CHICKENS.

The world is the same all through in physical, moral, spiritual. Some people are selfish some unsocial, some sacrificing. But what has this to do with chickens? Well the thought passed through our mind the other day when we saw some-bodies chickens scratching up the newly planted seed in another bodies flower bed that there was some thing wrong, either some one was wrong in raising chickens and turning them loose, or else some other body was wrong in having a flower bed where chickens could get at them— whoever was in the wrong, no good resulted because the owner of the flower bed— well he or she did not swear but they felt it. Another jaunt down the street and somebodies chickens were in a neighbors garden eating newly sprouted tops, and the result was more swear words or something similar. Somebody who raised chickens should have looked after them instead of turning them loose to wreak havoc with flower beds and vegetable gardens. You may pass to another kingdom, spiritual and moral, and there are many persons who turn loose that which is not right to wreak havoc with reputations, character, lives. Have people a right to do this physically, morally, spiritually. We surmise the best way to do is, if you want to raise chickens fence them in, keep them in your own yard. If you have something that will do others wrong keep it to yourself and don't let it do harm to others. Keep your chickens at home.

MADISON COUNTY BOARD OF TRADE.

We should have a local officer for the pushing of our county. We have no place where we can get any information and there is no Board that will take charge of the town improvement amongst the people outside. We subscribed $600.00 to the Greater Western North Carolina fund and we want to get our share of it. Why not organize a Board of Trade and see if we cannot do something. We had one organized but when the hotel project fell through with it, it ceased to exist except in name. Hon. Guy V. Roberts last week attended the Board meeting at Asheville and came back thoroughly imbued with the idea that we ought to do something, but who is to do it, who has the authority? If we had a Board of Trade we could authoritatively answer the many communications that come. The editor was secretary of the old Board and many letters have come asking about our town and the opportunities here for work and places to have manufactures, about the possibilities of the place. Let's get busy.

Roosevelt gets Illinois 56 delegates by 3 to 1 vote. The congressional district of W. B. McKinley, Taft's manager, goes for Roosevelt 2 to 1; also McKinley's own ward overwhelmingly for Roosevelt. Maine's 12 instructed for Roosevelt. New York convention refused to instruct for Taft. This all in two days, with more to follow. Who said Band Wagon?

GEO. M. PRITCHARD.

Mrs. J. L. Starnes, Hickory, N. C., has in the past suffered severely with throat and lung trouble, and says, "I used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for this and it gave me immediate relief and satisfaction. It gives me pleasure to recommend this preparation for sore throat, whooping cough, or any affliction of the throat or lungs. I know it will do all claimed for it." J. L. Starnes, Hickory, N. C.

"RECIPROCITY."

PAID CONTRIBUTION.

Many of the ablest leaders of the Republican party have favored reciprocal trade relations with our neighboring South American countries, and with Canada on the north. Roosevelt did, but don't let Mr. Taft's lieutenant deceive you into believing that he favored the Democratic free trade brand advocated by Mr. Taft, and put through by his democratic friends in congress. Mr. Roosevelt, like other leaders before him, only favored removing the tariff from those things which would not affect, or come in competition with American industries. No one could object to that. Neither Mr. Roosevelt, nor any other Republican leader, except Mr. Taft, ever favored free products, such as would destroy our farmers. Mr. Roosevelt has always been a friend of the farmer and even advocated a commission for making farm life easier and more attractive. On Monday last, in Illinois, he said in a speech that he was opposed to Taft's Canadian Reciprocity policy. No, you can't charge Roosevelt up with being a free trader. He is a protectionist. He is a loyal Republican.

The Danger After Grip lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Redmon & Roberts Co.

FLOODS.

The great floods on the Ohio, Missouri and other tributaries of the Mississippi have caused great floods that have broken through the levees and have wrought untold damage to lands bordering on that great river. From time to time these great devastations occur and the government is forced to give aid in order to stop the waters. Oftentimes we become pennypurse and pound foolish in our endeavor to save the money of the nation and when the time comes we pay out more money to save the damage after the damage is done, locking the barn after the horse is stolen.

We hear of hundreds of thousands of dollars of damage done when thousands would have saved all this. It behooves our legislators to think over these matters a little once in a while. In time of peace prepare for war.

"THE WINNING SIDE."

PAID CONTRIBUTION.

"Now is the time to get on the winning side," remarks a Taft admirer in The News-Record. No one can tell which is the winning side till after the Chicago convention is held. Besides if seriously extended, such an invitation is an insult to every republican in the county, not even surpassed by those Mr. Taft fathered. Could a man honestly and decently bury his self respect and convictions merely to be on the winning side? The gentleman has misjudged the people of his adopted county. They are not characterless, bandwagon-riding, "winning side" jumpers, as he assumes them to be. They are honest folks, and resent insulting proposals. We trust he has higher ideals in life than merely to be on the "winning side." Such a standard of ethics does not appeal to well-intentioned men.

STREET SPRINKLING.

With a very little sun our streets become dusty. How would it do to use our street sprinkler some this summer and besides allowing the dust cool them off a little. Some one suggested this to the editor and he passes it along. May the seed take root and give us dustless, cool streets during the hot months.

Mr. Murray Writes.

Dear Editor:—Some time since I've took much stock in politics, but in reading the newspapers I become some interested in the Roosevelt-Taft squabble for the nomination for the presidency at the ensuing convention at Chicago.

For some years I was forced to the conclusion that Roosevelt was a great man, and believing him to be one of the best politicians in the entire country, and being endorsed by such men as Judge Pritchard, Col. Lusk and the Hon. Richmond Pearson caused all our people to concede Mr. Roosevelt's nomination.

In addition to above endorsement, Marshall and Mars Hill organized strong Roosevelt Clubs consisting of 10 or 15 members each, and in addition to all the endorsements and the clubs, such men as Jack Runkinn, Patterson Reece, Lycus Sprinkle, Wilt Edge and various others came out squarely for Mr. Roosevelt, after this I had no doubts until after Louisiana, New York and Ohio kicked our man out of the ring. Now Mr. Editor this is too much for our people to take, it shows that they have no regard for the feeling of our people that's stood so loyally for what they believe to be right, and I am frank to say, if something is not done to appease the feeling of our people and restore unto them the right to dictate, at least in part, as to who shall be the man. I assure you Mr. Editor that the day is coming that Madison will learn New York, Indiana and other Northern states how it is to ignore such men as above mentioned.

Sincerely yours,
THOS. J. MURRAY.

NOTICE.

North Carolina, Madison County. In the Superior Court, May term 1912. William Norton Vs. Malissa Norton. The defendant above named will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Madison County for the purpose of obtaining a decree in said court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant; and the said defendant will further take notice that she is required to appear at the term of the Superior Court of said county to be held on the 11th Monday after the 1st Monday in March, 1912, at the court house of said county in Marshall, N. C., and answer or demur to the complaint in said action or the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

W. H. HENDERSON,
Clerk Superior Court.

We have on our desk a letter from J. J. Rice, who is agent for the L. and N. Railroad at Brace, Tenn. He asks that the News-Record continue to come. He says, "it makes interesting reading for a 'native' off from home, and judging by the number of questions it causes me to be asked about Marshall and Western North Carolina, it makes itself popular with strangers as well, almost forcing them to believe that that section is a sort of fairy land and I am almost come to that conclusion myself." We are thankful to our friend for his words and we promise that the paper shall go on to him. Now if a little boosting like that can do such work for Marshall what would not a bureau whose object is to advertise not do.

W. T. Gilley, a prominent dealer in Pennington Gap, Va., was so bothered with kidney and bladder trouble that he could not attend to business. He says, "I had severe pains in my back and kidneys and had to get up ten to fifteen times each night. Saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and bought two bottles, and soon felt great relief, and was entirely cured. No longer disturbed at night, but sleep till morning." L. E. Burnett, Mars Hill, N. C.

Marshall Vs. Winn School.

Marshall's first game of base ball is to be pulled off on next Wednesday, April 17. The Winn School will be well represented, about 250 students accompanying the visiting team to the grounds. Why cannot our people support the Marshall team this way. Come out, we will promise you a good game. We are practicing and getting ready to meet our opponents on our diamond and will be in good trim. Come out and bring your lady friend.

"THE BAND WAGON."

PAID CONTRIBUTION.

A Taft enthusiast in the last issue of The News-Record advises Madison county to get aboard the Band Wagon. What Band Wagon? The only North Carolina Band Wagon we know of is being driven by Roosevelt's friends. Every county in the state which has expressed a choice, so far, has been overwhelmingly for Roosevelt. Sampson, Catawba, Pasquotank, Davidson, Stokes, Gaston, Mitchell, Avery and Guilford have all instructed for him. The last named county has the city of Greensboro for its county seat, and is one of the most thickly populated in North Carolina. It is the home of Taft's strongest supporter, Mr. Moorehead. Where is Taft's band wagon? It has never been seen or heard to rattle in North Carolina, the state especially singled out and insulted by Mr. Taft. North Carolina is now showing her metal and, to the satisfaction of all, resenting the President's insults.

GEO. M. PRITCHARD.

Almost A Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. E. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and colds with excellent result." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Redmon & Roberts Co.

Call for Convention.

In compliance with the Democratic plan of organization and in conformity to the State Democratic Executive Committee, I as chairman of the Madison County Executive Committee, do hereby call a county convention for all Madison County Democrats to meet in the Court House at Marshall on May 25th, 1912, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State, Congressional, judicial and Senatorial Conventions and to transact such other business as may come before it. The Democrats of the various townships of the county are requested to assemble at their respective voting places on Saturday, May 18th 1912, in township convention and elect a chairman and appoint delegates to the county convention. The township chairmen thus elected will constitute the County Democratic Executive Committee for the ensuing two years, and will meet in Marshall on same day as County Convention and elect a county chairman. Pass the word to every Democrat that they may attend and take a part.

Respectfully,
T. N. JAMES,
Chairman Co. Dem. Ex. Com.

LOOK HERE!

Young men, do you know that Judge Massie who was killed a few days ago in Virginia carried an Insurance Policy for $16,000 on his life. Just a few days before he was killed he had taken out a policy for $4,000. Don't this fact prove to all young men that they should take out a life insurance to provide for their family should anything happen to you. Call on me and insure your life. I represent the best Company in the United States.

DON'T GET EXCITED

If you see a person going down the street in a big hurry. They are probably rushing to the bank to deposit.

So many of late have lost their last cent by buying grain, provisions and stocks on a margin, or by loaning to "friends" without security, that those who have a few dollars left are in a hurry to get it in a safe bank that has never lost a dollar of its depositors' money.
