SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN IS HELD UP

NORTHBOUND SHASTA LIMITED HELD UP AT DELTA-MAIL CAR ROBBED.

BRAKEMAN SHOOTS ROBBER

One Bandit Is Killed While Companion Makes Escape With Registered Mail, Sacks.

Redding, Cal.—The northbound Shasta limited the Southern Pacific coast train de luxe, was held up and robed and one bandit was killed at Delta, 30 miles north of here. A companion of the dead bandit escaped with the registered mail. None of the passengers was injured. plucky brakeman nearly frustrated the robbers, and accounted for the one killed.

The train stopped at Delta for wa ter and two bandits came aboard. One climbed over the tender and covered the fireman and engineer with a revolver. The other entered the mail car and held up the mail clerks.

A brakeman, who had dropped off the train on the side away from the station, saw the extra man in the tender and guessed the situation. He ran to the nearest store, quickly got a rifile and returning shot the robber who was in the tender.

The other bandit leaped at the sound of the shot and ran for the nearby hills, carrying the registered mail sacks. He has a good chance of escaping into the neighboring hills.

WILSON IS HAPPY AFTER ELECTION

"BILL" MCDONALD BROKE STICK WHILE KILLING HUGE RATTLER

GOVERNOR TAKES A WALK Governor Wilson Spied the Snake and Captain McDonald Attacked.

Wilson Going to Bermuda. Princeton, N. J.-President-elect Woodrow Wilson turned away an av alanche of telegrams and messages of congratulation the day after the election and went off for a brisk walk. For five miles he walked, swinging a heavy black cane, which came to grief on the fourth mile, when Capt. "Bill" McDonald, Texas ranger and bodyguard, tried to kill a rattlesnake.

The governor spied the snake curl ing through the leaves and pointed it out to the captain, who borrowed the governor's cane nad killed it, but in doing so broke the cane.

The governor's walk exhilarated him, he said. The strain of the campaign and the excitement of election day had kept him pretty much in doors of late. It was with a long stride and vigorous swing that he set out from his home and out through the university campus to the wooded stretches of country to the south of Princeton. As he passed through the campus, students come the moving picture magnate of doffed their caps as they did of old the Pacific coast is alleged to have for him and do yet to members of led Wallace J. Mexico City,-Gen. Geronimo Tre quest from the army is suggested as provisional President of Mexico, in a new revolutionary manifesto which has just reached the capital. The document is signed by Gaudenciro de La Llave, colonel of regulars, who lately joined the insurrection, Benjamin Rodriguez and F. R. Pradillo, the latter with Orozco's army until he incurred Oronozco's displeasure by taking Emilio Vasquez Gomez from San Antonio at Juarez.

The manifesto is dated Puebla, the day after the capture of Gen. Felix Diaz. The newspapers of Mexico City have refrained from mentioning the manifesto and it is not believed Gen-General Trevino is interested.

Another revolutionary document obtained by the police from Zapatista prisoners was made public. It appears to reveal the inteitno of the Zapata brothers and the leading insurrectory chiefs, whose names are signed, to imitate the French revolution. Twenty-three cases had occurred among the troops along the Tchatalja lines up to last report. There are many more suspected cases among the wounded. The disease is getting a firmer hold on account of the massing of troops, the lack of proper food and the complete absence of sanitary arrangements.
