See us before selling your produce. Marshall Produce Co. at R. N. Ramsey's.

A complete Steamer Still outfit was captured on the head of Long Branch in No 16 township last Saturday by Deputy Sheriff H. C. Cole, and S. H. Wheeler. The outfit showed evidence of having been operated for some time. No men were caught as the still was not in operation at the time of the capture. 2-1-2 gallons of whiskey was found and destroyed together with about 100 gallons of beer.

Hon. Charley Chandler of London, Ky., formerly of the Mars Hill section, and T. F. Chandler of Rutledge, Tenn., is in town this week on business. Mr. Charley Chandler served with distinction in the last Legislature at Frankfort, Ky.

Robert R. Ramsey of Walnut, president of the Fair Association, informs us that all of the premiums that was offered at last fair has been paid except fifteen per cent on the premiums offered for the live stock. Mr. Ramsey says that the total amount received from all resources fell short of paying the expenses and premiums offered by about three hundred dollars, and this amount is being subscribed by private individuals. And just as soon as it is possible to get a few more people who are interested in the success of the fair to donate a few more dollars—the balance of the fifteen per cent on the live stock will be paid. The promoters of the fair determine that every penny shall be paid. The last fair was the best in the history of the county, and while there is no dissatisfaction so far as we learned with the old officers and management. You will soon receive a notice giving you the date at which time there will be a re-organization of the county fair. And while the last fair was a losing proposition financially, it is the opinion of the great majority of the people of the county that thousands of dollars in benefit has been derived by the splendid display and showing made by the people coming together with their own products and splendid stock which was exhibited during our last fair. The people are more enthusiastic over the matter and are determined to have a bigger and better fair this fall than ever before. So let every person in the county get ready now for the coming fair. We want you to bring every thing from a peck of potatoes to an air-plane. Premium list will soon be prepared and the industry is going forward as never before. Mr. Ramsey desires to thank those who so faithfully co-operated with him making last fair a success and we are sure we speak the voice of the people when we thank him and the other officers of the fair for their splendid effort and successful management without fee or hope of reward. Get ready for the big fair.

John A. Hendricks For The Legislature.

Upon the requests of many of the voters, I hereby announce myself as a Candidate for the nomination as representative of Madison County in the next Legislature. Subject to the Republican Primary. The next Legislature promises to be the most important that has been held in this State for many years. The question of a new system of County Government, the Sale of the North Carolina Railroad, and other vital questions affecting the people will come before the General Assembly.

John A. Hendricks,

Woman.

She's warm, she's cold, she's pleasing, vexing,
An open book and a thing perplexing;
She will give you joy, she will cause you sorrow,
With a smile today and a frown tomorrow;
She'll bring despair and hope restore you,
She'll be your slave, and she'll lord it o'er you.
Responsive, shy, forgiving, spiteful,
An inconsistency delightful,
Repelling now, anon caressing.
Man's greatest plague, his chiefest blessing.
And though beneath himself he's classed her,
And calls himself her lord and master,
She casts him off or closer binds him,
And round her little finger 'winds him.

—Locoma.

To The Voters Of Madison County

Time rolls around and it seems but yesterday that I came before you announcing my candidacy for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Madison County for the preceding terms. All were very kind in supporting me in the last two elections and once again I come to place my name before you as aspirant for the office.

I do this feeling that the years already spent in your service have given me the experience needed to carry on well the business that this office entails and I ask that, having found me tried and true during the past terms, I have served, you may consider me favorably for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of this County.

Very Respectfully,
W. A. WEST.
