IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL Sunday School 'Lesson'

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union

LESSON FOR JANUARY 21

THE PRODIGAL SON

LESSON TEXT—Luke 15:11-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.—Luke 15:10.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Psalm 137:3-6; Rom. 8:1-4; Gal. 3:1-4.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Father's Love.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Picture of the Heavenly Father's Love.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Reach and Power of Our Father's Love.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Treat Sinners.

I. The Son's Insubordination (v. 12).
There is every indication that this was a happy home. But a devil entered it and stirred up discontent in the heart of the younger son. He became tired of the restraints of home. His desire for freedom moved him to wilfully choose to leave home—throw off the constraints of his father's rule. Sin is the desire to be free from the restraints of rightful authority and for selfish indulgence. It starts out with wrong thoughts about God. At the request of the son, the father "divided unto them his living."

II. The Son's Departure (v. 13).
Having made the final decision he got his goods in portable shape. Having thrown off the restraints of his father's rule he eagerly withdrew from his father's presence. This is always the way sin works. He "gathered all together." When the sinner casts off his allegiance to God he takes all that he has with him. He not only wastes his money, but his character is sacrificed.

III. The Son's Degeneration (vv. 13-14).
He had a good time while his money lasted, but the end came quickly. The indications are that his course was soon run. From plenty in his father's house to destitution in the far country was a short journey. The sinner is soon made to realize the famine when his very powers which ministered to his pleasure are burned out.

IV. The Son's Degradation (vv. 15, 16).
He had no friends to help him when his money was all gone, so he was driven to hire out to a citizen to feed swine. It was quite a change from a sonship in his father's house to feeding hogs in the far country. So it is; those who will not serve God are made slaves to the devil to do his bidding (Rom. 6:16). In his shame and disgrace the prodigal could not even get the necessary food. The coarse food of the hogs was denied him.

V. The Son's Restoration (vv. 17-24).
1. He Came to Himself (v. 17).
When he reflected a bit he was made conscious that, though he had wronged his father and ruined himself, yet he was a son of his father. In the days of his sinning he was beside himself. The world calls the sinner who leaves off his evil ways crazy, but in reality he just becomes sane. If we could but get sinners to think seriously of their condition it would be more easy to get them to turn from their sins.

2. His Resolution (v. 18).
His reflection ripened into resolution. The picture of his home, where even the hired servants had a superabundance, moved him to make a decision to leave the far country, and go home.

3. His Confession (vv. 18, 19).
He acknowledged that his sin was against heaven, and his father—that he had forfeited his right to be called a son, and begged to be given a place as a hired servant. The sinner not only should make a resolution; he should confess his sin; for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

4. His Action (v. 20).
Action was needed. Resolution will not avail unless accompanied with action.

5. His Reception by His Father (vv. 20-24).
The father had not forgotten his son. During the years he longed for his return. He must often have looked for him, for he saw him when he was a great way off. So anxious was he for him that he ran to meet him and fell upon his neck and kissed him. So glad was the father that he even did not hear his confession through, but ordered the tokens of honor to be placed upon him, receiving him back into a son's position. This parable makes bare God's heart. Every teacher should strive to present this lesson so as to show God's forgiving mercy—His willingness to receive back His wayward child.

Two Classes.
The race is divided into two classes, those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit still and inquire, "Why wasn't it done the other way?"—O. W. Holmes.

Taken From Evil to Come.
The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.—Isiah 57:1.

Assurance.
In our trials and conflicts we are assured of the tender sympathy of heaven.—Anon.

How Easy to Love.
How difficult it is to know—how easy to love them!—Unknown.

TELLS OTHERS OF ITS GREAT VALUE

In Nursing Sick, Mrs. Patten States, She Often Recommends Tanlac—Thinks It Wonderful.

"I firmly believe Tanlac is what keeps me so well and strong," is the high tribute paid the medicine, recently, by Mrs. Edith J. Patten, widely known and esteemed resident of 560 Cumberland Ave., Portland, Me.

"When I began the use of Tanlac I had not felt right for a long time and was all run down. After persistently taking the treatment considered best for such a condition I got no better. In fact I seemed to be growing worse until a lady friend insisted on me trying Tanlac.

"At that time I took two or three bottles and was perfectly well again. Since then I have taken a bottle two or three times a year and no one could feel better. I have done lots of nursing of the sick, and since Tanlac did so much for me I have been the cause of many others taking it—always with splendid results. It is with this knowledge and experience that I recommend Tanlac as a wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

Motor Cars in Belfast.

The 10,000 cars in the city of Belfast show that there are more cars in this city than in any other in the United Kingdom of the same size and commercial importance. Within the past nine months, 1,246 motor vehicles have been registered. The wholesale price of petrol is, however, higher than in some parts of the United Kingdom Vice Consul George H. Barringer reports to the Department of Commerce.

Baby Relieved of Cold While Mother Sleeps

"When my babies have a cold I just give them Teethina at bed time and they are bright and playful next morning. Teethina relieves their cold while we all sleep," declares Mrs. Ira W. Redfern, of Mt. Pleasant, Texas.

Babies' colds are generally easily broken up if Teethina is given at the first sign of trouble. Let the cold run on and you are apt to have a mighty sick baby.

Teethina is perfectly harmless. It is the prescription of an able physician and has been universally used for fifty years. Teethina is for babies and little children to clean out their bowels and make them well and happy. It contains no narcotics whatsoever.

All good druggists keep it, or send 80c to Dr. Moffett Laboratories, Columbus, Ga., and get a package of Teethina and the valuable Baby booklet.—Advertisement.

Simple Matter.

"Don't be afraid," said an aviator to a timid passenger. "All you have to do is sit quiet."

"I know all about that," retorted the passenger. "But suppose something happens and we begin to fall?"

"Oh, in that case," the aviator reassured him, "you are to grasp the first solid thing we pass and hold tight."—Legion Weekly.

DYED HER SKIRT, DRESS, SWEATER AND DRAPERIES WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her worn, shabby dresses, skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything, even if she has never dyed before. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is sure because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to spot, fade, streak, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.—Advertisement.

Woman Commands Ship.

Probably the only woman who acts as a ship's captain is Mrs. T. Alken Dick. She is the owner of the Flame, a vessel of 92 tons, engaged in the English coasting trade, and has decided that she will command it herself. She started on her first voyage not long ago, leaving London for the Isle of Wight. She has a crew of three, who answer her orders with a brisk "Aye, aye, m'm!"
