RED CROSS HOME SERVICE 25,000 WOMEN NURSES WANTED

Under Direction of Waynesville Chapter, American Red Cross-Purpose of Home Service

Through its Home Service Work the Red Cross gives assurance to our soldiers and sailors and their families that while the former are absent in national service, the latter shall be preserved in a normal, well-balanced family life and shall not suffer for anything essential to good spirits, health and comfort. Need for the Work

The war necessarily deprives homes of the breadwinners and leaders. Ungive attention to these needs. Value of the Work

Aside from its humanitarian aspects, Home Service is vitally patriot- fering their lives for the world's great ic in contributing to the maintainance of the morale of the soldiers and their do? This is, as it were, a "call to families.

Asked to Enroll in the United States Students Nurse Reserves-Recruiting Station at J. M. Mock's

The government is calling for 2,500 young women to join the United States Student Nurse Reserve and hold themselves in readiness to train for service as nurses.

This is designed to be a direct appeal to the womanhood of America to enter upon a course of nurse training. The appeal is made on the basis that every day of a student nurse's training represents a double patriotic service, in that while she is preparing der new conditions social accidents for military or civil duty, later if will inevitably befall these families needed, she immediately releases a unless there is some organization to graduate nurse for military duty give attention to these needs. while she herself cares for the civilian population.

WHEN THE DAYS ARE DARK AND GLOOMY (By Jesse Daniel Boone)

When the days are dark and dreary And you feel both glum and weary And your eyes are dim and bleary, It is time to smile. Force it, if it's necessary; Do not frown or be contrary: Try to make it voluntary,

For it's well worth while. When the world is bright and sunny

And your wallet's ull of money, And you've lots of bread and honey, It's no task to smile. Any guy can laugh and chatter

When there's nothing much to matter And no rains to beat and spatter On life's weary mile.

But it takes a sort of hero, Who is bossed by some old Nero, Or when "weather's cold as zero, To suffuse a smile;

But your smile may bring another To the face of father, mother, Or may help a frowning brother, Full of gloom and bile.

Let your face hand out a greeting To the people you are meeting In this world so sad and fleeting-Make it beam and smile. Many roads are rough and muddy. But remember this thing, Buddy; If all cheeks are smooth and ruddy: Roads won't seem so vile.

FINE PROGRAMS AT

LAXE JUNALUSKA The past week at Lake Junaiuska

has been one that will long be remembered by those who were far-sighted enough to attend the splendid programs that were prepared. Dr. Byron W. King of Pittaburg, Prof. St. John of Boston, Dr. George R. Stuart of our own Southland, and then to cap it all, that wonderful male quartet from Los Angeles, Cal., the Orpheus Four. Such ensemble singing is seldom heard in this or any other section of the country. It has been our privilege to hear from time to time the great singers-the leading quartets all over America-and jwe can say with the best good will to all others that the Orpheus Four captured the audience and ran off with them as few if any others that we have heard have done. Here is hoping that we can have them back again and that the people of this locality will wake up to their privilege and come and hear them as well as some of the other strong attractions appearing from time to time.

Just notice the line-up for the coming ten days.
