SUNDAY CLOSING

One of the best laws ever adopted by our city fathers is the one now on our books in regard to the closing of all houses of business on the Sabbath day.

The open stores with warm fires became the loafing places of the men and boys and the preachers who came to have their services at the then one church building usually preached to empty pews and all efforts to arrange Sabbath school did not have a large one, because of co-operation and attendance.

The first violation, perhaps, was to sell a few bananas, apples or soda water, but when the ones whose duty it was to enforce the law, winked at this, they grew bolder and other stores rather than suffer a disadvantage began to open also thus violating the law and now it is said you can buy almost anything here on Sunday from a cigar to a suit of cloths.

Let's either enforce our law or repeal it. We are proud of our great country, more especially are we proud of her people, the broad reputation they have for truthfulness and honesty.

DISASTER.

As many of our readers have noticed, the greatest ship of the world, the Titanic, went down after she had struck an iceberg.

But with all that, ocean traveling is one of the safest of the world, once in a while some great disaster happens but when we think that there are thousands of steamers and that only once in a while something like this happens, it is not so dangerous.

Our railroads kill thousands every year and maim many more, the automobile kills more every year, and still we don't notice these so much.

Write Draughon's Business College, Charlotte, N. C., or Knoxville, Tenn., for particulars.

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER"

"Under no circumstances will I be a candidate for, or accept another nomination.—Theodore Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1908.

"A Parting Shot." For this reason I shall desist from any further newspaper discussion.—Geo. M. Pritchard, March 12, 1912.

I will accept the nomination for president if it is tendered to me.—Theodore Roosevelt, Feb. 24, 1912.

FOUR articles in The News-Record of April 12, 1912, and no doubt more to follow.—Geo. M. Pritchard, April 12, 1912.

It is indeed an evil influence that the "lion tamer" has upon his followers.

Pay Your Poll Tax

We are proud of our great country, more especially are we proud of her people, the broad reputation they have for truthfulness and honesty. There is only one thing lacking and that is for each man to pay their poll tax in order that he may vote for the man of his choice.

On account of Charlotte's being the largest city in the State of North Carolina, and in the heart of the manufacturing interests of the Carolinas—making it easy to get positions for students—the Draughon College at Raleigh has been consolidated with Draughon's Business College at Charlotte.

The Danger After Grip lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease.

COMMENCEMENT.

The time for the annual close of school is at hand and now the children are beginning to think of rest and play. The young men and women who have been away at college will soon be back and books will be laid away until the fall.

Almost A Miracle. One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. E. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds."

Attention, Republicans

To the Voters of Madison county: Don't forget the fact that unless your poll tax is paid on or before May 1st, you will be disfranchised and cannot vote in the coming election.

All Republicans are urged to pay their poll tax at once. G. L. MCKINNEY, Sec. Repub. Ex. Com.

LOOK HERE!

Young men, do you know that Judge Massie who was killed a few days ago in Virginia carried an Insurance Policy for $16,000 on his life. Just a few days before he was killed he had taken out a policy for $4,000. Don't this fact prove to all young men that they should take out a life insurance to provide for their family should anything happen to you.
