Slightly, Sprightly, Fall Styles.

Now for a suit with crisp, snappy styles, full of fervor and zest of Fall. You'll find it amongst our Michaels-Stern models. It may be a dressy gray, a refined true blue, a soft brown or dapper check, a smart tartan pencil stripe. Perhaps it is cut on English lines, slim and trim tailored with soft, rolling front.

Whatever it is, it's deftly and distinctly made, hand-worked, not machine-shirkerd, temperately and tastefully styled if you find it HERE. Of course we have the haberdashery accessories and things that will make a short inning of your Fall Outfitting.

Experts say that light blue eyes are most powerful, but for hypnosis there is nothing like the "coal black eye" you read about.

Paris has witnessed and applauded an opera without words. This shows once more the overwhelming popularity of the movies.

A girls' school at Cambridge reports a full-course dinner for 20 cents; huh, who ever heard of pickles being served in six different ways?

Why is it that when a young woman is almost run down by a motorcycle she giggles and a man in the same circumstance swears?

Ears are being worn again by many of the best dressers among our girls. Guess they will look all right when we get used to 'em.

A California judge says the mother has the exclusive right to name the baby. If it's a boy and she names it after father, he won't object.

Some men are always talking about what they would do if they had $1,000,000. As a rule, they are men who never have more than $2 at a time.

When a man asks a woman drive him to drink you may be sure that if it hadn't been for the woman he would have found some other excuse.

The surest way to kill the tip custom is to make a law compelling all classes to contribute tips on all sorts of occasions where there are now some voluntarily and gladly tip.

Many a boy who used to burn the midnight oil in order to acquire an education is now a middle-aged man and burns the early morning electric current while he dances the tango.

The Atlanta Georgian says "Ish ka bibble" is of Yiddish-German origin. Nobody cares about its origin. What we should like to know is, what is its destination and will it soon arrive there?

The crown prince of Sweden wants to come to the Panama exposition in San Francisco. It is a pity the young royalties are prevented by tradition from coming over here and seeing something of real life.

A dispatch from Turin states that Prof. Zenophon Squinabel has been appointed a royal inspector of classical, technical and normal schools. The learned professor has an impressive name and perhaps his manner is equal to it.

THE APPALACHIAN Fair Association

Will Hold Its Eleventh Annual Meeting
At Newport, Tennessee
October 13, 14 and 15, 1914.

We anticipate the most successful Fair in the history of our Association. The bountiful crops insure immense farm exhibits. We always have large live stock and poultry shows and, in fact, our fair surpasses other fairs in this territory.

We have secured an Aeroplane for our fair this year, and flights will be made each day.

A Brass Band from Chicago will furnish music at an expense to the Fair Association of $400.00. The music furnished by this band will alone be worth the price.

We have a number of other free attractions, as well as the usual pay attractions which follow the fairs.
