Prof. L. S. Stamey, Miss Victoria Suttles, Miss Connie Penland and Prof. W. G. Byers attended the teachers' meeting at Waynesville last Saturday. It is hoped that quite a number of boys and girls will participate in the spelling declamation and recitation contests in the county convention which will meet here soon.

At the Haywood Institute auditorium last Friday evening the B. Y. P. U. held a social meeting of considerable interest under the leadership of Roy Haynes. The addresses by Prof. L. Q. Haynes, Henry Osborne, F. E. Haynes and Thomas H. Rogers were greatly enjoyed. Misses Ruth Sentelle and Valeria Medford each sang a solo; Rene Joyce and Roy Haynes a duet; Elsie Byers and Valeria Medford a duet; Vaughn Byers, Roy Haynes, Dr. Medford and Cary Byers, rendered a quartet, and Miss Sallie Byers rendered a piano solo. An interesting program was carried out by group number three Sunday evening, group leader Mrs. John R. Williams presiding. Miss Kate Robinson was elected delegate to attend the State B. Y. P. U. which meets at Winston-Salem soon.

Attorney George Ward, of Waynesville, delivered an excellent address here Saturday evening in the interest of the Red Cross. Mrs. W. P. Fincher, Prof. L. Q. Haynes and Misses Ruth Sentelle and Valeria Medford have turned into the Bank of Clyde more than $200 for the Red Cross, and our people are still giving.

Four men and a woman called Ida Brown came to grief in West Asheville Friday night when a big Cadillac struck a telephone pole, cutting it off clean, smashing a wheel and injuring all the parties more or less. The Brown woman being hurt the worst. A mixture of whiskey and gasoline seemed to cause the trouble.

So Dad Won't Worry

"I've been hit by shrapnel and contain 13 wounds—the head, both arms, body and right leg. Outside of that, I am O. K., so don't worry." Corporal Arthur C. Trayer, a member of the Rainbow division, sends this message home to dad. The Kaiser will find that nothing short of death and destruction is going to stop the Sammys from going after him.

MAGGIE MESSAGES

Crops are looking fine. We are having some trouble getting them worked on account of wet ground.

Miss Grace Rich and Flyd Grant were married last week.

We are having a very good Sunday school here now but not as good as usual for the people are afraid of smallpox. But we have two good sermons a month and that is inspiring to us.

We are quite lonesome since our boys, brothers, husbands and cousins and many that we loved are gone away. Some are in France, others we know not where. But we, as women of the U. S., aim to do our duty. We can give our husbands, our boys, our all, if it is to the honor and glory of our country and it is God's will. His will be done, not ours.

We want to do our bit for our country and we can all do it by staying at home and doing our duty as wives and mothers and try to make what we can to help feed and clothe our soldiers who are fighting for us and our country.

James Rathbone, Fred Setzer, Roy Campbell and Oliver Rathbone went to Waynesville Saturday to see the soldier boys leave. They reported an inspiring but sad sight.

We had a pounding for Revs. Freeman and Griffith which was a marked success besides an excellent sermon from each. Rev. Griffith's subject was "The Bountiful Giver." Rev. Freeman's was "Friendship, Love and Truth."

Success to The Mountaineer-Courier.

MAGGIE MESSAGES.

The farmers of this section are getting terribly behind with their crops on account of so much bad weather; they say they are going to pasture their cornfields if the weather does not get better.

V. A. Campbell and wife have returned home from Cattaaloochee, where they have been visiting relatives. They reported a pleasant trip and said they caught lots of fish.

Guy Campbell left last Sunday. It is thought he has joined the coast artillery. His folks did not know he intended to go until he had gone.

Floyd Grant and Grace Rich were married last week. They are a bright and intelligent couple and no one can see any reason why they should not make the future very happy.

Mrs. J. A. Carver is very ill.

Our pastor, Rev. Freeman, preached an excellent sermon last Friday night. After the sermon he was given a "pounding."

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Cuthall, a son.

Our Sunday school has kept alive in spite of the smallpox. The disease has about disappeared in this community and our Sunday school will soon be as prosperous as ever.

Maggie has an excellent Odd Fellows lodge which has done much toward upbuilding the community. We also have the Star of Bethlehem lodge, another splendid order.

Good luck to all of our readers.

A bond election will be held in Beaverdam township on June 17. Bonds to the amount of $18,400 will be voted for or against for the purpose of constructing and improving roads in that township. If the bonds carry, an equal amount of government money will be available, making a total of $36,800 for road improvement. . . . In the United States District court at Asheville last Friday Lawrence Campbell, a 15-year-old boy of Graham county, was found guilty of taking mail from a rural delivery box and sentenced to 15 months at the National Training School at Washington. Commodore Gunter, also of Graham county, was sentenced to a year and a day in jail for illicit distilling.—Murphy Scout.
