day. He is with Mr. Sherrill in the picture business. I understand they have all they can do making pictures for the boys.

We are now experiencing what they call going "over the top," and it sure is some fun. I believe Sergt. Mehaffey explained to you all about it, so I'll not take the time and space to tell you.

I believe the writers are getting negligent. I didn't see quite so many letters the last week as before.

I must close as bedtime comes one hour earlier than heretofore. Success to all.

PINEY GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans spent Sunday with the latter's parents here.

Misses Burr and Flora Penland, of Clyde, were visiting in the Cove Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Shook and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shook, of Canton, were visiting their home folks here Sunday.

Mrs. R. P. Rogers spent Sunday with Misses May Burr and Nellie Reed.

Mr. Ogden Henson spent Sunday with Garland Medford.

Mr. Stamey, of Canton, was in the Cove Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Clark, of Canton, preached an excellent sermon at this place Sunday evening.

Miss Ida Rogers spent Sunday with Alice Medford.

Miss Berlyn Hargrove spent Sunday with Leona Shook.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely but we would be pleased if more of the older people would come.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Reed spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sellers, of Clyde.

Several of our young folks attended church in Dutch Cove Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Ada Rogers, of Canton, was home Sunday but returned Sunday evening.

The young people had an egg hunt here Saturday evening. Several were present and all seemed to have a nice time.

Mr. Johnson, of Canton, was in the Cove Sunday afternoon.

Mr. H. C. Sinclair, of Clyde, will give a lecture here next Saturday night on the war. Everybody is invited to attend.

What has become of all our correspondents? I was quite surprised at so little correspondence last week. Let's hope it will be better this week.

MAGGIE MESSAGES.

Perhaps a lot of your readers have never visited Maggie. It is four and one-half miles above Dellwood in a beautiful, fertile valley. We have one church and a splendid school building, three stores, two blacksmith shops and a narrow gauge railroad belonging to the Kessawayne Lumber Co., Waynesville. Besides this concern another company is operating here with a band saw mill three miles from here.

The farmers are all busy preparing for big crops this year.

Lee Setzer and Guy Campbell moved W. B. Mulkey's household goods from here Saturday, the 23rd, and got very wet in the meantime.

Miss Hester Powers has returned to her home at Andrews after a pleasant visit to her sister here.

Miss Virginia Frady, of Franklin, has come here to reside.

G. W. Henry and C. J. Setzer are thinking of going to a ship yard to work.

Mrs. Abe Fie gave a "candy breaking" lately in honor of Miss Hester Powers. All present report a pleasant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Setzer visited at J. A. Carver's Sunday while Mrs. Bettie Frady was a visitor at J. S. Rathbone's.

Our Sunday school is still running in spite of small pox. Vaccinations have caused many sore arms, but they say that is a small matter compared with the dreadful disease they ward off.

Tom Setzer, who is in school at Rock Hill, was home Saturday and Sunday. He is in the debate for Friday, March 29, and if successful will go to Chapel Hill. We wish him success.

Fred Setzer, who had a leg broken, is doing nicely and goes to see his best girl every Sunday.

Good luck to the Mountaineer-Courier.

RATCLIFF COVE REPORTS

Our farmers are busy preparing land for corn and sowing oats. Wheat looks fine while clover and grass are both doing well. Pastures are in better condition than on the first of May last year and stock are now grazing to the delight of our farmers, for feed was getting scarce.

County Agent Ferguson, accompanied by Mr. Shay, the swine expert, paid our community a visit last week and addressed a goodly number in the interest of pork production which seems to be a matter of great importance as well as profit just now.

Miss Grace Francis has returned from a three-weeks' visit to relatives at Franklin.

G. C. Underwood, who has been engaged in the mercantile business at Kingsport, Tenn., visited his home here last week and was examined by the exemption board and accepted for service.

Rev. Mr. Hunt, of Clyde, filled his appointment at the Methodist church here Sunday, March 23, and preached an excellent sermon.

Paul Sisk is wearing a broad smile. A boy arrived at his home Saturday, March 22.

I notice your Clyde correspondent suggested the name of Robert Terrell as a candidate for the legislature and I agree with him. Mr. Terrell possesses all the traits of character which qualify one to make a model representative. I think it would be well for the party to consider him and if he can be induced to run give him the nomination in June and elect him in November. If ever there was a time in the history of our country when we needed good, sound, moral, sober, intelligent and thinking men to legislate and administer the affairs of the nation, state and county, surely this is the time.

LOWER JONATHAN

In the triangular debate between Almond, Bryson and Rock Hill which took place March 29, Rock Hill was successful in winning both debates. The Almond debaters, Nettie Jervis and Myra Campbell, debated at Rock Hill against Fay Henry and Tom Setzer, the decision going to Rock Hill.

Sara Boyd and Harry Davis represented Rock Hill at Bryson and were successful there, their opponents being Daisy Franklin and Lila Sisk. Prof. Revelle, H. G. Owen and Mrs. James Boyd went with the Rock Hill debaters to Bryson and the party returned with nothing but praise for that splendid town and the fine hospitality shown them while there.

So these two winning teams will go to Chapel Hill next week to take part in the final contest for the Aycock Memorial Cup.

Miss Geneva Griffith and Mrs. J. D. Owen gave an egg hunt Saturday afternoon at Shady Grove for their Sunday school classes. They were assisted by Mrs. R. W. Howell and Mrs. Fred Moody. Seventeen dozen eggs were hid. There were 51 children present who greatly enjoyed the fun.

The high school students also had an egg hunt the same afternoon.

Rock Hill High School closes April 11 and 12. The small children will have their exercises April 11. At 11 o'clock, April 12, Mr. Higgs, county superintendent of public instruction in is entitled to the honor. Misses Marcie Ferguson, Lizzie Richison, Catherine Moody and Sarah Campbell, of Murphy, visited Miss Pauline Fish last Friday.

The Easter egg hunt last Sunday afternoon was greatly enjoyed by 12 of Clyde's handsome boys. Mrs. J. R. Williams and Misses Miriam Hart and Valeria Medford managed the occasion. DeVoe Medford found four more eggs than any other boy.

At the Republican county convention here last Saturday D. I. L. Smathers and Fanning Smathers were re-elected county chairman and secretary, respectively. Delegates were appointed to the state, senatorial, congressional and judicial conventions. The convention pledged support to the President and the administration in the prosecution of the war.

At the Democratic township convention here last Saturday William G. Byers was unanimously re-elected township chairman and Cleveland Medford, J. M. Jones, W. W. Haynes and Fred Medford were elected township executive committee. The following seven delegates were appointed to the county convention at Waynesville Saturday, April 6: D. M. Cagle, J. J. Lee, J. R. Terrell, John H. Medford, J. J. Mackey, Cary Byers and Thurman Haynes. Resolutions were passed endorsing President Wilson and the Democratic administration and pledging hearty support in the present world war crisis.

Mr. H. C. Sinclair's address of one hour and seventeen minutes on "The Fifth Kingdom" last Tuesday night in the Masonic hall was the most eloquent and learned ever delivered before the Masonic fraternity here. He discussed the Bible, ancient, medieval and modern history to establish in fact that the United States will become the Fifth Kingdom spoken of in the Bible at the close of the present war. He said that the Bible teaches that France will not be conquered and that England will finally turn against the United States, confederate with Germany, and come to the Mississippi valley, where the two countries will fight the American Republic and go down in defeat at which time our country will become the Fifth Kingdom and the home of the Jew. He also said that Satan's reign will cease in 1930 and that the earth will abide forever and Christ will come to the United States and reign in person bringing in the millennium.

Prof. L. Q. Haynes, Rev. J. M. Haynes, J. J. Lee and D. H. Byers attended the Baptist Union meeting at West Canton last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Orville Haynes and Miss Hettie Huggins represented Haywood Institute last Friday night in the oratorical and recitation contest.

The question for debate here last Friday evening was "Resolved, That Congress Should Enact a Law Compelling Compulsory Arbitration of Industrial Disputes." The affirmative was represented by Miss Victoria Sut-crabtree, will deliver an address. This will be followed by recitation and declamation contests in the afternoon. The High School students will have their exercises at night. Everybody is cordially invited to be present.

Miss Dolly Shuford, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. Owen, has returned to her home at Fairview.

Mrs. Glenn Boyd is back home after spending several days with relatives on Crabtree.

Miss Mary Shelton, of Waynesville, visited here Saturday.

C. M. Moody, J. R. and R. T. Boyd and L. B. Leatherwood made a business trip to Waynesville Monday.

Mr. Wilbur Vinson, of Tennessee, has been spending a few days at E. J. Howell's.

Chas. Parks, of Waxhaw, has been here on a visit to J. R. Boyd and while here purchased about 300 acres of mountain land for pasture.

CRABTREE LOCALS

The kids of this place had an egg hunt at the Baptist church Saturday afternoon and all seemed to enjoy themselves. On Sunday morning there was a program prepared especially for Easter. Several of the young folks rendered nice pieces and many have spoken of how well they did without practice.

Rev. John Hoglen, of Buffalo, S. C., preached an excellent sermon Sunday. The church has asked him to be our pastor and we hope he will accept.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely under the leadership of Mr. W. M. Francis. He seems to take a great interest in building up the church and getting more to attend. We trust that more of the older folks will come out and take part.

I will close by saying I am glad to see so many more correspondents taking an interest in our home paper as many that are far away now say they enjoy so much reading the letters from home.

CLYDE CULLINGS

Miss Jennie Ensley has returned home from visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D. C.

Register of Deeds Geo. C. Haynes has moved from Waynesville to his farm one mile east of Clyde.

Mr. and Mrs. George Garrett visited Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bennett last Saturday.

Capt. and Mrs. A. M. Fry, of Bryson City, were here a few days ago greeting old friends and getting acquainted with the voters of Clyde township. The Captain will get a large vote here and we believe he will be nominated judge for this judicial district. For several reasons he is entitled to the honor. Misses Marcie Ferguson, Lizzie Richison, Catherine Moody and Sarah Campbell, of Murphy, visited Miss Pauline Fish last Friday.

The Easter egg hunt last Sunday afternoon was greatly enjoyed by 12 of Clyde's handsome boys. Mrs. J. R. Williams and Misses Miriam Hart and Valeria Medford managed the occasion. DeVoe Medford found four more eggs than any other boy.

and Mr. Glenn Brown, who were given the decision, and the negative was upheld by Misses Pauline Ferguson and Mada Brock, of Murphy. The judges were Dr. H. N. Wells, of Murphy, and Rev. R. E. Hunt and Edwin Fincher, of Clyde. Miss Suttles and Mr. Brown are pupils of the Clyde High School. They won a great victory and we predict for them a bright future. Misses Hannah Dotson and Hilda McCracken did real well in the debate at Murphy last Friday evening.

Rev. L. Q. Haynes will preach on "The Millennium" at the Baptist church Sunday morning, April 14.

Dr. T. F. Glenn's sermon last Sunday morning at the M. E. church, south, on "God in History" was quite interesting and instructive.

The women of Haywood county will be very glad to know that the county commissioners have set aside an appropriation for employing a woman demonstrator in canning and other home economics, for a period of six months. This is a decided progressive step and we should congratulate ourselves upon having county commissioners who realize that at this time it is necessary to put forward every effort possible to conserve as well as produce food. The hearty co-operation of the women of the county is assured in this movement.

Rheumatism Yields
Only rheumatic sufferers know the agony of its darting pains, aching joints or twisting cords. But some few have not known that has been correcting this trouble when other treatments have utterly failed.

Scott's is essentially blood-food in such rich, concentrated form that its oil gets into the blood to alleviate this stubborn malady.

Get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion or advise an ailing friend. No alcohol.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories, which makes it pure and palatable.
