Mr. J. H. Slagle, of Black Mountain will be in Marshall next Wednesday, January 28, and if any one wants any picture work done he will be pleased to see you. You will find him at Marshall Pharmacy.

It was a hard and bitter fight, but of course somebody had to win and somebody had to lose, and it so happened that Mr. J. R. Swann was the lucky one this time and it is now Postmaster Swann.

If you will send us $1.25 we will send you The News-Record and four of the leading Magazines, Womans World, Home Life, Farm Life and Green's Fruit Grower. Think of it, five good papers for almost the price of one.

A good sign of prosperity is the tremendous gains in deposits and resources of our two banks. These institutions are sound and safe and deserve your patronage. Put your money in the bank where it will be helping some one and at the same time making something for you.

On last Saturday Dr. Frank Roberts who has been the genial post master here for several years turned over his keys to Mr. J. R. Swann who has been appointed to that position under the democratic administration. Mr. Swann has secured Mr. Troy Redmon as assistant post master.

The pupils of Miss Hattie Runion's music class will give a Recital at the Club House next Wednesday evening to which all are most cordially invited.

Stockholders Meeting.

The Tenth Annual Meeting of the shareholders of The Bank of French Broad was held in the office of the Bank on Thursday January 15. The statement prepared by the Cashier for the stockholders showed that this solid old Institution enjoyed the most prosperous business during the year just ended that it has had for several years. The Stockholders declared the usual 12% dividend which was paid immediately and after this dividend was paid there was added to the profits account more than 10% from the earnings of the bank made during the year 1913. There was an increase in deposits of more than $60,000.00 and an increase in Resources of more than $70,000.00 made from Jan. 1, 1913, to Jan. 1, 1914. The old officers were re-elected for the year 1914 as follows:

J. J. Redmon, President, A. Stackhouse Vice President, W. B. Ramsey Cashier, and O. C. Rector Assistant Cashier. The following Directors were elected for the year 1914:

J. J. Renmon, J. M. Gudger Jr., A. Stackhouse, Thos. S. Rollins, J. R. Swann, J. S. Brown, Wiley M. Roberts, R. M. Whitt, R. S. Gibbs, Thos. N. James, Dr. Frank Roberts and E. T. Worley.

With more than 10 years of honorable service and more than one fourth million dollars in Resources at its command The Bank of French Broad deserves the patronage which it enjoys and is prepared to give to the people of Madison County the best and safest banking service.

The statement of this bank as published in detail on opposite page will be of interest to the many customers and friends of the bank as well as those who have money on hand and want to find a safe place to deposit same.

A WOMAN'S DAY

It begins early, and ends late. It is full of work from sun rise to bed time. Being constantly on her feet, she often has kidney trouble without knowing it. She has backache. It is hard for her to get up in the morning, she is so tired and worn out. She does not sleep well, has poor appetite and is nervous. Her bladder gives her trouble too.

Foley Kidney Pills will cure all that, and make her again STRONG, WELL and VIGOROUS. Get Foley Kidney Pills at the nearest drug store and START TAKING THEM TO-DAY. They cost less than the doctor and do more. The genuine Foley Kidney Pills are sold only in the yellow package.
