JERRY R. LEATHERWWOD, Clerk of the Superior Court of Haywood County, North Carolina.

In value of prizes offered-in clean, open-and-shut fairness-and in equal opportunity for contestants, this is the greatest subscription campaign ever started in North Carolina. It psesents a most attractive and pleasing plan to secure a fine automobile, piano or other costly and desirable prize.

You know these automobiles-Nash "Big Six," seven passenger, Overland "Country Club" or five-passenger, Maxwell five-passenger, and Chevrolet five passenger-all tried and proven favorites with the American people, and they represent a real money value that is well known.

That is the striking fact about every prize offered--each is the highest quality and value of its kind.

The other prizes-piano, davenports, buggy, kitchenet, wardrobe trunk, gold bracelet watch, "Artist Proof" photographs, aluminum ware, cutlery and carving sets, diamond set La Vallieres and gold cameo brooches-run the total value of the offerings to the high-up sum of six thousand and five hundred dollars!

In order that no unfair advantage may be enjoyed by c -testants living in or nearl'Ashville, the territory has b separated into three divisions, with an automobile and full list of prizes for each. Competition for Nash "Big Six" is open to all contestants.

CONTEST CLOSES DECEMBER 8th, 1917

No costs or charges to contestants. Full instructions mailed immediately on receipt of nomination blank.

There's room and a fair field for every lady who wishes to enter this splendid contest. Every town and community should have one or more representatives. No contestant will suffer the slightest handicap on account of residing in a small town or rural community.

Prizes are on exhibit at College and Market streets in Ashville. The public is cordially invited to call and inspect them.

Make up your mind TODAY, stop now and mail the Nomination Coupon-good for 10,000 votes-and jump into the fight to win.
