WATER AND LIGHT

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE CAROLINAS AND GEORGIA

AT CHARLOTE. THE OBJECT OF THE MEETING

A Very Attractive Program Has Been Arranged For This Occasion,-Several Cities in the State Will Bid For the Next Meeting.

Charlotte.-Water works and light officials, members of water boards and lighting plants, civil, mechanical and hydraulic engineers and experts, chemists, mayors and city councilmen will gather at Charlotte April 15, the occasion being the annual convention of the Tri-State Water and Light Association of the Carolinas and Georgie. The session will be held at Hannah Hall, Y. M. C. A., and a full attendance of the members is expected. An attractive program has been arranged which will prove interesting and instructive to the membership. Among the prominent speakers secured for the meetings are: J. L. Ludlow, Winston-Salem; L. M. Laxton, Charlotte; M. F. Corin, Philadelphia; G. H. White, Columbia: J. H. Finney, Washington, and A. M. Schoen, Atlanta,

The object of the association is the advancement of knowledge of public water and light supply, furnished either by public or private ownership and the management of water works and light departments; the exchange of information pertaining to the management of water works and water supply, for the mutual advancement of the interests of consumers and suppliers, and for the purpose of securing sconomy and uniformity in operation; the establishment and maintenance of a spirit of fraternity among its mem bers by special intercourse and friend ly exchange of information.

Several cities will compete for the next annual meeting.

Rate Conference Apiri 18. The next conference between the State Freight Rate Commission and representatives of the railroads will be held in Raleigh, April 18th, accord ing to announcement made by E. J. Justice chairman of the commission. "at which time the commission will have data in hand sufficient to indicate to the railroads just what it con siders to be fair," said Mr. Justice. He stated also that the commission believed that the data which experts have secured will be sufficint to support any requests for rate adjustments which the commission may ask. Mr

Justice is hopeful that the adjustment may be reached at the confer ence set for th 18th.

Constitutionalists Will Repudiate Any

The Gazette.

Loan Made With Huerta.

New Orleans, La.-The Constitutionalist party of Mexico will repudiate any loan contract made with the Huerta government in Mexico, according to a statement issued through funta of the party. The statement was given to the press on the direct authority of Gov. Venustiano Carranza of Coahuila, military leader of the forces which are now working to overthrow Huerta,

"In view of his base treachery and the brutal assassination of President Madero and Vice President Pino Sua rez," reads the statement, "Victoriano Huerta has no more constitutional right to the presidency of Mexico than would have had the notorious assassin John Wilkes Booth to the presdency of the United States after the murder of President Abraham Lin-

Huerta and his cohorts are usurpers, without the slightest basis of government. The Constitutionalist party desires to serve notice that it will not recognize any loan or debts contracted by Huerta or his accomplices.

Would Bar Immigrants,

Washington.-Representative Roddenbery of Georgia introduced a radical immigration bill which will restrict the influx of aliens by imposing a Iterary test, a $25 head tax and the requirement that each alien must have $100 in his pocket. The present head tax is only $4 and Mr. Roddenberry says this is paid by the steamship companies. Quoting the report of the immigration commission he said our immigration laws were woefully inadequate as compared with those of Canada, Australia, Natal, Cape Colony and New Zealand. Weak laws and feeble administrative policy account for many undesirable immigrants coming to these shores, he

CONGRESS IN EXTRA SESSION NEW AMENDMENT ADOPTED

CONGRESS OPENS UNDER DEMO-CRATIC DOMINATION AND IS ORGANIZED.

Thousand of Bills Were Introduced in the House and Scores in the Senate,

Washington.-Congress opened in extraordinary session under Democratic domination, was enlivened by the activities of a healthy youth, the progressive organization in the house and an invasion of petition-bearing suffragettes.

The youth who disturbed proceed ings was in the senate gallery and year ago. Ratification already had he tried to halt a recess of that body by shouts of "Mr. Chairman." Taken in charge, the youth gave his name as George B. Clemmer of Monroe, N. C., and said he was a "herald of the Prince of Peace."

Thousands of bills were introduced in the house and scores in the senate. The Panama canal tolls question reappeared within a few hours after the session convened, when Senator Root reintroduced his bill of last session for a repeal of that provision of the new Panama canal act which would permit American coastwise ships to enjoy freedom from tolls. James R. Mann, Republican, and Victor Murdock, Progressive, and other officers of the house also were reelected. The Progressive strength was tested on the speakership, Mr. Murdock receiving 18 votes.

been given by 35 states. While the proclamation of the secretary of state announcing final ratification of the amendment by 36 states is required by law, Senators Bristow and Borah leaders in the direct elections fight in congress, expressed the opinion that the amendment is for all practical purposes now part of the constitution. "Any man who may be elected to the senate hereafter must be elected directly," said Senator Borah. The new amendment to the constitution for the popular election of senators is the seventeenth to be adopted. It reads:

"The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the pec ple thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of state legislatures.
