford. Rev. iting in Asheville tor a few days left Lowell Q. Haynes performed the cer-

The home was beautifully decorated with potted plants for the occasion and there were about 65 guests present. Miss Cleo D. Latimer was maid of honor and Rev. E. O. Smithdeal was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Ada B. Willis, "O Promise Me" was sung by Mrs Lawrence E. Greene of Waynesville. There were a large number of wedding presents many of them very costly and beautiful, attesting the high esteem in which both bride and groom are held by their many friends, A handsome chest of silver was the gift of the groom's parents.

Mrs. Williams was one of Clyde's most popular and beautiful girls while the groom is a state engineer engaged under Mr. Coble on the road work between here and Turnpike. He has made many friends since coming to Haywood county.

The couple left on the afternoon train for Asheville and their honey-moon was spent at the Langren Hotel.

Bartlett, leave tomorrow for Montgomery, Ala. They will make the trip by motor.—Asheville Times Monday.

G. Howell McCracken with the Base hospital at Fort Oglethorpe came home for the fair and returned there monday. He joined the regular army in Florida and went to Fort Screven and was transferred to Fort McPherson and later.

BIG CATTLE SHIPMENT

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Georgia iAgracultural Department, who is agent for Mr. Hitchcock, the Boston and Aiken ment, who is agent for Mr. Hitchcock, the Boston and Aiken millionaire, is shipping today about 18 cars of cattle to Mr. Hitchcok's Cedar Creek farm near Aiken for winter transferred to Fort McPherson and later.

BIG CATTLE SHIPMENT

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Cattle SHIPMENT

BIG CATTLE SHIPMENT

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Cattle SHIPMENT

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Charge of reckless driving.

Prof. I. W. Williams of the Char feeding. -

For several years Prof. Williams has leased pastures in this county and grazed cattle until winter approaches, when they are sent to Cedar Creek farms to be finished. In this shipment are some fine, heavy steers. Prof. Williams is always satisfied with the results here.

UNIVERSITY OPENING

The copy for this issue goes to the printers as usual ten days ahead of the date of the paper; and at this writing the enrollment of students in the University of North Carolina is 1,040.

We expected to fall below the last year in alarming meas-ure; but as a matter of fact we are within a score of the last September number, upon even

The upper classes, the professional, and the technical schools are not quite so full as last year but otherwise we expect to close the session with a total enrollment close around the numbers of 1916-17.

Mornings and evenings some 550 men are in military training under Capt. J. Stuart Allen of the Princes Pats, Lieut. Leonard of the Harvard Reserve Corps, and Mr. J. V. Whitfield formerly commandant at Horner's.-University News Letter.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SERVICES

Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Orga is a class for men at10 o'clock a. m. 11 a. m. Sermon by the pastor Kev.

Christian Endeavor meets at 7:00 p. m.

Evening service at 8:00, Sermon by

G. P. Mason

You are cordially invited to all these services. Visitors in the city espe

W. G. DAVIS KILLED IN AU-TO WRECK NEAR ASHE-VILLE

Last Friday night at a late hour the Buick automobile of W. G. Davis of this place plunged over the steep river bank on ler Bros. the west side of the French Broad near the concrete bridge near Asheville.

In the car was General Davis Briggs. and beside him sat a woman been staying at one of the local hotels, who had come here from pound.-Miller Bros. Asheville. Some say she is originally from Pennsylvania. On the rear seat was J. N. Leather- Kodak finishing and picture framing. wood and Robert Mitchell of this will please you, won't you let me try? place. It is reported that the woman wanted to drive and that leaped from the road to the ler Bros. depths. She and the other two men jumped from the car, pracourney.

Dr. Gardner soon passed and Clyde, N. C. took the injured man to an Asheville hospital where he received attention, but little hope was held out for his recovery. His family were sent for Monday but before they reached Frost flour.-Miller Bros. the hospital Mr. Davis was dead. His body arrived here Monday atives. He is survived by a wife and three children who live near Maple Grove church about two miles from town on the Dellwood road. Mr. Davis was 35 years old. For years he was a well-to-do merchant at Cove Creek and er gets home she is going to train last year moved his store to you." Looking innocently into his last year moved his store to Hazelwood and did business there. He sold or closed out there and since then has run an auto public car. Once or twice before he has had accidents with his car. It is said that when this last sad accident occurred that the lights were out. Policemen who were early on the ground found empty bottles in the auto and evidence that the parties were drinking. It is also said that Davis was known to have had

The other men and the woman below First National Bank, waynesville, N ... came back here next morning, but we are informed that the woman is wanted by -the the bar passed resolutions commendatory of Judge Ferguson and in a short and appropriate address Judge O. V. F. Blythe presented to the Judge a long stemmed clay pipe together with some smoking tobacco which was accepted by the Judge with the promise that it would be used to while away the posible lonely hours of the coming winter evenings.—Hendersonville Vistor.

TO TAX FLAGLER MILLIONS

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 4.—The State of Kentucky today took initial steps toward bringing suit for an inheritance tax of at least $3,000,000 against the estate of Mrs. Robert W. Bingham, widow of Henry M. Flagler, which is valued at about $80,000,000.

It is asserted that eighteen other States in which the Flagler estate has holdings likewise will bring suits.

Trust companies acting as administrators for Mrs. Bingham's estate in Kentucky have asked that an appraiser be named, and this will be done next Monday. In Kentucky the tax fight will be led by Attorney General Charles Morris. The Flagler-Bingham holdings in this State publishy are worth $5,000,000.

AN IDEAL LIME TREATMENT chose suffering from chronic or acute manary and bronchial troubles, cr ECKMAN'S ALTERATIVE

WANT ADS.

FOR A CHANGE buy some of our sliced boiled ham, chip-noonwith Mrs. Frank Ferguson at 3:30. ped beef, veal loaf, bologna sausage or breakfast bacon.-Mil-

FOR RENT-One 5 room and one 11 room house. Apply to Mrs. Rosa D

"OUR LEADER" coffe comes named Carrie Turner who had fresh roasted every week. We grind it to suit you. 15c a

> WANTED-to do your portrait work Geo. D. Sherrill, near P.O upstairs, 5-17

DON'T FAIL to buy a pound she and Davis both had their of our new big bean Guatehands on the wheel whe it mala coffee, 30c a pound.-Mil-

FOR SALE-About 420 acres tically unhurt, but Davis was of good land on the head waters carried down the bank and was of Crabtree, known as the Mason seriously hurt, the car turning Farm. About 250 acres well over several times in its mad timbered. Reasonable terms. D. R. Duckett, Route 1, Box 31,

> BIG BARGAIN in dining table, eight leaves. See Mrs. E. S. Harold at dec.

> $1.55 BUYS at our store this week a bag of Morgan's Jack

LOST-Yellow male Collie dog white SERVICES AT THE METHODIST CHURCH spot in face, white ring around neck, evening and he was taken to white tip on tail, about 8 months old, Cove Creek for 'burial, where answers to name of Raleigh. Reward reside his parents and other rel- for information leading to his recovery. Lee & Brown.

Ladies First.

A friend with her two children is visiting me, and becoming annoyed by them, she said to her youngest, a very bright little fellow: "When mothmother's face, he sweetly remarked: "Please commence on sister, mother: ladies first, you know."-Cleveland Leader.

Friendship and Enmity. He will never have true friends who 's afraid of making enemies.-Hazlitt.

Optimistic Thought. When you obey your superiors you introduce

B. W. HENRY

Attorney.at-Law mone on his person and that none was found on him after the accident.

The other way and the court of the state and Federal courts. Prompt attention will be given to all business intrusted to his care. Office in the J. Hardin Howell outlding

$100 Revierd, 5160

Sold by all Druggists, Toc.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation,

U. D. C. MEETS FRIDAY

The United Daughters of the Confe eracy will meet tomorrow, Fr.day, after-All memters re urged to be present. as the local branch is asked from headquarters to remember our veterans at Raleigh and the widows of veterans at Fayetteville with a box of canned goods for winter use. It was voted at the last meeting that each member furnish two tins or two glass jars of something.

Not only members but all in sympa. thy with us are urged to help fill these boxes. Send articles for this purpse to the store of Miller Bros., where the boxes will be packed next week.

SERVICES AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

9:30 a. m. Sunday School; J. R. Morgan, Superintendent.

Adult classes, to which visitors are especially invited. 11a,m. Sermon, Subject: God's Great Woman. 6:45 p, m. B. Y. P. U.

Jr. B. Y. P. U. meets same hour in boys department. 7:30 p. m. Sermon, Subject: "Looking for Jesus.'

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening 7:30 o'clock.

You are cordially invited to attend all these services.

Rev. A. V. Joyner, Pastor.

Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Hugh Slean superintendent.

Preaching Services at 11 a. m. and

The Senior League meets at 6:30. Prayer services Wednesday 7:30 p. m We extend a cordial invitation to you to attend these services.

Rev. W. B. West, Pastor.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Sunday, October 14th.

9:45. a. m. - Sunday School; Superintendent James W. Reed. Adult Bible Class Teacher: J. E. Car-

11. a. m. - Sermon Topic: The Power of the Son of Man.

5:00 p. m.-Evensong; and Address: Luke; the Beloved Physician."

Everybody cordially invited. Rev. Albert New, Rector

Potatoes, onions, shelled beens and peas, eggs, poultry, butter, canned goods and dried fruit; also hides and country cured meats.

Tell us what you have or ship to the House that pays you cash.

WESTERN PRODUCE CO.

90 North Lexington Ave. Asheville, N. C.

Beautiful Suits

$12.00 to $25.00

Women's Suits of Broadcloth, Poplin, Mannish Serge and Garbardine, with the New Russian Convertible Collars, cleverly trimmed and smartly designed, Colors: Black, Navy, Purple, Gray and Green. Never before have we offered such pretty suits at the prices.

A good line of wash dresses, dark color for school girls

49c and 98c

New Coats--New Millinery -at Popular Prices

DRESS BETTER

> A. M. SIMONS, Prop. Waynesville, N. C.

LESS