The Passing Through

Miss Braxton Kirk left by motor Sunday for Brevard where she will attend a house party given by Mrs. James Brumfield. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Kirk and little Miss O'Neill. She will probably be gone a fortnight.

Mr. Jere Davis left Monday for Greensboro where he will attend the Fourteenth Annual convention of the State Optometric Society which will be held at the O. Henry June 14th and 15th. Mr. Davis passed the required state examination and is now a registered optometrist.

Through an oversight the name of Mr. L. M. Welch, one of the county's most prominent and influential citizens, was omitted from the list of Confederate veterans attending the reunion recently. Mr. Welch served in the Civil War in the sixty-ninth North Carolina regiment.

"For Yesterday is but a dream
And tomorrow is only a vision,
But today,
Well lived, makes every Yesterday
A dream of happiness,
And every Tomorrow a vision of Hope.

Look well, therefore, to this Day.
Such is the salutation of the Dawn."
—From The Sankirt.

Miss Joseelyn McDowell, who is attending the Y. W. C. A. conference at Blue Ridge, came over Sunday and spent two or three days here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. McDowell. Miss McDowell is a senior at North Carolina College for Women and will begin her post graduate work at the summer school at Chapel Hill next week. By taking the summer course she can receive her M. A. degree from Columbia University in one year.

Mr. J. G. Parks, Mr. C. E. Parks, Charles, Jr., Mary and Ben Parks of Concord and Albemarle, have been spending the past two weeks at the home of J. R. Boyd, Jr., on Jonathan. While there the party was joined by Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Stevenson and Mr. Pinkston of Asheville. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Louise Boyd, Marietta Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Leatherwood and Mr. Gilbert Moody. A week was spent on Catalochee, camping.

GOLDSBORO-CINCINNATI PULL-

Asheville, N. C., June 10.—As a result of the efforts of the corporation commission led by Judge George P. Pell, commissioner and representative of Raleigh, Durham, Greensboro, High Point and Asheville, a special through pullman car has been added to present train service between Goldsboro and Cincinnati.

This information came to the Asheville Board of Trade late last night from Judge Pell, who states that the first pullman car for Cincinnati will leave Goldsboro at 10:35 p. m. June 26th.

Judge Pell states this is a try-out scheme to see if there is any business from North Carolina to the west, Piedmont center and Eastern North Carolina. He further states that if this is a success, so, as soon as the business depression is over, we think it means a through North State Flyer which will be scheduled to leave Goldsboro at about noon, arriving at Asheville at 9:00 p. m., and Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis early next day, stopping at Selma, Raleigh, Durham, Burlington, Greensboro, High Point, Thomasville, Lexington, Salisbury, Statesville, Newton, Hickory, Morganton, Marion and Asheville.

He asks that we use every effort to advertise this pullman so we can demonstrate that there is western business.

Two members of the North Carolina State Corporation Commission, Judge Pell and A. J. Maxwell, with a representative from the business organizations above mentioned, including M. E. Beaman, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Raleigh, E. B. Jeffers of the Chamber of Commerce of Greensboro and the Daily News of Greensboro, N. Buckner of the Asheville Board of Trade and others appeared before Vice-President Henry Miller and the Southern Railway officials at Washington about six weeks ago, urging the advantage to be secured by the establishment of such a train,—with the above result.

HURRY AND WORRY

(By Jesse Daniel Boone.)

Hurry, hurry, all day long,
Is the pass word of the throng;
If you stop, or pause to think,
Death may put you on the "blink."
Traffic cops and danger signs,
Courts and judges, costs and fines,
All remind us to "go slow;"
But the crowd won't have it so.

Speed is king, is on his throne,
And is making thousands groan.
If you can't produce the goods,
You must hunt the timbered woods.
If you're handicapped with age,
Even though you be a sage,
You must hasten like the rest;
You must keep up with the best.

Worry, worry, why should you
Always keep me in a stew?
Say, in fairness, is it right,
Mornings, noontime, and at night,
To keep nagging, day by day,
In your spiteful, hateful way?
You're a demon, and your game
Is a flim-flam full of shame.

Worry, worry, I hate you;
You are false, and never true;
You disturb a fellow's mind;
You make living but a grind.
Why not show a better road?
Why not lift some fellow's load?
Pour some oil of gladness out;
Speak up mildly, do not shout.

HOTEL IN ABEYANCE

Matter of Location and Sale of Lots Halts the Progress. Committees Granted More Time and Organization is Delayed.

We said last week that Waynesville's new, modern hotel would be built and we still think so, but subscriptions are holding back on account of so many locations being discussed by this, that and some other interested party. Some subscriptions seem to be contingent on the sale of certain lots, but the meeting held Tuesday night decided to get real, genuine subscriptions up to or close to the $100,000 mark before lots to be cussed or decided on. Straight subscriptions are very much needed and desired but contingent ones will not count. About $60,000 is in sight now and the point is where will the other $40,000 come from. Several large real estate owners are not subscribing and it is believed these would possibly derive more benefit from the erection of a modern hotel than any other class of people. These should come across and some subscriptions already in hand will have to be increased to put the proposition across.

When the money is in sight it will be an easy matter to buy a lot for just what it is worth and no more for four or five are already being tendered, some on Main street and one or two near by. That $40,000 is the main thing.

W. T. Shelton was chairman Tuesday night and J. D. Boone was secretary. The soliciting committee with Col. Woolsey as chairman was given further time to raise funds and secure options and when they see fit the chairman and secretary will call a meeting for organization.

HANDSOME ELECTRIC SIGN

J. K. Thigpen & Co. have installed a large and attractive sign in front of their drug store at the corner of Church and Main. It has cost about $250 and there are 88 bulbs in the letters. It is a credit to the town and is the first electric sign for Waynesville.

This firm is having a One Cent Sale of Rexall Articles this week, beginning today and lasting through Saturday. Read their big advertisement.

Miss Katherine Osborne and Miss Ruth Weaver are as delegates attending the State B. Y. P. U. convention at Charlotte.

Several will go from Clyde township to Iron Duff next Sunday morning to witness the baptism of Uncle Lebo Medford and others near the home of P. P. Crawford. Rev. D. C. Davis will officiate, after which he will preach at Antioch Baptist church.

There will be Children's Day at the M. E. Church next Sunday when a very interesting program will be rendered. Addresses will be delivered by Prof. L. S. Stamey and others in the afternoon and dinner will be on the grounds.

The Church of God meeting, a mile from Clyde, closed several days ago, resulting in six conversions, four sanctifications and two Holy Ghost baptisms, according to a report to this scribe by one of the preachers. This church, "The Church of God," had its origin in the state of California fifteen years ago, since which time it has made rapid progress. They believe in regeneration or the new birth which makes one a new creature in Christ Jesus, and say that sanctification is a work of grace subsequent to regeneration which thoroughly cleanses the heart from inbred sin, or the Adam nature, and this fits one for the baptism of the Holy Ghost which is evidence by having power to handle snakes and fire, heal the sick and talk in other tongues. They practice immersion only and believe in "the jerks" the "Holy Dance" and washing feet. The writer heard their state overseer, Rev. Will Stallings, of Kannapolis, preached a good sermon on repentance and was present one night when they had a healing service which I will briefly describe. The preacher had preached about five minutes when a good woman had a serious heart trouble and left the room. Her children began crying and there was much excitement. A preacher woman said let's heal her and the leading preacher asked, "sister do you want to be healed?" She answered yes. Then the preacher quoted a verse in the book of James which says: "Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick." Then he poured some oil on her head and the five preachers laid their hands on her and began to pray, all of them at the same time in a very loud and rapid manner, part of the time praying in an unknown tongue. One of the preachers said in a very loud voice, demon depart from her! There was a let up in the prayer at the expiration of five minutes when the lady seemed to be slightly improved.

Prayer was continued a few minutes longer when the patient was almost normal and went back into the building and remained until the close of the service.

This denomination organized a Sunday School last Sunday afternoon, so now we have six Sunday Schools in Clyde township. What do the other correspondents think of the doctrines of "The Church of God?"
