WAKE FOREST GLEE CLUB.

Five Hundred People Enjoyed Entertainment Tuesday Night—More Than $231.00 As Receipts.

More than 500 people enjoyed the entertainment Tuesday evening at the High School auditorium given by the Wake Forest Glee Club and Orchestra. The receipts amounted to more than $231.00, 40 per cent of which goes to the local Baptist church.

This musical organization, under the direction of Dr. Robert Potat always proves a drawing card wherever it is known. This is the second visit here and a much larger crowd greeted the organization this time than at the former visit. Much credit is due Mr. C. A. Haynes for his good publicity work.

Waynesville is about the smallest town the Glee Club visits, but so well pleased were the manager and members it is certain they will return next year. Rev. L. B. White of the Haywood Institute, Clyde, was present with a dozen or so of his students. There were other parties from Canton, Maggie, White Oak and Hazelwood. In fact, it was the largest crowd we have seen at the auditorium except on commencement occasions.

There were 27 members of the organization and we were again reminded of the smallness of the rostrum at the school building. Several of the members were freely encored and the program was thus lengthened. The following programs was rendered:

Clouds Have Hovered All Day Long

By JESSE DANIEL BOONE

Clouds have hovered all day long,
And they've changed my weekly song
From my usual words of praise.
To some things which may amaze.
When the days are glad and bright
It is easy, then, to write
Lines of gladness, lines of joy,
On themes which do not much annoy.

But when rain is pouring down
With direst threats to spoil and drown
Things which block its path or way,
Through the night and then all day,
A fellow's bound to be affected
And he cannot be expected
To be bright and hopeful, too,
Until skies are clear and blue.

But the clouds and rain will pass,
Leaving longer, greener grass;
They will make all Nature smile
And will charmingly beguile
All who dare to criticize
Visits from a God, all-wise.
Let us welcome rainy days
With a spirit full of praise.

all primaries conducted under the law.

The Democrats of this county want all the candidates of both those who may be successful and those who may be defeated, to feel and know that the primary has been conducted fairly and impartially and according to law, which requires that only Democrats should participate therein for Democratic candidates.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Officials, Candidates and State Administration Endorsed.

We, the Democrats of Haywood county in convention assembled this April 15th, 1922, do hereby resolve:

1. That we heartily endorse the present Democratic State administration of North Carolina, and the record of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

2. That we deplore the circumstances which have inflicted upon the American people the present incompetent and partisan Republican National administration. We earnestly appeal to all patriotic Americans, without regard to political affiliations, to join us in electing a Democratic House of Representatives at the coming November election, and thus pave the way for the election of a Democratic president in 1924.

3. That being firmly persuaded that Democratic ascendancy is for the best interests of our State and country, we pledge ourselves to work to the extent of our ability for our party's success in the coming election.

4. That we endorse the actions of our fellow citizen, Hon. W. T. Lee, in the office of Corporation Commission and commend him to the Democratic voters of North Carolina for re-nomination in the coming primary.

5. That we endorse the candidacy of Hon. Grover C. Davis for the office of Solicitor of the 20th Judicial District.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Convention adjourned.

BURGIN-HAYNES MARRIAGE.

The following account of the marriage of Miss Beulah Haynes to Mr. William H. Burgin of Waynesville, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at Clyde will be of interest, due to the prominence of both families.

A most beautiful Easter wedding, unique because of its simplicity was solemnized at the old Haynes home-stand near Clyde on the Pigeon on Sunday afternoon, April 16th at 3:30 o'clock, and was witnessed by a large number of friends.

The house was artistically decorated with cut flowers, and crab apple blossoms, the color note being pink and white. In the spacious living room an arch had been erected, and a wedding bell suspended under which the couple stood while the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Herring, pastor of the Waynesville Baptist church. Miss Ruth Sentelle rendered the nuptial march, using Lohengrin's wedding music, also playing softly during the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a cape dress of blue tricotine, carrying a large bouquet of bride's roses. Immediately after the ceremony a delicious ice course was served by Mrs. Haynes. Early in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Burgin left by motor for a brief visit to Athens, Ga. and other points. After April 21st they will be at home in Waynesville.

Mrs. Burgin is the bright and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Haynes and a graduate of the Haywood Institute, class of 1921. Mr. Burgin is a young man of sterling qualities and a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burgin of Waynesville.

Hearing Hilliard say he wished to go in business for himself he decided to play the "Good Samaritan" and gave him $5,000 to start business with. With part of the money he purchased a seven-passenger Studbaker car which is in service here now. He is in the livery business with his father, W. L. Matney.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING.

Much interest centered around the last meeting of the Community Club held on Monday afternoon, April 10, as it was the initial meeting of the club in the new rooms. Through the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. Way the Community Club has been tendered the use, free of charge, of the upper floor of their large brick stable, which is now used as a garage.

As this offer was made the club just two weeks ago it was possible, only through untiring efforts for the rooms to be ready at this early date. Under the capable management of Mrs. Lowry Lee, chairman, with Mrs. H. B. Atkins, Mrs. Jack Way and Miss Alice Quinlan as members of the committee, the spacious floor has been turned into most attractive quarters, consisting of a large assembly room, kitchen and dressing room. The overhead has been ceiled with beaverboard, having the dark oak rafters exposed, the effect of which, in combination with the rough finish of the walls is most artistic. Bright colored chintz draperies, harmonizing with the rugs adorn the windows, soft colored parchment shades being used on the lights. The club has also recently purchased a piano.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles E. Quinlan. The largest attendance in the history of the club was recorded.

Mrs. W. T. Crawford had the paper of the afternoon, "The Negro of our Community." In a most interesting and sympathetic manner she handled the subject.

Mrs. E. L. Martin led the discussion in current events. The various officers and committee chairmen gave short reports.

It was unanimously voted by the club to offer the use of the rooms to recently organized Recreation Committee in the development of our community life.

A rising vote of thanks was given the following: Dr. and Mrs. Way for their generosity, Mrs. Lee and her committee for their work, Mr. Liner, Mr. Henry Gaddy and Mr. Underwood for the interest and speed they showed in having the rooms finished on the date set.

Mrs. J. Howell Way was elected a delegate to the annual convention of the State Federation, which convenes in Greensboro the first of May. The club will also be represented by two other members, Mrs. Quinlan, President, also chairman of one of the State committees on Institutional and Industrial Affairs, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Recording Secretary of the State Federation.

Mrs. Brooks, pianist, rendered several much enjoyed selections. Plans for the house warming on Monday night were discussed.

Four new members were taken in. Miss Jessie Rogers and Mrs. Jack Way were hostesses of the afternoon, serving chocolate and sandwiches.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC CLUB.

The High School Music Club met Wednesday afternoon, April 19, 1922 in the High School auditorium. After the roll call and the minutes the following program was rendered:

As this is the last meeting of the year the club adjourned to meet next September.

Press Reporter.
