An Other Jolt

On Monday Sheriff W. M. Buckner handed us the announcement that he would not run for the nomination for sheriff of the county. Our surprise was complete and just as we were getting over the shock Hon. George M. Pritchard gave us another merciless jolt in a statement handed us for publication to the effect that he will not be a candidate for Solicitor in this district. Now, look here boys, somebody has got to run for these offices and if nobody else will do it we will have to put out some of the members of The News-Record staff. Its too bad that our public offices are becoming so in attractive. But its a fact that they are becoming more and more expensive to obtain and less and less desirable. A good business man can hardly afford to run for an office in Madison county for the reason that the remuneration is so small that even if he is elected he suffers a financial loss.

The same is practically true of the position of Solicitor. The Recorder's Court of Madison County has lowered, considerably, the Solicitor's fees, in this district; Transylvania County has been cut of from this district and there are prospects that Buncombe county will establish, at the next sitting of the Legislature, a Recorder's Court. Should Buncombe get a Recorder's Court who is there in the district that is capable and efficient as a lawyer that would even consider the position of Solicitor on the fee system? All the cases will be contested and dearly would the solicitor pay for all the fees he would get. The office will, in that event, have to be put on a salary.

Clears Complexion—Removes Skin Blemishes

Why go through life embarrassed and disfigured with pimples, eruptions, blackheads, red rough skin, or suffering the tortures of Eczema, Itch, tetter, salt rheum. Just ask your Druggist for Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Follow the simple suggestions and your skin worries are over. Mild, soothing, effective. Excellent for babies and delicate, tender skin. Stops chapping. Always helps. Relief or money back. 50c, at your Druggist.

Pritchard Not a Candidate

Attorney George M. Pritchard desires to announce that he is not a candidate for nomination as Solicitor. He states that although he has been urged to become a candidate he will not seek the nomination, and wishes to thank his many friends throughout the District for their generous offers of support.

Strengthens Weak and Tired Women

"I was under a great strain nursing a relative through three months, sickness," writes Mrs. J. C. Van De Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., and "Electric Bitters kept me from breaking down. I will never be without it." Do you feel tired and worn out? No appetite and food won't digest? It isn't the spring weather. You need Electric Bitters. Start a month's treatment to-day; nothing better for stomach, liver and kidneys. The great spring tonic. Relief or money back. 50c. and $1.00, at your Druggist.

The President on Canal Tolls

On March 5, 1914 President Wilson delivered what is perhaps the shortest message ever delivered by a president of the United States to Congress. The message deals with the Panama Canal Tolls Bill and is a masterful presentation of the president's views on the subject discussed. The message was delivered by the president in person and is as follows:

Gentlemen of The Congress: I have come to you upon an errand which can be very briefly performed, but I beg that you will not measure its importance by the number of sentences in which I state it. No communication I have addressed to the congress carried with it graver or more far-reaching implications as to the interest of the country, and I come now to speak upon a matter with regard to which I am charged in a peculiar degree, by the constitution itself, with personal responsibility.

I have come to ask you for the repeal of that provision of the Panama canal act of August 24, 1912, which exempts vessels engaged in the coastwise trade of the United States from payment of tolls, and to urge upon you the justice, the wisdom, and the large policy of such a repeal with the utmost earnestness of which I am capable.

In my own judgment, very fully considered and maturely formed, that exemption constitutes a mistaken economic policy from every point of view, and is, moreover, in plain contravention of the treaty with Great Britian concerning the canal concluded on November 18, 1901. But I have not come to urge upon you my personal views. I have come to state to you a fact and a situation. Whatever may be our own differences of opinions concerning this much debated measure, its meaning is not debated outside the United States. Everywhere else the language of the treaty is given but on interpretation, and that interpretation precludes the exemption I am asking you to repeal. We consented to the treaty; its language we accepted, if we did not originate it; and we are too big, too powerful, too self-respecting a nation to interpret with a too strained or refined reading the words of our own promises just because we have power enough to give us leave to read them as we please. The large thing to do is the only thing we can afford to do, a voluntary withdrawal from a position everywhere questioned and misunderstood. We ought to reverse our action without raising the question whether we were right or wrong, and so once more deserve our reputation for generosity and for the redemption of every obligation without quibble or hesitation.

I ask this of you in support of the foreign policy of the administration. I shall not know how to deal with other matters of even greater delicacy and nearer consequence if you do not grant it to me in ungrudging measure.

N. B. McDevitt announces that if there is a man in the county that would vote for him for Clerk of the Court, that he thanks him very kindly, and would like to sell him extra good hay, cotton seed meal, hulls, bran and shorts, corn, meal, and flour, best cash prices, but not in the want list for Clerk.

The Race in the Tenth

Judge Merrimon and Judge Walter Moore have both recently announced themselves as candidates for the nomination for congress on the democratic ticket in the tenth congressional district. But since the entry of Judge Walter Moore it is said that Judge Merrimon will not run. This leaves in the race three aspirants, all thoroughbreds. Hon. James Gudger, Jr., the present incumbent of that office is a notable campaigner, a hard and successful "scraper," Judge Moore is one of those elegant scholarly gentlemen, modest, wise, yet wide awake, of judicial turn of mind and well versed in all the avenues of human nature. Last and youngest, but not the least of the three is the breezy, goodnatured, hustling, energetic, blue-eyed, "Bob" Reynolds, present Solicitor of this judicial district. It will be seen that each of the gentlemen aspiring to this position of honor and trust and incidentally of profit (for it carries a salary of $7,500.00) are at present officers of State and have each been tried out in the various positions which they now occupy. We would be glad that each one of them might get the office but since two of them must fail it remains a question as to who the successful man will be. "Bob" has shocked the whole community and sent a thrill through the spine of the whole state, politically. He has eliminated the trains and automobiles and buggies from his convenience during the campaign and proposes to canvass the district on horseback, covering a stretch of 256 miles making public speeches, getting acquainted with the voters and in the meantime kissing all the babies for a sideline. But the novel and shocking thing that "Bob" will do is to fill his saddle bags with candy for the children of the tenth district to feast upon. Upon the candy it is said will be printed these words: "Tell your daddy to vote for Bob Reynolds. He rode miles for his vote and to bring you this candy." Bob is a first class politician. Even now may be seen in conspicuous places large sign boards bearing something like this: Vote for Bob Reynolds for congress. Mr. Gudger remains at his position in Washington, Judge Moore is on the bench, Reynolds is holding court and in the meantime the whole trio are rapidly "sawing wood." Saw on, gentlemen. Here's our best wishes for each of you.

Foley Kidney Pills Successful for Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble

Positive in action for backache, weak back, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles. P. J. Boyd, Ogle, Texas, writes: "After taking two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills, my Rheumatism and kidney trouble are completely gone." Safe and effective. —Dr. I. E. Burnett, Mars Hill, N. C.

Fifth Sunday Meeting and Singing Convention

The Fifth Sunday Meeting and Singing Convention of the French Broad Baptist church was held at the Marshall Baptist Church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Tillery of Chaple Hill, N. C., preached an able sermon at the morning service.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance at the morning session was not so large as usual. The evening service, however, was well attended and the singing was excellent.

Brother S. M. Davis was present and acted as chairman for the meeting. L. J. Bailey, J. H. White and R. B. Deaver were appointed as the Fifth Sunday meeting Committee.

The Fifth Sunday meetings and singing conventions are occasions of value to the religious life of the community, various religious topics affecting church and Sunday School life are discussed and the spirit of music widens and grows as a result of the meetings, to all, having a healthful influence upon the religious life and character of community.

E. Y. and E. R.

The Highlander, a free lance, published at Shelby, the home of Hon. E. Y. Webb, thinks the slogan of Hon. E. R. Preston, "Mecklenburg for Mecklenburg" is too narrow but at the same time products that the race between E. Y. and E. R. will be an interesting one.

That the race will be an interesting one seems to be the prevailing opinion throughout the district. Each of the gentlemen expect to win and with each expecting to win and with each expecting victory how can it fail to be an interesting campaign? Some of "Bob Reynolds candy" would create an interest even down to the children.

Dangerous Calomel Going Out of Use.

A Safer, More Reliable Remedy Has Taken its Place in the Drug Store and in the Home.

A few years ago, men, women and children took calomel for a sluggish liver and for constipation. They took risks when they did so, for calomel is a dangerous drug. Your family doctor will be the first to tell you, if he discovers you dosing yourself with calomel.

But the drug trade has found a safer, more pleasant remedy than calomel in Dodson's Liver Tone.

Marshall Pharmacy tell us that their drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tone in practically every case of biliousness and liver trouble where calomel used to be taken.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liver tonic that is absolute-harmless for children and grown people. It sells for 50 cts, a bottle and is guaranteed to be entirely satisfactory by Marshall Pharmacy who will refund your money with a smile if it does not give quick, gentle relief without any of calomel's unpleasant after-effects.
