

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

For the best Corn Planters on the market see R. H. Ward.

Prof. R. L. Moore was here from Mars Hill Saturday attending the Farmer's Union.

If you want "Old Ben" to go your way feed him N. B. McDevitt's Western Hay.

Mrs Henry Blackwell of Green Mountain, is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Smart.

Dr. W. F. Robison of Mars Hill passed through Marshall Monday on his way home from Greenville, Tenn.

If you want "Old Buck" to pull off a deal, feed him N. B. McDevitt's Cotton Seed Meal.

Rev. W. R. Beach of Cary, N. C., will preach at the Baptist church Sunday, April 12, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Calla Lilly Flour at $2.50 by the hundred, Cotton Bloom at $2.30 by the hundred. TWEED & FRANKLIN. adv.

Another whisper from Spring Creek, N. C. Ex-County Commissioner Frank B. Davis will be a candidate for the G. O. P. for sheriff of Madison county.

N. B. McDevitt sells prime 7 1/2 % Cotton Seed Meal at $1.60. Who ever "hear'n tell of sich" a price?

It is whispered that Mr. Reuben Tweed, one of the present county commissioners will ask the G. O. P. for the nomination for sheriff of the county.

R. H. Ward sells the Nova Scotia Land Plaster and Virginia Carolina Company's Fertilizers. These two brands are the best on the market. See him.

Hon. Thos. J. Murray, Dr. Tilson, James Metcalf, Anderson Metcalf, Dug Carter and various other citizens of number three township were in Marshall Monday.

O. G. Tillery Moves to Paces, Va.

Mr. G. G. Tillery and family of Mars Hill left Wednesday for Paces, Virginia. Mr Tillery is moving there. We are sorry to loose so good a citizen as Mr. Tillery. For years he has been recognized as one of the very best men in the county. He expects to make Virginia his future home but it's pretty hard for our Madison County people to go so far away that they don't come back. We wish Mr. Tillery and family that large degree of prosperity and happiness to which they are entitled, and should Virginia be reluctant to shower upon them these good things we invite them back home to "good old Madison" where will await them a warm welcome.

Death of Dr. Wallin.

Dr. Jesse Wallin of near Marshall died Tuesday morning of this week at his home. For several years his health had been poor and at times his mind was not right. He attained the ripe old age of 82 years. For many years he lived in Marshall. He was a graduate of Tusculum College and was a preacher and physician. He was a good citizen and lived a useful life. He was buried at the Madison Seminary Wednesday morning. The services were conducted by Dr. W. E. Finley. Pall bearers were N. J. Lance, J. W. Nelson, W. C. Sprinkle, A. H. Bryan, L. J. Bryan and J. N. White. The services were impressive and held at the Seminary. The music was appropriate and there was a beautiful floral offering. r

Lost!

During the past year, by thousands of smokers, all inclination for any tobacco but STAG.

A significant fact is Stag's instant appeal to old smokers—men who had long settled down to something else.

These wise old critics are perhaps the most enthusiastic of all.
