Greensboro. - "Reasonably good" was the opinion of B. C. Forbes, edi tor of Forbes Magazine and writer on business and economic topics, referr ing to the general business outlook at the annual meeting of the local chamber of commerce here.

He doesn't look for any boom and doesn't want to see any boom. But "sound and favorable" are the factors which make for prosperity, he thought Encouraging signs were seen by Mr. Forbes in his tour of the South in business conditions as shown by labor, railroads, diversification of industry. All over the country he finds the factors in general good-the money supply, taxation programs foreign commerce, foreign affairs. Mr. Forbes said that in the South he found some unemployment but less than was formerly considered a normal amount. Labor, in addition is receiving the highest perchasing power in wages that it has recoved in many years not excepting the war period.

Agricultural conditions he found less satsifactory. "In the Northwest and in parts of the South there are bad conditions but not so bad, I believe, as some newspapers have pictured. A majority of the farmers who went to the wall in the North west would have gone anyway. They were wheat farmers, worked only a short time and were lazy. Parts of the South have suffered through failure of the cotton crop, but agriculture, taken as a whole, has been improving and is now moderately good."

Will Your Family Be Happy This Spring?

If yours is one of the few remaining families lacking an automobile, no doubt you have finally decided to get one within the next four months.

A low-priced modern automobile like the Chevrolet has be-come indispensable to the family of ordinary income. A million other families can easily prove to you that the better way is with Chevrolet. The beauties of nature, the interesting and educational features of other places and ways of living, remain things to read about or seen dimly in cold photographs until you are free toget to them at your convenience and pleasure.

But, suppose you have definitely decided to buy a Chevrolet this spring. This does not necessarily mean you are going to get it. Anyone posted on conditions in the automobile business will tell you that thousands of families are going to be unable to get cars this spring. This has been true almost every spring for the last ten years. There are just two ways of making sure of getting your Chevrolet for use when the flowers and balmy breezes of spring lure you to the country roads—buy it now or order it now. or order it now.

If you do not want to pay for it in full at this time, any Chev. olet dealer will arrange terms to suit your convenience. You will be surprised to learn how effsy it is to pay for a Chevrolet and use it while you are paying for it.

Please realize these statements are made by us in good faith and we mean just what we say about the possible difficulties of getting a car delivered to you this spring if you wait until then to order it. The only way to be sure of a Chevrolet this Spring is to order it NOW.

Field's Granddaughter Gives Up U. S.

Mrs. Archibald Charles Edmonstone, who until her recent marriage was Miss Gwendolyn Field, granddaughter of the late Marshal Field, has renounced her American citizenship and become a British subject. The order was issued by Federal Judge George A. Carpenter, Chicago, at the request of her counsel, David Owen Dunbar, who said that because her legal status as the wife of a British subject made her fortune subject to taxation in both this country and Great Britain. In an affidavit filed before the American consul in Glasgow, Scotland, Mrs. Edmonstone states that she was born in Chicago on May 17, 1902, the daughter of Marshal Field II, and Albertina Huck Field. She was married on April 5, 1923, to Archibald Charles Edmonstone. Her address is Duntreath castle, Blainefield, Scotland, Under her father's will, his $100,- 000,000 estate was to be divided into two parts-Capt, Marshall Field III was to receive three-fifths and Henry Field two-fifths of the principal when they reached the age of fifty. In a final accounting of the will in the Probate court. Mrs. Edmonstone received $550,000 under the terms of a codicil.

the auditorium was announced here by Prof. Paul J Weaver, head of the university music department, who is president of the association.

The principal speakers will be Dr. Hollis Dann, state supervisor of music in Pennsylvania, and Miss Hazel Gertrude Kinscella of the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Dann is nationally known as an authority on school music and is the author of a series of text books widely used in this state.

Miss Kinscella is the originator of the well known "Kinscella Method of Class Plano Instruction;" she is also well known in this part of the country, having taught a year ago last summer in the North Carolina College for Women and last summer here in the university. She will give a demonstration of her work in Raleigh, using a group of 39 children from Roanoke Rapids, Weldon and Hickory. These children have been trained by teachers who have had their training under Miss Kinscella.

Organize Its First Garden Club. Goldsboro .- The Garden club, of this city, the first to be organized in this state, has been presented a most attractive pamphlet by Lionel Well, an authority on trees. It is typographically attractive and a splendid picture of a long leaf pine adorns the cover. Goldsboro, as far as can be learned is leading the north state cities in the lauding of this splendid tree, and a whole avenue, a memorial to soldiers has been planted with long leaf pines. Mr. Weil, one of the city's highest esteemed citizens. is devoted to trees and his knowledge and inspiration have been most effective in the movement now on for the beautifying of the city.
