

HUSBAND TIRED OF SEEING HER SUFFER

Procured Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which made His Wife a Well Woman.

Middletown, Pa.—"I had headache, backache and such awful bearing down pains that I could not be on my feet at times and I had organic inflammation so badly that I was not able to do my work. I could not get a good meal for my husband and one child. My neighbors said they thought my suffering was terrible. My husband got tired of seeing me suffer and one night went to the drug store and got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me I must take it. I can't tell you all I suffered and I can't tell you all that your medicine has done for me. I was greatly benefited from the first and it has made me a well woman. I can do all my housework and even helped some of my friends as well. I think it is a wonderful help to all suffering women. I have got several to take it after seeing what it has done for me."—Mrs. Emma Eschenbader, 219 East Main St., Middletown, Pa.

The Pinkham record is a proud and honorable one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of woman—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine? If you want special advice, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Ready Cooked Meals

are rapidly growing in popularity.

Post Toasties

served either with cream or good milk, or preserved fruit, make a most appetizing dish for breakfast, dinner, or supper.

These delicious toasted flaky bits of white corn have a delicate taste that is very pleasing at this time of year.

Post Toasties are economical, make less work for the busy housewife and please everyone at the table.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

It is a good thing to be rich, but it is a better thing to be beloved of many friends.

WHAT SHALL WE HAVE FOR DINNER?

To the methodical, systematic housewife, who plans her meals often a week in advance, there is a vast field for individuality and ingenuity in the planning of a meal; but the thriftee, indolent woman, who spends her time in needless ways and a few moments before the meal time tears into the house or the kitchen to prepare or see to the preparation of the food, there is a limited field, as preparation and thought are both necessary to have a well balanced meal, together with variety and economy.

Steaks and chops are often the poor man's food, because the wife does not take time to prepare in the thousand approving ways the coarser, cheaper cuts of meat.

Long, slow cooking develops the flavor, and that long cooking must be planned for, often, the day before.

It should be the pride of every housekeeper to work toward getting as much as possible out of the time, money and energy spent.

Beef Rolls—Cut thin, round steak into oblong pieces, and on each piece place a spoonful of sausage meat; roll up and tie with a string. Dredge with flour, pepper and salt, brown in pork fat and put into a casserole. To the fat add a tablespoonful of flour; stir until brown, add a pint of water and cook until smooth. Season and pour over the rolls, cover and simmer in the oven for two hours. Take off the strings before serving.

Parsnip Fritters—A very nice fritter, and one that is easy to prepare, may be made from cold cooked parsnips. Season and moist the parsnips and dip in a thin fritter batter, drop in hot fat and fry; drain on paper and serve hot. Many people who refuse the vegetable fry will enjoy it this way.

THE PLEBEIAN CABBAGE. Cabbage, with onions, have gained an unenviable reputation because of their odoriferousness, but cabbage is a wholesome vegetable, and one which contains mineral salts which are needed in the blood.

One reason that we tire of certain vegetables is that they are served in so few ways; we grow to dislike them. If a change of serving could be often made, and a little more care to have a variety, these common vegetables would be more welcome on our tables.

Cabbage cooked with an onion, chopped and served in a white sauce is an unusual, but very good, way of serving that vegetable.

Stuffed Cabbage—Cut out the stalk end of a firm head of cabbage, leaving the hollow shell. Tie the cabbage in a thin cloth and boil until tender, then carefully remove the cloth and fill with seasoned stuffing of chopped meat, bread crumbs and seasoning; then bake in a hot oven until the cabbage is brown.

Hot Slaw—Shred a head of cabbage, and pour over the following dressing: Beat two egg yolks, add two tablespoonfuls of water, a tablespoonful of butter melted, a dash of salt and a quarter of a cup of dash of oil. Cook this dressing over hot water and pour over the shredded cabbage while hot. Heat the cabbage and serve hot.

Game Too Small. A well dressed man called at the office of a celebrated New York criminal lawyer the other day.

"I want you to take my case," he began, when shown into the private office, and charged with burglary, but I assure you I am as innocent as an unborn babe.

"You are, eh? Well, we don't want your case," replied the great lawyer. "We defend only notorious criminals. You had better go to some young lawyer."

Spinster's Jest. Confidential friend (to elderly spinster)—So, my dear, you've given up advocating woman's rights?
Elderly Spinster—Yes, I'm now going in for one of woman's lifts.

Jesus at Bethany

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D. D., Dean of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

TEXT—"There they made Him a supper."—John XII. 2

It is the last week of Jesus' early life, and he is spending the days in Jerusalem and the nights in Bethany—the home of Lazarus and his sisters, Martha and Mary.

"There they made Him a supper." An exquisite touch of Christ's humanity! Is not this what we would have done to such a friend? But think of the human kindness and simplicity of the Redeemer here displayed!

It recalls the marriage in Cana at which he was a guest. That was at the beginning of his ministry and this at its close. How better could he have demonstrated that he came into the world not to disturb its social arrangements or mar its domestic joys, but to elevate them to a higher plane?

Blessed be God, we may have Jesus at our feasts and festivals as well as at other times, and what heart, loving Jesus, would attend a feast or festival where he could not be a guest?

But there is a practical question here of another kind. When we remember that Jesus knew he was to die within a week, and endure beforehand unprecedented contumely, and desertion by his dearest friends, and then look upon him at this friendly board, receiving happiness from others, and dispensing happiness to them, must we not regard it as a sublime example of that confidence in God which knoweth that he doeth all things well?

During the winter months puddings that are rich and hearty may be served with greater frequency than in the warm weather.

Golden Pudding—Add to a half cup of molasses a half cup of butter, a half cup of sour milk and one and a half cups of flour, one egg well beaten, a pinch of salt and one-half teaspoonful of soda; mix, and beat well and steam two hours.

Serve with this the following sauce: One egg, half a cup of butter, one cup of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of flour and a pint of boiling water. Flavor with either lemon or vanilla.

An egg sauce would be good with the above pudding. Beat two eggs well, add a cup of milk, a fourth of a cup of sugar, and flavor to taste.

Baked Indian Pudding—Scald a quart of milk; stir in three-fourths of a cup of corn meal. Cook well; add a third of a cup of molasses, a pinch of salt. Beat two eggs, add a cup of cold milk to them, and pour into the pudding. Add a few raisins, stir occasionally the first half hour. Bake two hours.

Fruit Dumplings—To a quart of flour add two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a tablespoonful of sugar and half a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of butter, two eggs and enough milk to make a mixture to roll. Roll out and cut in squares, place a pear or apple or peach in each square, bring the corners together; on top of each place a bit of butter and a dash of cinnamon with a sprinkling of sugar. Pour into the pan a cup of hot water. Bake until well browned and serve with cream and sugar.

Pour a rich powder biscuit batter over peaches in a deep dish and bake. Turn so that the peaches are on top. Heap with sweetened whipped cream and serve.

Poor Economy. Charles M. Schwab, apropos of his superb work in aid of released convicts, said modestly in New York: "O, it is economy to help these men. Help them a little, and their lives, instead of being wasted, are of value to the nation."

"To be niggardly and timid about helping such men is to be like the chap who was asked, the first of the year, to buy a calendar.

"This chap, after studying the calendar thoughtfully, handed it back with a frown.

"No, no," he said, "I can't afford it. I may be dead before the year is out."

MRS. BENNETT SAYS "PUBLISH"

Thinks Her Letter Made Public, Might Result in Some Good. All Ladies Should Read.

Henderson, Tex.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. T. V. Bennett says: "Last November I was taken very sick, and had two doctors. They doctored me for most everything that could be thought of, and at last they told me it would be necessary to have an operation. I couldn't give in to this, although I was suffering great pain.

Finally, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I hadn't used it but a short time before I was up, feeling good, and able to do my work. I am still getting along fine, and can recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, to all suffering women. I shall always praise this great medicine.

If you think my experience would be of any benefit to any suffering woman, you are at liberty to publish it. Cardui, the woman's tonic, is strictly a woman's medicine, made up of pure, harmless, vegetable ingredients which act directly on the womanly constitution.

It stimulates the weakened organs, and helps build them up to health and strength. We receive numerous letters, every day, similar to the one above. If it has benefited so many thousands of other women, why shouldn't it do the same for you? Give Cardui a trial.

PEANUTS combine the advantages of soil renovator, forage and cash crop. It pays to fertilize them correctly. The light, sandy soils which are best suited for peanut culture are naturally deficient in available POTASH.

and often require lime as well as phosphate. The crop takes from the soil two and one-half times as much Potash as phosphoric acid. The best growers who use raw materials to fertilize the crop use them in about this proportion. It is plain that any mixed fertilizer for peanuts should contain more Potash than phosphoric acid. The use of 100 lbs. Muricite of Potash or 40 lbs. Kainit, per acre, or 50 lbs. of fertilizer with 10 per cent. Potash, would furnish two-thirds as much Potash as a 100-bushel crop removes. You can afford to feed this crop well—also to feed it right. If your dealer does not carry this kind of goods, write us for prices of Potash salts in any quantity from 200 lbs. up, and for our free book on fertilizer formulas.
