BALEY & JARRETT Hardware & Furniture.

The reliable and popular establishment owned and conducted by Messrs. Baley and Jarrett and located on Main Street, continues daily to supply from its well chosen stock, every thing our farmers and town people need in the lines of Hardware, cutlery, furniture, harness, mattresses, stoves, ranges, Nissen and Lamon wagons, Hoosier wheat drills, South Bend plows; Boss heating stoves, guns, and every thing that you wish in their line.

They are worthy of everything that you can give them because they are here to please you and do what you want even at a sacrifice to themselves; Old and well known in the county the name they have had in time past will be a guarantee of what they will do for you in the future. Their establishment is up-to-date and every thing they have is new and good. The money left with them will be well spent and every article bought will be worth the price asked. They are worthy of your trade.

J. P. Fisher

Mr. Fisher is one of the men that the town needs above all others as he is one that clothes

N. B. McDevitt

N. B. McDevitt is the retiring Clerk of the Superior Court of Madison County, which office he did not seek again even though his many friends insisted that he run. Mr. McDevitt was born in Madison county but his parents moved to Tennessee when he was only a few weeks old. He completed the common school branches, later entering Mars Hill College for a stay of four years after which time he taught in the public schools of the county and attended Wake Forest College.

At Mars Hill he made many friends while in the mercantile business, later going on the road as a traveling salesman, remaining for eight years. At the Appalachian Exposition at Knoxville while with Deaver Kennedy Co., he sold over $15000.00 worth of goods in three weeks, at the same time being County Tax Assessor. He made the race in 1912 for representative and for the first time in years reduced the majority to about two hundred. He has been chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for the last two years and holds that position at the present time.

Mr. McDevitt is glad that his time as Clerk of the Court will soon expire as he is interested in the wholesale and retail feed business at this place, and is doing a nice business.

you and covers the wear of time and weather. For many years he ran the pressing club of Marshall and later branched out into a larger business and rented the building where he now is in business. The business has grown beyond the hopes of the beginning until now the lines he represents are vogue in Marshall. He represents the International Tailoring Company of Chicago and New York and if you want an up-to-date outfit you need go no farther than his place of business. Gents furnishing, Hall Mark Shirts, Rogers best hats.

He also carries an up-to-date line of mens and boys clothing and can give you everything that you want. Pressing and cleaning done at all times and in the most improved style.

Miss Roberta Rogers

Miss Roberta Rogers is a young lady, who by her worth and enterprise has made herself a substantial part of the life of town. She is located above the Bank of French Broad and has an office where she does Insurance and Public stenography. She is a native of Buncombe County, N. C. and has attended Carson and Newman College at Jefferson City.

J. H. HAYNIE, Groceries.

That it pays to carry a good and varied stock of goods in any line the business that is carried on by the above proves.

Starting in 1907 on less than seventy-five dollars of capital by dint of enterprise and hard work this business has been built up until today the proprietor carries about a $1,500.00 stock of goods and although he has served the people cheaply and well, still the magnitude of the business has been such that the profits have permitted him to acquire a farm and other property outside. Mr. Haynie carries staple and fancy groceries, buys and sells country produce, fruits, candies, cigars, cigarettes and tobacco.

Mr. Haynie is a native of the county and has lived here all his life. He is an influential member of the Free Will Baptist church and Secretary of Executive Committee of Republican party. He is a pushing citizen, interested in all that pertains to the uplift of the county. Mr. Haynie is interested in fine stock and has the prize Jersey heifer (registered) of the county.

Hundreds of imitations have come and gone since Foley's Honey and Tar Compound began 40 years ago—to loosen the grip of coughs and colds. You can not get a substitute to do it for you what Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do—for coughs, colds, croup, bronchial affections, is gripe coughs, and tickling throat. Buy it of your druggist and feel safe. Dr. I. E. Burnett, Mars Hill, N. C.

R. S. Gibbs Mars Hill, N. C.

To write the history without mentioning the name of the citizen above mentioned would mean to leave out one of the factors that has made the later history of the town. A native of the county. Mr. Gibbs has seen during the few years that he has lived a great change and he has had a great part in the change. He is well established and has one of the largest business in the county.

He has three stores one at Mars Hill another at Ivy and another at California Creek. He is connected with the Masons and the Odd Fellows. He is also a director in the Bank of French Broad.

Mr. Gibbs represents the best of business and his rise to a position of prominence in the business world is but the result of his acumen in matters.

Mr. Gibbs is also interested in the Halewood Manufacturing Company.

Dr. George H. Packard

Dr. George H. Packard is the latest addition to the Madison County Medical Society. He came to the county from Medford Mass., where he has directed the Packard Private Hospital for many years. Dr. Packard is a graduate of the best of Medical Schools and came after years of practice to live in the Laurel district of our County and already has gained many friends by his skill and success in his chosen profession.

Dr. Packard and wife live at Alleghany where their home is always open to the sojourner. Dr. Packard lately has had one or two difficult operations which were performed successfully.

Dr. I. E. Burnett, Mars Hill,

Last Wednesday the county central committee for Community week met and appointed the committee for the different districts and laid plans for the celebration of that week as best might be possible. Every committeeman do his part and we are sure to have a fine three days.
