HAYWOOD COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION.

On the 10th of September the following choirs met at Maggie for the purpose of having an all day singing: Upper Fines Creek, Richland Chapel, Dellwood, Hazelwood, Maggie No. 1 and No. 2. We had with us a choir from Hendersonville led by Mr. Hipps. Also a quartet from Mills River. There was a large crowd present and plenty of good things to eat and the best singing that I ever heard.

The next singing convention will be held the second Sunday in December at the court house. We hope that more choirs will come and help in this great work.

We extend a hearty invitation to the visiting choirs. Singers, do you realize that when you sing sweet songs to the praise of God that you are doing the greatest work that you can do in this world to advance God's kingdom? If we are fortunate enough to get to heaven we will all sing songs of rejoicing together there.

W. J. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

TRAVELING NOT WORSE THAN BEFORE STRIKE.

Miami (Fla.) Paper.

Robert Louise Zoll traveling from Waynesville, N. C., to Miami, finds traveling is just as pleasant and speedy as though there had been no strike, he said on arriving here this morning after a vacation of 10 weeks spent in the mountain resort with Mrs. Zoll, who has now gone to Detroit to visit her mother. She will return later in the fall.

Mr. Zoll declares that Waynesville is one of the most attractive summer resorts imaginable, and he found around there many pretty scenes which he reproduced on canvas, thereby in no small sense "bringing his vacation home with him."

When You Come Into The Court Room

By JESSE DANIEL BOONE

When you come into the court room
As a witness for The State,
Or to testify for others,
In the tale you there relate,
You had better use due caution,
You should tell just what you know,
Or you may face Old Man trouble
In the court rooms here below.

Then in that great hereafter
When your body's cold and dead,
When you face that last tribunal
And your record has been read,
The things you swore in courts down here
Will bear upon your fate;
You'll either burn forevermore,
Or pass the Golden Gate.

A witness who is true and fair
Must tell the truth in whole;
He shouldn't halt nor hesitate
And jeopardize his soul.
He may desire to help his friend,
Who may have aided him,
But that is neither here nor there,
He has a duty, grim.

Be true to all, be true to self,
When you would testify;
Then conscience won't upbraid you
For the big or little lie;
For truth, they say, is mighty,
And must at last prevail;
So you had better love it
And put it in your tale.

GRAND JURY RECOMMEND NEW HOSPITAL AND JAIL.

We, the Grand Jurors, for the September Term, 1922, respectfully report to his Honor, Judge Thos. J. Shaw, that we have examined all bills that came before us, as directed by his Honor, and passed on same, and submit the following reports:

We, the full body of Grand Jurors, visited the jail on September 26th, 1922, and we recommend a new modern jail.

We find jail inadequate for present needs and unsafe to keep prisoners. We also find that jail is not as well kept as it should be, and recommend the following repairs to be made immediately: Sewerage system to be overhauled, new plumbing to be done in order to enable keeper of jail to keep sanitary conditions more complete. We further recommend that portions of bed clothing be burned and replaced with new. We find a woman prisoner insane, in a very deplorable condition, and we recommend that she have better attention.

Hospital.

We find the following conditions at hospital:

Being a committee appointed for inspecting hospital commend the work now being done at same. We find it well kept and in sanitary condition.

We recommend a new and modern hospital. We find following items needed, and recommend that they be furnished at once: Better heating facilities, waste hopper for 2 bath rooms, bath room for nurses home, linen, blankets, dishes and silverware, sterilizer for operating room, 25 window shades, 25 window curtains, beds, chairs, bedside tables, general operating room supplies, general kitchen supplies, furnace remodeled, general ward supplies, and improve cottage for colored patients. We also need fire escapes for each building.

Court House.

We, the Court House committee, visited the court house and find the building in good repair and the offices well kept. Guardians for minor heirs and wards have reported regularly and most of settlements completed. The sanitary condition of court house is good.

County Home.

We, the County Home committee find 25 inmates, all apparently well cared for and well satisfied. We also find 8 cows, 4 calves, 13 hogs, 600 bushels of corn, 2 males, 273 bushels of wheat, 100 bushels of oats, 100 bushels Irish potatoes, about 500 cans of fruit and 15 bushels of beans.

School Houses.

We, the School House committee, first visited Rock Hill school and found the following conditions: 5 stoves in a worn and bad condition. We recommend new stoves for each room, 1 black board needed in 1st and 2nd grade rooms, shades needed for each of 22 windows. There is needed a toilet for the girls as they have none.

We then visited Bethel school. The house needs more ventilation, stoves need repairing in 2 rooms. The boys' toilet is in extra bad condition. Also the girls' toilet in bad condition. We are advised that lumber is on the yard for new building.

We then visited Canton school. We found this school in first class condition. Good ventilation, clean and neat rooms, toilets in splendid condition. We find no complaint against same.

We then visited Clyde school. We find the following conditions at this school. The need of 20 window shades, toilet over river in bad condition, platform leading to same needs repairing. Also railing needed to prevent children from falling in river.

We then visited Waynesville school. We find new school in No. 1 condition. Class rooms, and fire escapes, all O. K. Old building in all respects fine, except no fire escapes. Children have plenty of room at desks, and not crowded.

We consider all the schools in fairly good condition.

A FRIEND'S TRIBUTE TO W. E. MILLER.

My acquaintance with Everett Miller has been familiar and pleasant for more than fifty years. I never knew him to speak a word or do an act which detracted the least from his high character as a law abiding, community loving Christian gentleman. In his young manhood he was a true Confederate soldier, enduring the hardships and facing the dangers of military life courageously and uncomplainingly. At the age of twenty-four, he was happily married to Miss Sarah Herren, daughter of E. B. Herren, who now survives him. She and their children have not only the loving sympathy of the writer, but of the community. As husband, father and citizen his life was such that he was loved and respected to the outer circle of his acquaintance. It is true character which counts after all. His was a quiet but effective influence for good. Those who knew him best loved him most.

He left to his children and children's children the priceless heritage of a good name, more valuable than than loud titles and stock and bonds. The community feels their loss by his death and deeply and tenderly sympathize with his family who feel their loss most.

MRS. R. L. ALLEN ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. Rufus L. Allen entertained at a pretty appointed linen shower and bridge for Miss Mary Shoobred whose marriage takes place Sept. 28 to Mr. Walter Lee Taylor, Jr. of Baltimore, Md. The beautiful colonial home was banked with countless dahlias of deep rich tones. The bride's chair with ribbon and white roses made a pretty background for the lovely bride-to-be. Later in the evening many callers came with their attractive gifts. Miss Josephine Macoon Thomas played the wedding march while Miss Myrtle Massie and Miss Agnes Thomas carried the artistic draped basket with gifts to the bride. About forty guests were present.

D. A. R. MEETING.

The Daughters of the American Revolution held the initial meeting of the fall with Mrs. Will Hyatt and Mrs. Ralph Morgan, as hostesses, at the home of the latter. The house was lovely with its decorations of fall flowers.

The meeting was opened with the reading of the Ritual, after which the officers gave brief reports.

The Regent invited the chapter to adjourn to her home after the meeting to see the memorial tablet, which is to be dedicated in the near future.

The chapter regretted the absence of Mrs. Annie Shoobred Wood, who as a member was to be presented to the chapter.

A lengthy discussion of the plans for the unveiling of the tablet and the district meeting was held. Mrs. Way, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Sloan, were appointed as a committee to obtain a suitable boulder.

An article relative to the home of Washington's sister was read by Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn.

The chapter was delighted to have present one of its former regents and also a charter member, Mrs. Baker, who expressed her pleasure in attending the meeting and her interest in the chapter.

After the business of the afternoon the hostesses served delicious refreshments. Among the guests were Mrs. Sigmond of Salisbury, formerly Miss Marie Hardin, Mrs. Lewis of Albemarle and Mrs. Baker of Salisbury.
