JULE BRYSON WINS D. S. C.

Jackson County Journal.

His friends and comrades have long known that he deserved it but it wasn't until last week that Julius Bryson received notice from General Pershing's headquarters of his citation and award of the Distinguished Service Cross for gallantry and conspicuous bravery before the enemy. The incident occurred near Bellicourt (Somme) France on September 27th last, two days before the battle of Bellicourt in which the thirtieth division broke through the Hindenburg line at that point. The enemy was attacking and Bryson, though severely wounded, remained on the field with the platoon of which he was in charge for more than twenty-four hours. The citation follows:

First Sergeant Julius Jesse Bryson, Co. D, 118 Infantry for extraordinary heroism in action near Bellicourt, France, September 27, 1918. Although wounded very severely in the knee by shrapnel Sergeant Bryson remained in charge of his platoon for more than 24 hours, during a critical period of the operations. Due to his excellent example of courage, leadership and skill in leading them his platoon successfully repelled a number of enemy attacks during this period of time. Home address, S. J. Bryson, (father) Webster, N. C.

AT LAKE JUNALUSKA.

The Schedule for the Season of 1918 Presents Many Fine Events and Attractions.

Southern Epworth League Conference July 15-23.

Sunday School Training School. The greatest faculty assembled in any Summer school—July 23-Aug. 6.

Wesley Bible Class Federation—Aug. 10-17.

Haywood County Day—Aug. 10.

During the Summer some unusually fine numbers will be presented. July 19-30 and Aug. 2-9-16, and other dates to be announced later.

On July 30th and Aug. 2nd we have that wonderful Operetta, "The House That Jack Built." This will be presented by Mrs. Hortense Reynolds, who is the only authorized representative of the composers. Mrs. Reynolds will use our own young people and boys and girls in the cast, which will be attractively costumed to present the Mother Goose characters.

July 23 to Aug. 6.

The third session of the Junaluska Training School for Leaders will begin Wednesday evening, July 23 at 8:00 and continue through the evening of Wednesday, August 6. All students desiring to do credit work in the school should be on the ground on the evening of July 23.

The program for this year will not only be fully up to the grade of the high standard set in the last two years, but will in some respects be in advance over what has gone before.

The following speakers and instructors have been engaged for the school: Bishop Warren A. Candler; Dr. H. H. Meyer, Sunday School Editor of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Dr. Shailer Mathews of Chicago University; Dr. Frederick F. Shannon, pastor of Reform Church-on-the-Heights, Brooklyn; Dr. Stonewall Anderson, Secretary of Education, Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Dr. Edward Porter St. John, author and formerly of Boston University; Dr. W. J. Young, of Emory University; Dr. W. S. Bovard, Superintendent of Adult Department Board of Sunday Schools, Methodist Episcopal Church; Prof. H. H. Harris, of Emory University; Dr. Wade Crawford Barclay, Associate Editor Teachers' Publications, Methodist Episcopal Church; Miss Frances Weld Danielson, Associate Editor of Sunday School Literature of the Congregational Church, well-known writer and expert in the field of elementary work; Mrs. W. M. Walker, Primary Specialist, Birmingham, Ala.; Miss M. Anne Moore, Department of Pedagogy State Normal College, Denton, Tex.; Miss Minnie E. Kennedy, Superintendent Elementary, General Sunday School Board, Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Rev. Emmett Hightower, Superintendent of Young People's and Adult Work; and M. W. Brabham, Associate Superintendent Young People's Department, General Sunday School Board, Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The session of the school has been slightly lengthened in order to give twelve days for class work and the plan of the program in operation for the last two years somewhat altered in order to give more time to the class periods and to the devotional emphasis in the school.

The mornings will be given exclusively to class work up until twelve o'clock. From 12 to 12:30 each day will be given to a devotional service for the entire school. Dr. W. J. Young is to have charge of these devotional services and also the devotions at the vesper hour. There will be a platform lecture each evening.

Courses of instruction will be offered in the following subjects: "Bible," "Sunday School Organization and Administration," "Methods of Teaching," "The Church and Religious Education," "Plans and Methods of Teacher-Training." Also courses in "Story-Telling," "Beginning Lesson Materials," "Primary Methods," and the "Junior Child;" "The Characteristics and World of the Intermediate-Senior Work;" "The Characteristics and World of Young People;" "Plans and Methods in Young People's Work;" "The Psychology of the Adult;" and "Plans and Methods of Adult Work."

It is also planned to have a practical course on organized activities under the leadership and supervision of Mr. Harry Deussen and Professor St. John. This will be conducted in the afternoons in the open as a part of the recreational program.

Of interest to preachers. The course of twelve studies on "The Church and Religious Education" offered by Dr. H. H. Meyer is to be a fundamental study by one of the present-day leaders of thought in religious education and is designed especially for the preachers and mature laymen who are studying underlying principles involved. The course on "Plans and Methods of Teacher-Training in the Local Sunday School," which is virtually a course on leadership, offered by Dr. Barclay, should also prove very attractive to the preachers who are dealing first hand with the problems of training their own local leaders.

Of Special Interest to Superintendents
The two courses offered by Dr. Barclay are particularly suited to meet the needs of Sunday school superintendents. The one is on "Sunday School Organization and Administration," and the other is elsewhere described.

Of Special Interest to Directors of Teacher-Training and Leaders of Training Classes.
Dr. Barclay's course on "Plans and Methods of Teacher-Training" has been planned primarily with reference to meeting the needs of directors of teacher-training and leaders of training classes. The problem of training the leadership in the local school in all of its aspects needs to be thought out more fundamentally than it has been. Dr. Barclay's course ought to make a strong appeal to those who are dealing with this subject, and it is especially urged that directors of teacher-training and those teaching or planning to teach training classes take advantage of this course.

Specialization Attractions.
The story-telling course will be offered this year by one of the most attractive and best known elementary specialists in America. Miss Danielson is known by reputation and through her writings throughout America. Dr. St. John, whose course in story-telling last year was so popular, will this year offer the specialization course in intermediate-senior work. Dr. St. John is equally at home in the elementary and in the adolescent field. Special attention should be called to Dr. Bovard's course in "Plans and Methods of Adult Work." Dr. Bovard is the author of "Adults in the Sunday Schools" and is experienced in his field. His course on plans and methods should be especially valuable. The course for adult workers should attract to Junaluska a large number of teachers and leaders in adult work.

Other courses will be led by instructors well known in the Church, and all of the work will be up to the high level of the standard already set at Junaluska.

Hotel Accommodations.
Additional accommodations on the grounds have been provided in the development of the new Terrace Hotel and otherwise.

Put Junaluska on Your Summer Schedule.
For two weeks this school of training, second to none on the continent, in the beautiful environment of the mountains of North Carolina and on the shores of Lake Junaluska, will offer an unsurpassed opportunity to those who have the vision of what religious education means and who are eager to equip themselves for larger leadership in this field.

The greatest benefit will come to those Conferences, districts, communities, or Churches that exercise care in selecting their strongest and most representative leaders to attend this school. No better work can be done in preparing the way for a forward movement in Sunday school development in any Conference or section of the Church than by securing the attendance at this school of those who shall be able to carry back the best thought and spirit of this school to their own local fields. Plans to this end should be set on foot at once.

A program giving detailed information regarding the schedule of the school will be prepared in due time for the use of those who plan to attend this session of the school. Details, however, will not be needed in order to make preliminary plans to send representatives, as the general scope and purpose of the school is already understood.

All delegates appointed to attend the Junaluska School and all persons desiring further information regarding the school should address John W. Shackford, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

CIVIC LEAGUE NOTES

During the absence of the first vice chairman, Mrs. R. L. Allen, Miss Jessie Rogers, the second vice chairman, will take charge of the Civic League Friday at 5 p. m. at the Waynesville.

The "Shady Park" will be opened by July 1st. The band of the town must have our help and we want yours. Music and instruments cost something.

The keeping of papers off the streets, helping the town authorities by our work of upbuilding means we are benefited.

The initiation fee is 25 cents. Miss Clara Lindfors is treasurer. Those who are ambitious for their town come Friday, May 24, at 5 p. m.

SULPHUR SPRINGS A BUSY PLACE.

Mr. B. J. Sloan the owner and Mrs. J. L. Morgan, manager of the Haywood White Sulphur Springs hotel are very busy people just now getting this famous resort in shape for summer guests. A large force of carpenters, plasterers and painters are at work. Experts recently fumigated the buildings used for an army hospital and every room is being repainted and repapered or kalsomined. When this is all done, there will not be a cleaner or more sanitary building in all the land.

All the rubbish has been removed from the grounds which are being beautified and made attractive. This famous resort which has been popular for 50 years will be ready for guests by June 15th.

THE BOYS ON THE RHINE.

The Army of Occupation on the Rhine has been enjoying a week's carnival, and, while it kept one eye on the Germans, it, for the time being, forgot about shrapnel, gas masks, cooties, trench rats, hard tack and all other war-like things. The big meet was held at Coblenz, where all sorts of contests, motor and horse shows and air plane flights were given. In the "javelin throw," Sgt. Higgins of the University of Chicago, who holds the American record in the free throw of the javelin, won a silver cup. Lt. Hilary H. Crawford, who stood third in the best six chosen out of twenty-five contestants who were in the preliminary meet, won a silver medal and a trip to Paris. Higgins sent the javelin 170 feet, McGun 169 and Crawford 166.

PYTHIAN MEET.

Tuesday night, May 20th, Balsam Lodge No. 62, Knights of Pythias, were host to forty-five Knights from the Canton lodge. Everybody knows that Canton has the finest Pythian lodge in the State, and it will be their influence that shall go so far in establishing a D. O. K. K. Temple in Asheville. General R. D. Gilmer welcomed our guests in his usual splendid manner, and Bro. D. J. Kerr, of Canton lodge, responded with true wit and cleverness. Esquire John V. Blaylock and Grady Farmer attained the rank of Knighthood. E. M. Geier, State Deputy Grand Chancellor, was with us, and local Pythians know what he does for Pythians. During the evening delicious refreshments were served and everybody enjoyed the excellent work of Canton's Degree Team.

FORMER WAYNESVILLE MAN HEADS FEDERAL CHAMBER.

(By S. R. Winters.)
Washington, May 14.—Homer L. Ferguson, president and general manager of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company, of Newport News, Va., has been elected president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

This announcement was made today at the office of the chamber as the result of a mail vote of the organization's board of directors. Mr. Ferguson, who has been a member of the board of directors since February, 1914, and who has been actively identified with the chamber work, succeeds as president Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago, who declined re-election. Mr. Wheeler, who served as president the first two years of the chamber's existence and who was called on last year to serve another term during the war emergency, could not accept the place. Mr. Ferguson was nominated for the presidency by a nominating committee of the board of directors, immediately after the chamber concluded its annual meeting at St. Louis on May 1.

His was the only name placed in nomination after Mr. Wheeler declined reelection and the vote, taken by mail, was unanimous. Born at Waynesville, N. C., March 6, 1873, Mr. Ferguson was educated at the United States Naval Academy, graduating in 1892, and at Glasgow university, Scotland, and finishing there in 1895. For eleven years he was a member of Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, the Society of Naval Engineers, the Engineers club, New York, and the Army and Navy club, Washington. Henry M. Victor, of Charlotte, N. C., was elected a member of the board of directors.

A SUNDAY ROBBERY.

The McCracken Clothing Co.'s store was entered Sunday afternoon by Sam Arrington, one of the wards of Judge Leatherwood, of the juvenile court. This is Sam's third offense in a short time. Mr. Leatherwood will probably send him to the county home to be worked and looked after until a reformatory can be found for him and some other boys.

Bloodhounds were sent for Monday and before they had finished tracking Sam he was found by Policeman Ray and has confessed to entering the building and showed where he had hidden some clothing in the basement which he expected to get later.

KENNEY-WHITE.

The following invitations are being sent out for the marriage of a popular young lady of Balsam: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Key Kenney request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Julia Elenora to Mr. Frederick Merander White on Sunday afternoon, June the first One thousand nine hundred nineteen at two o'clock Ninety-three Cherry Street Asheville, North Carolina.

HELP THE BOY SCOUTS.

Several weeks ago there appeared in this paper an appeal to the mothers and fathers of Waynesville in behalf of the Boy Scouts. This appeal has been answered by some, but in most cases by people who haven't any boys, but who are interested in yours. President Wilson and many other rotund men are backing the Scouts. Everywhere that they have been organized they have proved of great benefit to the community and nation. In every loan drive and patriotic undertaking they have given valuable aid. Will you not give the local troop your loyal support?

In the early part of March we started with only seventeen boys, now we have forty-eight. But, have you ever stopped to think that it is a hard job to keep this many boys interested. There are enough boys in Waynesville to organize another patrol, but is there another man who will do this much for the boys. Next week we will publish an acknowledgment of the gifts to the Scouts. The ladies of this town helped the soldier boys and no one has any fault to find with them, and we feel sure that they will also aid their own home boys when they understand the need. We need several things, but the most needed are three rocking chairs, table covers, seven large rug and several small ones, shades books, an American flag, a some timber and some money to secure tents, pay rent, and pay for twenty-five straight chairs. Waynesville do your bit, as you have done before. Please turn money over to Scout Scribe E. Paul Martin, and notify us where and when we can get the furniture.

E. C. FERGUSON, Assistant Scout Master.

QUICK TRIP TO ATLANTA.

C. G. Logan and Ned Denton were accompanied by J. D. Boone on a trip to Atlanta Thursday at noon, where they went for a Willys Six automobile for W. T. Denton. We arrived in Atlanta in time for breakfast Friday after spending a few hours in Asheville and also in Spartanburg. Leaving Atlanta about noon with another car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Haynes, John Ray and Rev. A. V. Joyner we reached Anderson, S. C. after dark and spent the night there, reaching home Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

The trip was delightful and most of the road, except the Hendersonville-Asheville detour, was good. While in Atlanta we called on W. L. Hardin, Jr., who is with Mr. Willis in the Tanlac office and his brother Frank who has a splendid position with one of the largest drug firms in the city. Their soda fountain is 96 feet long, the largest ever built. We also had the pleasure of seeing Eugene Brown who has sold his interest in a drug store and is now city salesman for an auto tire concern.

We did two funny stunts while gone. While waiting for a connecting train at Spartanburg we went through a cemetery alone just for the night experience and passing the big jail on visitors day in Atlanta we spent half an hour in a five story jail.
