

Notice of Sale of Real Estate Under Deed of Trust

By virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust bearing date the 29th day of December, 1921, made by M. F. Trammel and Cecil Trammel to the undersigned trustee, to secure the payment of the note therein mentioned, default having been made in the payment of said indebtedness by which the power of sale became operative, and the holder of said note having requested the undersigned trustee to foreclose, I, Grover Gowan, Trustee, will on the 17th day of March, 1924, at the Court House door in the town of Marshall, N. C., at the hour of 12 o'clock, noon offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real estate to satisfy said debt, interest and cost, as provided in said deed of trust to wit:

That certain piece, parcel, or lot of land, situate in No 9 township of Madison County, adjoining the lands of Weaver Brown Jackson Ebbs, and others described as follows: Beginning on a bunch of Chestnuts, beginning corner of the 100 acre tract entered by Hiram Sexton, and runs South 100 poles to a Spruce Pine at the Creek; thence West 40 poles to a Chestnut, corner of lot Number 2, thence North with line of lot Number 2, 100 poles to a stake, the beginning corner of lot Number 2, thence East 40 poles to the Beginning, containing 25 acres, more or less.

Two lots of one acre each excepted from this property, one where James Gowan lives, the other the Miller old mill site.

This the 8th day of Feb. 1924.
2 15 24 to 3 7 24 d,

GROVER GOWAN,
Trustee.

EVEN A SINGLE TRACK MIND NEEDS A SOLID ROAD BED

—and valuables need a Safety Vault.

RATS! They get into currency and valuable papers—two-legged or four-legged—they destroy just the same.

Fire—theft—accidents—any of these things could happen—and often do—to money or valuables kept around the house—and think of the load on the mind of the owner.

For $2.00 per year we'll give you restful nights and full protection for your valuables in our safety deposit boxes.

Isn't it Worth Considering?

Next Spring—

With over 200,000 orders for Ford Cars and Trucks already placed for delivery during the next few months, we are facing a record-breaking spring demand.

Each successive month this winter has witnessed a growth in sales far surpassing that of any previous winter season. This increase will be even greater during the spring months, always the heaviest buying period.

These facts suggest that you place your order early to avoid disappointment in delivery at the time desired.
