Shower for Miss Hyde

Mrs. Robert Ramsey and Miss Queen Ann Ramsey entertained at the home of Miss Ramsey, Thursday afternoon from four to five, with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Hyde, whose marriage to Mr. Meminger, of Penn., takes place Wednesday evening. The color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations.

An original game was played in which a rhyme told the bride elect where to find the gifts. Quite an enjoyable reading was given by Miss Ann Hyde, Mrs. Arthur McDewitt, gave several musical numbers, a quartette composed of Messrs. Hyde, Jones, Chandler, and McDewitt, sang several selections, after which dainty refreshments were served.

About thirty five of Miss Hyde's friends were present.

Mass Meeting

At a mass meeting of the Democrats at the court house last Saturday at 2 p. m., the following parties were endorsed by said meeting to run in the June primary for the various county offices as stated below on the Democratic ticket.

For Representative, J. W. Nelson; Clerk of Superior Court, C. W. Balding; for Sheriff, Luther Howell; For Register of Deeds, Miss Flossie Murra; County Commissioner, Tom Vrisbee; Corner, W. A. Sams; Surveyor, Joe Worley; Auditor, Clarence Redmon; Constable, Lee Bryan; Board of Education, N. B. McDevitt.

Excuse us just this one time we will hereafter give more news and less advertisement or print a supplement as we have been doing so often heretofore.

To-day's papers state that freight rates are cut 10 per cent to take effect July 1st 1922.

In the case of C. M. Gage and others against Andy Bridges and others the jurors just returned a verdict in favor of the defendant Bridges.

The well known C. L. McDowell of Walnut is in charge of a crew of five hands and is doing repair work and cleaning and painting all the bridges on the Dixie Highway in the Ninth District, which extends to Spencer, N. C. He is located now at Petersburg, and from there he will move to Marshall. He is fitted out with a good sized house on wheels in which he sleeps, a large tent in which he cooks and a high power motor truck which carries his outfit from place to place.

FOLEY'S CHINOLAXATIVE

To The Voters Of Madison County

Time rolls around and it seems but yesterday that I came before you announcing my candidacy for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Madison County for the preceding terms. All were very kind in supporting me in the last two elections and once again I come to place my name before you as aspirant for the office.

I do this feeling that the years already spent in your service have given me the experience needed to carry on well the business that this office entails and I ask that, having found me tried and true during the past terms, I have served, you may consider me favorably for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of this County.

Very Respectfully,
W. A. WEST.

J. WILL ANNOUNCES

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY:
(Both Ladies and Gentlemen.)

I have been your Register of Deeds for some time and it has been my desire to conduct the office properly, and in that respect I have done my best, but it is for you to say how well I have succeeded in my intentions. It is now coming time for another election, and I am again asking for your suffrage and support and in doing so I want to assure you that I will do my best to continue to make you a good officer. Thanking you for past favors and thanking you in advance for any support you may give me in the coming Primary.

I Remain Yours To Serve,
J. WILL ROBERTS.

P. S. I wish to state that being a candidate myself, that it could not be expected of me to take part in the interest of any Candidate for any office other than my own. As all the Candidates are my personal friends. This being the case I cannot, wont and will not take any part in the race of any Candidate for any office. I hope this statement will be appreciated by all concerned.

J. WILL ROBERTS.
