DEDICATION OF MEMORIAL WINDOWS IN GRACE CHURCH.

At the morning service on Palm Sunday the Rector, Rev. Albert New, dedicated six new windows, four of which are memorials. This latest addition to the interior furnishings of the church greatly enhance its beauty, as well as giving more light than the former windows. The first window is the figure of "Ruth," and is in memory of the mother of Mr. Jas. W. Reed. "The Madonna and Child" is the choice of the memorial by her family to Mrs. C. W. Miller, Sr. "The Empty Tomb" is the "Pennington" memorial, donated by M. Pennington of Tarboro, N. C. to the Rector and Mrs. New, in memory of their infant child Albert Chase. "The Boy Christ" window, "Rock of Ages" and "Christ in Gethsemane" are two windows purchased by the proceeds of Mrs. J. W. Reed's musicale, supplemented by a check from Mrs. Jas. E. Carraway. The dedication service was followed by a choral celebration of the Eucharist, and the offertory solo was "The Palms by Mrs. Reed. Palms from Florida were the floral decorations.

THE VICTORY LOAN MUST BE A SUCCESS.

Raleigh, N. C., April 14, 1919. Undoubtedly the war has made a very deep impression on the minds and hearts of the men and women throughout the nation. They did not see the nearly four million men go into uniform, all of them ready to sacrifice their lives if need be, without feeling that there was some very good cause for it and I do not believe they thought that cause was simply a great military spectacle in the arena of France and Flanders. They know there was an idea behind it all, and that idea involves the opportunity and happiness and liberty of the nations of the world—both large and small. Sixty thousand of our men lie on the fields of France, and I believe we can make it clear to the American people, if they do not already realize it better than we think they do, that they are being asked to help in this final or VICTORY Loan to pay for the same cause for which they subscribed to the four Liberty Loans. There is the same great appeal behind it—the same Americans fought for it and the same Americans died for it. It is no new thing. It is the same great cause which this nation armed itself to defend. The only difference between this campaign and the other campaigns is that now our cause has been crowned with victory. Certainly that does not nullify the virtue of the ideal for which we were fighting, nor justify us in saying that we ought not to go on working for this ideal not only now, when our bills remain unpaid, but even afterwards when as a nation we must continue to stand before the world for the same things we have fought for and died for during the past year and a half.

JOSEPH G. BROWN,
Chairman Central Liberty Loan
Commission for N. C.

A SOLDIER SHEDS HIS UNIFORM

(By Jesse Daniel Boone)

I'm glad to see those dear old friends
I knew in days gone by;
I'm glad to see the mountain peaks
Which reach up in the sky;
I'm glad to see these pretty girls
Who win one with a smile;
So I've decided to remain
Right here for all the while.

Old France is good enough for those
Who do not know this land;
Her people all are mighty fine;
Their sentiments are grand,
But this good land was made for me,
And here I will remain,
Until I'm forced to go away
Or else become insane.

No land on earth which I have seen
Can with these hills compare,
Where every fellow has a show
To get 'most anywhere,
We have good air, and water, too,
And altitude that's high,
In this dear spot with skies so blue
When heaven is so nigh.

So now I'll shed my uniform
And don my working clothes,
And help to make this goodly land
To blossom like a rose,
So if you have some work for me
Just say it loud and quick
For I am ready to begin
And I will try to stick.

BUILDING AT LAKE JUNALUSKA

S. C. Limer, superintendent of construction for the Junaluska Construction Co., Lake Junaluska says the new Hotel Terrace containing about 90 rooms with hot and cold water in each room with public and private baths is about completed.

He has begun construction on a $5,500 summer home for Mr. J. B. Ivey of Charlotte.

He will at once begin work on a $4,500 bungalow for a Mr. Bivens of Pickens, S. C.

This promises to be the biggest spring and summer season in the construction line Lake Junaluska has known. 46 or 50 mechanics are at work there already.

BISHOP SLEEPS IN THE KAISER'S OLD ROOM.

Bishop James Atkins, chairman of the Centenary Commission of his church, was recently in France in company with other representatives of the church. The commission stopped at Lille and found the hotel overcrowded. All managed to secure room, however, except the Bishop, who had his choice between a miserable little cubby-hole at the rear of the hotel and a commodious room at the front of the hotel, which had been occupied by the Kaiser when he was in Lille. The Bishop hesitated, but finally declared in favor of the Kaiser's apartment. The apartment was beautifully furnished and its appointments were complete. However, he added that he did not sleep nearly as well as one would expect of a tired Bishop in a comfortable room!

LOCAL BOARD FOR HAYWOOD COUNTY CLOSED.

Capt. R. A. L. Hyatt, chairman, made the last shipment of government property to headquarters on the 15th inst. All the records and files of this office were placed in steel filing cases, and shipped to headquarters, Washington, D. C., where they will remain.

The members of this board are highly appreciated by all Haywood people, and especially the retiring soldiers who say the instructions received from the board members before starting to the war proved valuable to them all through the service they had to perform in the army. We are told by those sent by the government to check up the office of this board that the records were found in excellent shape, as good or better than any board in the state.

The members of the board feel proud of the soldiers of their county. It is stated that according to population more men voluntarily enlisted for the various branches of the army for the great world war from Haywood county than any other county in the state. Haywood had fewer deserters and slackers than any county in the state. North Carolina had the least per cent of white slackers and deserters in the Union, only 76-100 per cent. Kentucky comes next to North Carolina. Haywood county has had commissioned, of her overseas during this war, one general, one colonel, three majors, captains, lieutenants, etc. many in number. Many of our Haywood boys have returned honored with badges and crosses given them for bravery while at the front. We noticed that the men sent by our local board always had the proper fighting spirit in them and a smile on when they were told good by the members of the board. Our board had about five thousand registrants on their classification book. Good for Haywood and the board.

Genuine patriotism is patriotism of peace as well as patriotism of war. A true patriot will do his best during the Victory Liberty Loan campaign.

GIVE THE SOLDIERS JOBS.

Our soldiers and sailors are now returning home in great numbers. We are receiving them with open arms and it is eminently fitting for their return to be celebrated with great outbursts of patriotic enthusiasm. But these men cannot live on cheers and music and flowers and kisses. The fairest and finest thing we can do for them is to see to it that every man of them at once gets a good job.

North Carolina to highly resolve that no sailor or sailor shall be denied a chance to make a decent living. Please lay this matter on the hearts of your people. Make it a matter of community pride and patriotism. Let each community be very sensitive on this point. Let no community be willing for another community to provide jobs for its heroes.

These men are neither afraid nor ashamed to work. They seek no charity—they earn it. They want a job, and they must not be denied.

Very truly yours,
T. W. BICKETT, Governor.

JUDGE LEATHERWOOD.

First Juvenile Court Held Monday—Remaining Sections of the Law Dealing With Delinquent Youths

Sec. 5. Petition. Any person having knowledge or information that a child is within the provisions of this act and subject to the jurisdiction of the court, may file with the court a petition verified by affidavit, stating the alleged facts which bring such child within said provisions. The petition shall set forth the name and residence of the child and of the parents, or the name and residence of the person having the guardianship, custody, or supervision of such child, if the same be known or ascertained by the petitioner, or the petitioner shall state that they are unknown, if that is the fact.

Sec. 6. Issuance of summons; traveling expenses. Upon the filing of the petition or upon the taking of a child into custody, the court may forthwith or after an investigation by a probation officer or other person, cause to be issued a summons signed by the judge or the clerk of the court directed to the child, unless such child has been taken into custody, and to the parents or, in case there is no parent, to the person having the guardianship, custody or supervision of the child, or the person with whom the child may be, requiring them to appear with the child at the place and time stated in the summons to show cause why the child should not be dealt with according to the provisions of this act.

The judge may in his discretion authorize the payment of necessary traveling expenses incurred by any witness or persons summoned or otherwise required to appear at the hearing of any case coming within the provisions of this act. Such expenses, when approved by the judge of the Superior Court, shall be a charge upon the county in which the petition is filed.

Sec. 7. Custody of the child; release. If it appears from the petition that the child is embraced within subdivision (a) of section 1 of this act, or is in such condition or surroundings that the welfare of the child requires that its custody be immediately assumed, the court may endorse or cause to be endorsed upon the summons a direction that the officer serving the same, shall at once take such child into his custody.

In the case of any child who has been taken into custody or pending the final disposition of any case, the child may be released in the custody of a parent or other person having charge of the child or the custody of a probation officer or other person appointed by the court to be brought before the court at the time designated. Any child embraced in this act may be admitted to bail as provided by law. When not released as herein provided such child, pending the hearing of the case, shall be detained in such place of detention as hereinafter provided for.

Sec. 8. Service of summons. Service of summons shall be made personally by reading to and leaving with the person summoned a true copy thereof: Provided, that if the court is satisfied that reasonable but unsuccessful effort has been made to serve the summons personally upon any of the parties named therein, or if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that it is impracticable to serve a summons personally upon any of them, the court may make an order providing for service of the summons by registered mail or by publication or otherwise in such manner as the judge shall determine. It shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction if service is effected at any time before the time fixed in the summons for the return thereof, but the court, if requested by the child or a parent, or in case there is no parent, by the person having the guardianship, custody or supervision of the child, shall not proceed with the hearing earlier than three days after service. Failure to serve a summons upon any person other than said child shall not impair the jurisdiction of the court to proceed in cases arising under subdivision (a) of section one of this act, provided that for good cause shown the court shall have made an order dispensing with such service.

If the person summoned as herein provided shall fail without reasonable cause to appear and abide the order of the court or bring the child, he may be proceeded against as for contempt of court. In case the summons cannot be served or the party served fails to obey the same, and in any
