J. Will says he never makes a promise that he fails to keep. Do you get that.

Mr. M. L. Robinson, who owns the property where the News Record use to be, is remodeling the down stairs so it may be used as a dwelling department.

When you meet J. Will Roberts on the street or in his office, he is just the same old J. Will is always glad to see you.

In every community there are people who have been wonderfully restored to health by taking Tanlac. Try it. Marshall Pharmacy, Marshall, N. C.

Don't lose hope. Tanlac has helped thousands who had almost given up in despair. Try it. Marshall Pharmacy, Marshall, N. C.

As a competent and accommodating Register of Deeds there is no better in North Carolina than J. Will Roberts.

The people of Madison County know J. Will Roberts (regardless of politics) to be one of the nicest and most accommodating Register of Deeds the County ever had.

Diplomas were awarded Miss Verlye Tweed, daughter of Bob Tweed and Miss Jessie Norris both of our county by the Normal School this week at Asheville.

Miss Nell Hinkle and Miss Katherine Deaver who have been attending the Normal School at Asheville are now at home during the holidays.

Mr. J. S. Massey formerly of Anderson Branch who is now holding a responsible position with the Whitney Cotton Mills of Whitney, S. C., is at his old home on Anderson Branch looking after making some repairs. Mr. Massey says he has not lost a day in the last 34 months, except for a day or so that he was sick. He states that he and his family have enjoyed good health until the last three months, during that period his wife has been in bad health.

On last Saturday May 27th, Fred Caldwell drove his car full of occupants to a high point on the road just above Kenneth Murrays to watch the ball game in the Island. They all left the car and was observing the game. The young son of Blaine Haynie age 9, climbed into the car and was sitting on the back seat. From some unknown reason the car started. Mr. Edwards a bystander saw the car start, he made an effort to stop the car, failing in this he caught the child and jerked it to safety. The car plunged on down the precipice turning over several times landing in the road below, a distance of thirty feet which completely demolished the car. No doubt Mr. and Mrs. Haynie will never forget this heroic act of Mr. Edwards.

We note from the Banner, that our friend Joe Craigmiles, the editor of that news sheet is making an aggressive campaign for county treasurer, and in his announcement he asks the voters if they can give any good reason why he should not be elected. We do not believe that a single republican in Mitchell County could give any such reason that is if they have the proper appreciation for his services to the county. We have observed his paper from its first issue and Joe has never failed to "boost" the county in and out of season. Certainly the voters should give him this position as an appreciation for what he has done in the way of promoting

News Of Interest Base Ball

On last Saturday the game was played between the Chicago women and the Yellow Jackets of Marshall. The game ended in a score 5 to 4 in favor of the girls. This was an interesting game, and the girls could play ball, I say they can. If you don't believe me. Ask the yellow jackets? The game was running along about the 9th when they run Grover C. Redmon Manager of the little Hornets in as a pinch hitter. Grover did as well as most any one could do under the circumstances. He landed on the pill driving it to short stop, there it met fate it was picked up like a lightning bug, it was pegged to 2nd then to 1st which settled the yellow jackets. Then they got unruly and swarmed out of the Island and settled on the streets of this city. The little Hornets were mad all Saturday evening and Sunday.

Another hot game was played yesterday between Marshall and Barnardville the game ended in a score something like this 7 to 0 in favor of Barnardville. The Hornets has got to "Snap-out" of this if they ever expect to make the league.

HOW TO INVEST MONEY

The Post Office Your Savings Bank.

Postmaster Wm. C. Pope continues to impress upon the people of Marshall the advantages of Treasury Savings Certificates and Postal Savings as an investment as well as the best method of encouraging persons of small income to form the habits of thrift and saving. "The post office under this system" said a financial sage who made an investigation of the new U. S. Government Savings System, "will become the savings bank of the wage earner and the person of small salary. In many of the large cities, and in factory towns, and especially in many of the smaller towns in the rural districts, it is very inconvenient for earners of a weekly wage to reach a bank after receiving their pay, but a post office is usually available. When the people fully understand that their post offices offer them modern banking facilities they will avail themselves of this modern savings system which is run for their own advantage and at no cost to them. Postal Savings and Treasury Savings Certificates offer an unusual opportunity, and the post office is ready to render these banking facilities in an efficient manner.

Postmaster Pope is pleased with the suggestion of the post office as the wage-earners' savings bank, and intends to make it that in fact; as long as people who are its patrons show a disposition to save. He calls especial attention to the fact that the Government is in this savings movement because the officials have become convinced that only through the Government can a nation-wide campaign for savings be inaugurated and made successful. "The Government" he said, "affords an opportunity for everybody to save. Any person with ten cents can open a savings account with the Government. With ten cents a postal savings stamp can be bought at the post office. When ten stamps have been purchased and affixed to a postal savings card they can be exchanged for a $1 interest bearing postal savings certificate to the amount of $2.50 may be purchased by any one person. Small investors can also buy Treasury Savings Stamps at $1 each. They do not draw interest but when 20 stamps have been acquired they can be exchanged for a $25 Treasury Savings Certificate. These certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1,000 and sold for $20, $80, and $800. They pay 4 1/2 per cent compounded semi-annually and are exempt from state and

French Broad Association

Sixteen Baptist ministers and eight laymen met at Mars Hill Church, May 8th, 1922, and discussed the following subjects:

1. What am I worth to my brother ministers? Rev. A. J. Sprinkle made a splendid talk on this, he was followed by H. K. Mullin, Perry Sprinkle and W. R. White.

2. What are they worth to me? Rev. Jesse Watts, L. W. Hager, R. L. Moore, Wade White and R. H. Morgan made short talks.

3. What do I, as a minister, owe the French Broad Association? Rev. J. M. Pickens was the one to begin the subjects, but he was absent. L. C. Roberts, W. P. Jervis, F. M. Coffey, Roy Morgan and J. C. Pipes made stirring talks.

4. How can I pay it? Rev. James Corn, to open this subject, was absent. Revs. J. R. Owen, W. R. Lunsford and J. H. Wade nobly discussed this part of the Program.

A great dinner was served by Mrs. Owen and several other ladies, in front of Brother Owen's home. We certainly thank the ladies for the splendid dinner.

A Resolution was passed, urging every pastor and all christians to talk and pray that a sheriff may be elected that will enforce the Prohibition Law, as Sheriff J. J. Bailey has done. Next meeting at Laurel Branch Church, June 5th.

Everybody urged to attend. Rev. Perry Sprinkle, Moderator Wade White, Secretary.

Rev. Shuford Jenkins, Boy Evangelist Closes a Three Weeks Evangelistic Campaign

News-Record:-

Rev. Shuford Jenkins, the "Boy" Evangelist, will close a three-weeks' evangelistic campaign in his tent Sunday night. The campaign here through rain and mud and a wind which blew the tent down last week, and which was interfered with by a school commencement which naturally drew many from the services, has been a marked success resulting in 100 conversions already, besides reclaiming many back sliders.

About $300 was given in collections for the tent fund. The remaining collections will go to Mr. Jenkins personally and to expenses of the campaign. He deserves a big collection for he works hard day and night and is intensely in earnest. He is well aided by Rev. Mr. Snyder and Mr. Freeman, the singer. The party and tent go to Bryson City next week, the former home of Mr. Jenkins, and it is certain the people there will flock to the services. The meetings here

The Marshall High School came to a close Wednesday night after a successful session of nine months. The closing exercises has been splendid in every respect and well attended by the entire town and neighborhood. Hon. Gallatin Roberts, mayor of Asheville, addressed the school Tuesday morning. His address was well taken and enjoyed by all who heard it. The school as well as the town felt honored by having Mr. Roberts with us as he was at one time a resident of our town. The school during the past year is beyond doubt the best that has ever been in operation, in fact we do not believe a better school has been taught in the entire State.

As we go to press the town is abuzz with candidates. We would not venture to forecast the successful candidates but in next have been largely attended and received the hearty co-operation of the local preachers.—The Carolina Mountaineer.

To The Voters Of Madison County

Time rolls around and it seems but yesterday that I came before you announcing my candidacy for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Madison County for the preceding terms. All were very kind in supporting me in the last two elections and once again I come to place my name before you as aspirant for the office.

I do this feeling that the years already spent in your service have given me the experience needed to carry on well the business that this office entails and I ask that, having found me tried and true during the past terms, I have served, you may consider me favorably for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of this County.

Very Respectfully,
W. A. WEST.

J. WILL ANNOUNCES

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY: (Both Ladies and Gentlemen.)

I have been your Register of Deeds for some time and it has been my desire to conduct the office properly, and in that respect I have done my best, but it is for you to say how well I have succeeded in my intentions. It is now coming time for another election, and I am again asking for your suffrage and support and in doing so I want to assure you that I will do my best to continue to make you a good officer. Thanking you for past favors and thanking you in advance for any support you may give me in the coming Primary.

I Remain Yours To Serve,

J. WILL ROBERTS.

P. S. I wish to state that being a candidate myself, that it could not be expected of me to take part in the interest of any Candidate for any office other than my own. As all the Candidates are my personal friends. This being the case I cannot, wont and will not take any part in the race of any Candidate for any office. I hope this statement will be appreciated by all concerned.

J. WILL ROBERTS.

Headquarters Fourth Brigade, North Carolina Division United Confederate Veterans

Asheville N. C. May 1922

Dear Comrades:
Gen. Chas. B. Howry of Washington, D. C., commander of the Army of Northern Virginia of United Confederate Veterans, and Gen. W. A. Smith, commanding the North Carolina Division, as well as Gen. J. M. Ray, the commander of the Fourth North Carolina Brigade, all join in earnestly insisting that all the old veterans who are physically able should attend the coming Reunion at Richmond, Va., on the 20th, 21st and 22nd of June as that city and state are promising us royal treatment while there.

It is further insisted that all who are financially able should wear a Confederate gray uniform (it is becoming to almost everybody.) If you have none, it can be stated that they are cheaper than some years ago. If those who desire to purchase uniforms will write me a card I will reply by giving them the address of three reliable firms who will be glad to have their orders. The twenty-two Western North Carolina counties constitute the Fourth North Carolina Brigade, and it is hoped that this brigade will do its utmost to make a fine showing at Richmond.

J. W. GOODWIN,
Assistant Adjutant Gen. 4th N. C. Brigade.

Walnut News

One of the most beautiful weddings that Walnut has witnessed, occurred in the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening May 24, when Mr. H. W. Memminger of Spruce Hill Penn., and Miss Etta Hyde of Walnut were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the father and brother of the bride Revs. Wesley M. and James L. Hyde of Walnut. The church was very beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the wedding march was played by Miss Queen Ramsey. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive. After the ceremony the large crowd of more than one hundred retired to the Presbyterian manse where the people enjoyed a very pleasant time together, being entertained by the Walnut Band, and most of all the large crowd was treated, by the Hyde family on ice-cream, cake and straw-berries which were enjoyed very much.

After a few days stay in Walnut Mr. and Mrs. Memminger left in their car for their future home in Penn.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Hyde of Pomeroy Ohio, who came for their sister's wedding are remaining in Walnut for some days.

Rev. Hyde filled the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday morning for his brother Rev. James L. Hyde.
